The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 3, to Tuesday April 6, 1784.

St. James's, April 6.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by his Lordship been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Carmarthen, at the Great Sessions holden for the said County, the 24th Day of March.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Grand Jury of the County of Carmarthen, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your most Sacred Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude and Loyalty, assuring your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

We beseech you to accept of our most unfeigned Thanks for your great Attention to the Welfare of your Kingdom and Subjects in general, by dismissing from your Councils Men, who, by their public political Conduct, have not only forfeited the Confidence of the People, but who, if your Majesty had suffered them to continue in your Councils, would have ruined this Kingdom, and reduced it to a State of Anarchy and Confusion.

We humbly beg to acknowledge your Majesty's great Discernment, in replacing such your late Ministers with Persons of loyal and sound Principles, unblemished Lives and Characters, of great Abilities and upright Conduct.

We also beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever be ready to support your Majesty in the full and just Exercise of your legal Prerogatives with our Lives and Fortunes.

Signed at the unanimous Request of the Grand Jury,

W. Mansell, Foreman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, by Public Notice assembled at the Town Hall of the said City, the 5th of March, 1784.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the deepest Impressions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We are extremely solicitous, in this critical Situation of Public Affairs, to assure your Majesty, that we are ready on all Occasions to give the most zealous Support in the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, and to such constitutional Measures as may be conducive to the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

We beg Leave also to express our Satisfaction, that your Majesty has pleased to call into your Councils Men in whose Integrity and Abilities we can repose the most unlimited Confidence.

We humbly thank your Majesty for the Answer you have lately given to the Address of your Commons, in which you graciously comply with the general Wishes of your People.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, we most sincerely wish, as we feel ourselves much interested to do, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a free, united, and happy People.

[Signed by 225 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarborough in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Scarborough in Common Council assembled, think it our Duty at the present critical Juncture, to express our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, and to offer our grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's firm Attention to the Honour of your Crown and the Welfare of your People.

We deeply regret the unhappy Divisions and Distractions which prevail in this Country. But as your Majesty's recent Endeavours, to unite in the Public Service, on a fair and equal Footing, those whose joint Efforts appeared to your Majesty most capable of producing that blessed Effect, have not had the desired Success, and as there is no Charge or Complaint suggested against any of your Majesty's present Ministers;

We therefore humbly beg Leave to thank your Majesty for exerting your Royal Prerogative, and for not dismissing a Description of Men, whose consummate Abilities and disinterested Integrity entitle them to the Confidence of your Majesty, and the Applause of all your faithful Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-third Day of March, in the Twenty fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

J. Hebb, Common Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Assurances of Attachment to our Sovereign.

With honest Indignation we saw the Attempt of your late Ministers to violate the Chartered Rights of Britons, and thank your Majesty for your parental Care in dismissing from your Councils Men whose Conduct marked them Enemies to the Rights of your People.

SIRE,

While the first Counties and Cities of the Realm are signifying their Loyalty to your Majesty, and their Confidence in the Patriotism and Wisdom of your present Councils; may we who can only claim your Majesty's Notice from having served and bled in the British Navy, humbly unite with the general Voice of our Country.
