Whereas by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, it is enacted that where a Petition for a Charter of Incorporation is referred to the Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and it is proposed by the Charter to extend the Municipal Corporation Acts to the Municipal Borough to be created by the Charter, the said Committee of Council may settle a Scheme for the purposes in the said Act named and containing such provisions as are in the said Act particularized;

And whereas the public properties which were possessed by the ancient Corporation, and which consisted of the Town Hall, Markets, Town Quay, and other properties, passed into the hands of the Lord of the Manor of Fowey;

And whereas Charles Ebenezer Treffry, the present Lord of the Manor of Fowey, has of his own accord presented to the Parish Council of Fowey, and has transferred to them all his interest in the Town Hall, Markets, and Town Quay and other properties, to the intent that the same may be held by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Fowey as the successors of the Parish Council, and that the tolls, charges, rights, and privileges heretofore enjoyed by the Corporation under ancient Charters may be revived and be exercised by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Fowey;

And whereas in the month of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, certain inhabitant householders of the town of Fowey (comprising the parish of Fowey), in the rural district of St. Austell, in the Administrative County of Cornwall, petitioned His Majesty the King praying for a grant of a Charter of Incorporation and for a revival of the ancient rights, powers, and privileges theretofore conferred on the Mayor and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Fowey;

And whereas the said Petition for a Charter was referred to the Committee of Council, and it was proposed by the Charter to create the said town of Fowey a Municipal Borough and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof and to extend the Municipal Corporation Acts to the Municipal Borough to be created by the Charter;

And whereas the parish of Fowey has a Parish Council having eleven members, and is a constituent part of the Rural District of St. Austell, in the county of Cornwall;

And whereas the Parish Council are the Burial Authority for the Parish of Fowey;

And whereas the Rural District Council of St. Austell have adopted "The Infectious Disease (Prevention) Act, 1890," and it is expedient that the provisions of that Act should be in force within the Borough as if it had been adopted by the Council of the Borough;

And whereas by an Order made by the Local Government Board, dated the 12th October, 1877, sections 39, 42, 44, 45, 47, 49 and 50, 157 and 158 of the Public Health Act, 1875, are in force in the Parish of Fowey;

And whereas by an Order made by the Secretary of State, dated the 11th October, 1909, Part VIII of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, was declared to be in force in the Parish of Fowey;

And whereas by an Order made by the Local Government Board, dated the 20th December, 1909, sections 20-26 and 28-33 of Part II, sections 34-47 and 49 of Part III, sections 52-60, 62, 63, 64, 66 and 67 of Part IV, the whole of Part V, and section 95 of Part X of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, are in force in the Parish of Fowey;

And whereas by an Order made by the Local Government Board, dated the 16th December, 1908, certain sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, relating to the naming and numbering of streets are in force in the Parish of Fowey;

And whereas under sanctions of the Local Government Board, by virtue of the Public Health Act, 1875, the sum of £10,297 has been borrowed by the Rural District Council in respect of the water supply to the Parish of Fowey, and has been charged upon that parish as a separate contributory area, and of that sum of £10,297 the sum of £5,184 18s. 0d. is still outstanding and unpaid;

And whereas under sanctions of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Cornwall and of the Local Government Board, by virtue of the Highways Acts, 1835 to 1885, and the Public Health Act, 1875, the total sum of £1,285 has been borrowed by the Rural District Council for permanent works of which sum the amount of £512, part of the said sum of £1,285, the repayment whereof is charged generally upon the rates of the whole of the Rural District of St. Austell, is still outstanding and unpaid;

10. The Council of the said Borough shall not exercise any of the powers or duties or be subject to the liabilities under any of the Acts relating to the police force or other matters mentioned in section thirty-nine of the Local Government Act, 1888, but all the powers, duties and liabilities in respect of such matters shall be exercised by and attached to the County Council of the Administrative County of Cornwall, and the area of the Borough shall for all purposes of the Acts relating to the County Police Force or other matters mentioned in the said section form part of the county in like manner as if it were not a Borough.

11. The Byelaws and Regulations made by the Rural District Council with respect to new streets and buildings, nuisances, slaughter-houses, common lodging-houses, and dairies, cowsheds and milk shops, and in force within the Parish of Fowey at the commencement of this Scheme shall apply to the Borough, but shall, with the exception of the Regulations with respect to dairies, cowsheds and milk shops cease to have effect from and after the expiration of one year from the commencement of this Scheme.

tively the 12th October, 1877, the 20th December, 1909, and the 16th December, 1908, making certain sections of the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, and the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, applicable within the Parish of Fowey, and also the said Order made by the Secretary of State dated the 11th October, 1909, declaring Part VIII. of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, to be in force in the Parish of Fowey shall (subject to the provisions of any Order which the Secretary of State may hereafter make) have effect as if the said sections of the said part of the said Acts were declared to be in force in the Borough.

SAVINGS FOR RATES.

14. Notwithstanding the incorporation of the Borough and the provisions of this Scheme all rates, assessments, compositions, charges, mortgages, contracts, leases, conveyances, deeds, documents, acts, matters and things made, entered into, or done before the commencement of this Scheme by to or with reference to the Parish Council or Rural District Council or their predecessors shall be as good, valid and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever for against and with reference to the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses as if the same had been made, entered into or done by to or with reference to the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses instead of the Parish Council or Rural District Council or their predecessors, and may be proceeded on and enforced in the same manner in all respects as if the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses instead of such Parish Council or Rural District Council respectively, or their predecessors had been party or privy to the same and had been named or referred to therein.

COMPENSATION FOR EXISTING OFFICERS.

15. 16. The accounts of the Parish Council of Fowey and of the officers and committees (if any) of such Parish Council shall be made up to the date of the commencement of this Scheme, and shall be audited by the District Auditor in like manner and with the like incidences and consequences as if this Scheme had not been made and the enactments relating to the accounts of Parish Councils and to the audit of such accounts and to all matters incidental thereto and consequential thereon and the Rules made by the Local Government Board thereunder shall apply to such audit, and for the purposes of such audit the Parish Council shall be deemed to exist and their officers (if any) to remain in office as if this Scheme had not been made:
