Numb. 10552.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 27, to Saturday August 31, 1765.

St. James's, August 28.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, waited on His Majesty, and being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honorable the Earl of Orford, James Eyre, Esq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on the late Delivery of the Queen, and the auspicious Birth of another Prince.

The joyful Event, of an Increase in your Majesty's Illustrious Family, will always be gratefully considered by us as a further substantial Security to the Civil and Religious Liberties of this your Majesty's Free and Native Country.

Every Addition to your Majesty's Domestic Happiness fills our Hearts with the highest Pleasure and Satisfaction; and fully confiding, that your Majesty's Royal Sentiments ever coincide with the united Wishes of your faithful People, we gladly embrace every Opportunity of testifying our Joy, and laying our Congratulations at your Majesty's Feet.

Permit us therefore, Royal Sir, to assure your Majesty, that your faithful Citizens of London, from their zealous Attachment to your Royal House, and the true Honor and Dignity of your Crown, whenever a happy Establishment of public Measures shall present a favorable Occasion, will be ready to exert their utmost Abilities in Support of such wise Councils as apparently tend to render your Majesty's Reign happy and glorious.

Signed by Order of Court,

James Hodges.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this dutiful Address—Your Congratulations on the further Increase of My Family, and your Assurances of zealous Attachment to It, cannot but be very agreeable to Me—I have nothing so much at Heart as the Welfare and Happiness of My People; and have the greatest Satisfaction in every Event that may be an additional Security to those Civil and Religious Liberties upon which the Prosperity of these Kingdoms depends.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Thomas Harris, Esq; one of the Sheriffs of the City of London.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Bowes, C. Jn. Ponsonby.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of August Instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the Tenth Day of October following, then to sit for the Dispatch of Business; we do therefore publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Thursday the Tenth Day of October next; and the same shall be then held at Dublin, and sit for the Dispatch of Business; whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice, and to give their Attendance accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin the 21st Day of August, 1765.

By their Excellencies' Command,

Henry Meredyth.

GOD Save the KING.
