AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 7th of January 1807,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of Powers veſted in His Majeſty by an Act paſſed in the Forty-firſt Year of His Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majeſty to regulate the Trade and Commerce to and from the Iſle of Malta until the ſigning of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, and to declare the Iſle of Malta to be a Part of Europe;" His Majeſty was pleaſed by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirtieth July, One thouſand eight hundred and one, to make certain Regulations for the ſaid Trade and Commerce, which Act, by an Act, paſſed in the Forty-third Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to continue ſeveral Laws relating to the ſuſpending the Operations of Two Acts, of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, for reſtraining the Negotiation of Promiſſory Notes and Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, in England; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Proviſion, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand eight hundred and five; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Iſle of Malta, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace;" was, after a former Act of Continuance, further continued until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace; whereupon the ſaid Order was, after former Orders of Continuance, further and laſtly continued, by an Order of the Twenty-firſt December, One thouſand eight hundred and three, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, unleſs His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, ſhould think fit otherwiſe to order and direct; and whereas His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, has thought fit otherwiſe to order and direct, His Majeſty is, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pleaſed to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the ſaid beforementioned Order, bearing Date the Twenty-firſt December, One thouſand eight hundred and three, be, and the ſame is hereby revoked and declared void; and in lieu thereof, His Majeſty is pleaſed, by and with the Advice aforeſaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date hereof, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, unleſs His Majeſty ſhall, in the mean time, otherwiſe order and declare, the Trade and Commerce to and from the Iſle of Malta, and the Dependencies thereof, ſhall and may be carried on in any Ships or Veſſels belonging to any of His Majeſty's Subjects, owned and navigated according to Law; and in Trading Ships or Veſſels belonging to the Subjects of States in Amity with His Majeſty, of whatever Burthen, or in whatever Manner navigated; and in any Ship or Veſſel belonging to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, of whatſoever Deſcription, and howſoever navigated, to which His Majeſty may be graciouſly pleaſed to grant His Royal Licence or Authority for that Purpoſe; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 4th of February 1807,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majeſty's Moſt Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the Forty-ſixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majeſty annually to train

" and exercise a Proportion of His Subjects in Eng-
" land under certain Regulations, and more effec-
" tually to provide for the Defence of the Realm;"
it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty on any Returns then made, or which should thereafter be made, of the Numbers of Persons liable to serve in the Militia in the several Counties in England, under any Act then in force, or under any Act which might be passed in that Session of Parliament, to direct His Privy Council to take such Returns into Consideration, and to apportion any Number of Men, not exceeding 200,000, among the said Counties, according to the Number so returned, and thereupon to direct that the Numbers so apportioned should be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the said Counties, (Notice whereof should be thereupon Thrice printed in the London Gazette;) and that such Lieutenants should, immediately after the last Publication of such Notice, summon General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy in their respective Counties; and that at such General Meetings the Numbers so fixed for each respective County should be divided and apportioned among the Hundreds of such respective Counties; and at such Subdivision Meetings the Numbers so apportioned among each respective Hundred should be divided and apportioned among the Parishes of such respective Hundreds, in the Manner then in Use with respect to the Militia:—And whereas under a certain Act, passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the Re-
" turn of correct Lists of Persons liable to serve in
" the Militia under an Act passed in the Forty-se-
" cond Year of His present Majesty, and to suspend
" the Ballot for the Militia in England for Two
" Years;" Returns have been made of the Numbers of Persons liable to serve in the Militia in the several Counties in England, conformable to the Forms prescribed by certain Schedules thereto annexed; And whereas His Majesty hath been pleased by His Order in Council of the Fourth instant, made in pursuance of the said Act first above-mentioned, to direct His Privy Council to take the said last-mentioned Returns into Consideration, and to apportion Two Hundred Thousand Men among the said Counties, according to the Number so returned, and thereupon to direct that the Numbers so apportioned shall be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the said Counties, and be Thrice printed in the London Gazette, for the Purposes mentioned and expressed in the said Act; His Majesty's Privy Council, in obedience to His Majesty's said Directions expressed in the said Order, and in pursuance of the Powers and Authorities contained in the said Act first above-mentioned, have accordingly apportioned, and do hereby apportion among the several Counties in England, Two Hundred Thousand Men, according to the several Numbers specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed for each of the said Counties respectively, and amounting in the Whole to Two Hundred Thousand Men, and which Schedule His Majesty's Privy Council are pleased to direct shall be taken as Part of this Order; and His Majesty's Privy Council do hereby also direct that this Order, and the Schedule hereunto annexed, be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the said Counties in England, in order that they should proceed upon the same, in pursuance of the Directions of the said Act of Parliament first above-mentioned; and His Majesty's Privy Council do hereby further direct, that this Order, and the said Schedule to the same annexed, be Thrice printed in the London Gazette. W. Fawkener.

An APPORTIONMENT of 200,000 Men, out of 820,420, being the whole Number returned as liable to serve His Majesty in the several Counties of England and Wales.

Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Captain Stopford, of His Majeſty's Ship the Spencer, to William Marſden, Eſq; dated at Porto-Praya, St. Jago, the 11th January 1807.

SIR,

I HEREWITH tranſmit Two Letters which I have received from Captain Corbet, of His Majeſty's Ship the Nereide, acquainting me with the Captures of Two Spaniſh Veſſels.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

ROBERT STOPFORD.

His Majeſty's Ship Nereide, off Madeira, 2d December 1806.

SIR,

HIS Majeſty's Ship under my Command captured, on the 25th Ult. in Lat. 42. Deg. N. Long. 11 Deg. W. 11 Brilliante Spaniſh Lugger Privateer, of Four Guns and Fifty Men, out Two Days from Vigo, on a Four Months' Cruiſe, and had captured nothing.

I was much pleaſed at this Capture, as there were ſeveral Sail in Sight when I chaced him, ſome of which might have become his Prey.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) R. CORBET.

Captain the Hon. R. Stopford.

His Majeſty's Ship Nereide, at Sea, 21ſt November 1806.

SIR,

YESTERDAY, whilſt under Separation from the Convoy under your Orders, in Lat. 47 Deg. N.

Long 10 Deg W. I captured, after a Chace of ſome Hours, El Veloz Spaniſh Corvette, pierced for Twenty Guns, fitted out at Bilboa, with Ten Guns mounted, and Seventy-five Men, to carry Diſpatches, ſome Paſſengers of Diſtinction, and a Cargo of Flour on Government Account, to the Caraccas. She is a beautiful Veſſel, was to have been full armed abroad, and ſince her Capture has kept way with the Nereide on all Points of Sailing.
