Architect, or Surveyor; (2) that the works on which they have been engaged during those years were such as to afford them the opportunity of gaining a satisfactory knowledge of their profession; and (3) that they have fully profited by their practical training, and possess the necessary qualifications and experience. Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If such evidence should prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry, and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

III. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. English Composition (including Handwriting and Orthography).
2. Arithmetic.
3. Land Surveying, including Draughtsmanship and the making and plotting of Surveys; and either
4. Architectural Surveying and Valuing; or
5. Practical Farming, including the elements of Geology and Chemistry as applied to Agriculture, and Land Valuing.

In subjects 3, 4, and 5, there will be an Oral and Practical Examination.

Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in subjects numbered 1, 2, 3, and must obtain such an aggregate of marks in the Examination, as a whole, as may indicate, in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners, a competent amount of general proficiency.

IV. Subject to the provisions of Clause II. of these Regulations, the examinations are open to all natural-born or naturalised British subjects, being of the requisite age, health, and character, with the following restrictions :—

(i.) The following classes of persons are ineligible, viz. :—

(a) Persons actually serving in the Army or Navy.

(b) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

(ii.) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say :—

(c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service.

(d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, of more than five years' service.

(e) Probationary Engineer Cadets in the Navy, and Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.

(f) Persons who have been trained in Training Colleges at the public expense.

(g) Persons who have been trained in the Inland Revenue Branch of the Government Laboratory.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d), (e) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the Examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (f) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

Persons comprised in class (g) will not be qualified for appointment until the consent of the Board of Inland Revenue, given with the like sanction, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

V. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

VI. A fee of £3 will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.
