This Day was published,

In ONE VOLUME in FOLIO,

THE HISTORY of the PUBLIC REVENUE, from the Revolution in 1688 to Christmas 1755: Containing a minute and comprehensive View of all our Public Transactions relative to Money and Trade within the said Period; authenticated by exact References to the several Acts of Parliament, Resolutions of one or both Houses, and Accounts occasionally laid before Parliament, together with other the most unquestionable Vouchers and Authorities.

By the late JAMES POSTLETHWAYT, F. R. S. and one of the Four Clerks of the Treasury.

Printed for the Author; and sold by John Knapton, in Ludgate-Street; where the Books will be delivered to Subscribers, on sending their Receipts and Second Payments.

☞ Tho' the Author has fully executed what was contained in his Proposals, yet he had intended to have added an Appendix, bringing the Work down to the Year 1758, but was prevented by his ill State of Health in the last Years of his Life; the Book therefore is now complete: And his Widow desires the Favour of those Gentlemen who were so kind to subscribe for her late Husband's Book, to send for them as soon as possible.
