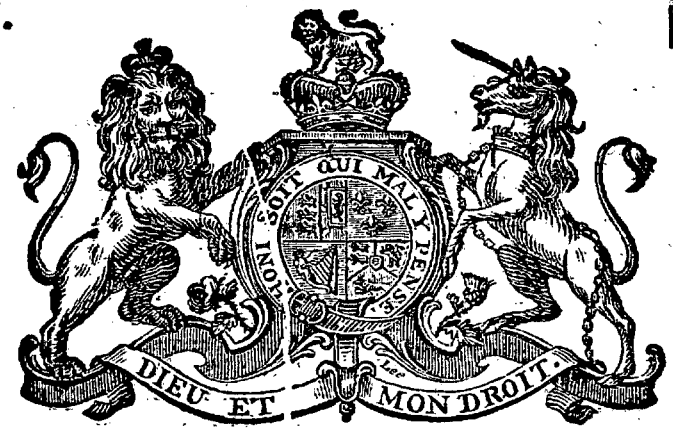
Numb. 13431.



The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 28, to Saturday June 30, 1792.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been preſented to the King by Richard Glover, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, actuated by a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to return your Majeſty our ſincere Acknowledgements for the Meaſure which your Majeſty has thought proper to adopt to guard againſt and counteract the Effects of wicked and ſeditious Publications.

We have obſerved, with Concern and Indignation, the Prevalence of ſeditious Writings, and the Attempt of a few evil-minded Perſons to excite Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, as Magiſtrates and in our ſeveral Stations, to diſcourage and ſuppreſs, by every legal Meaſure in our Power, all Attempts that may be made to diſturb the Peace and Order of Society, or to diminiſh the Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled by public Advertiſement, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to teſtify their grateful Acknowledgements of the unremitted Care and Attention you have invariably beſtowed, to preſerve to them, unimpaired, a Conſtitution, which, whilſt it poſſeſſes the Admiration, excites the Envy of ſurrounding Nations. Impreſſed, Sire, with theſe Sentiments, they cannot ſee, but with the deepeſt Regret, any Attempts made to ſhake the public Confidence in that glorious Fabrick which the Wiſdom and Virtue of their Anceſtors have tranſmitted to them.

When wild and ſeditious Tenets and Opinions, under ſpecious Pretences, are obtruded on their Conſideration, the mild and equitable Diſtribution of Juſtice, by which their Civil and Religious Liberties are ſecured, will be endangered, if not totally deſtroyed.

But, to that ſeaſonable Endeavour, to awaken us to a juſt Senſe of our Situation, (which your Majeſty
