From Tuesday September 25, to Saturday September 29, 1770.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Thirteenth Day of November next; We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publiſh and declare Our Royal Will and Pleaſure, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid Thirteenth Day of November next, be held and ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly, at Weſtminſter, on the ſaid Thirteenth Day of November next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-ſixth Day of September, 1770, in the Tenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

IN Purſuance of the Directions of an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, "An Act to enable the Speaker of "the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of "Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room "of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Recess of Parliament," I do hereby give Notice, that the Death of Thomas Brand, Eſquire, late Member of Parliament for the Borough of Oakhampton in the County of Devon, hath been certified to me in Writing, under the Hands of two Members of Parliament; and that I ſhall iſſue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ for the Electing of a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Oakhampton, in the Room of the ſaid Thomas Brand, Eſquire, deceaſed, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Inſertion of this Notice in the Gazette. Dated the Twenty-ſixth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy.

FL^R. NORTON, Speaker.

Copy of a Meſſage ſent by the Emperor of Morocco to Colonel Boyd, Lieutenant Governor of Gibraltar.

By the High and Glorious Monarch, the Mighty and Right Noble Prince Sidi Mahomet Ben Abdalla, Emperor of the Kingdoms of Fes and Morocco, Tafilet, Sus, and all the Algarve and its Territories in Africa.

NOtwithſtanding that we hold ourſelves accountable for our Actions to none but the Almighty, yet, being deſirous that the juſt Motives for our Conduct, in the ſevere Puniſhment of Abdeſadak Ben-Hamet, our Servant, and late Governor of Tanjar, may be made known to all Nations, we do hereby ſignify our Requeſt, that you will cauſe the ſame to be printed, publiſhed and declared, in the Publick News-Papers, viz.

That when ſaid Abdeſadak firſt came to our Royal Court, riding on a Baggage-horſe, we took him into Favour, and made him our Governor of Tanjar and its Dominions; but he the ſaid Abdeſadak Ben-Hamet, unmindful of our Royal Bounty, became elated with Pride, and poſſeſſed with the curſed Thirſt of Gain, and, inſtead of maintaining his Troops or repairing our Fortifications, he expended our Treaſures in building and adorning Palaces for his own Private Uſe and Pleaſure: And particularly, that about two Years ſince, a Daniſh Ship, bound from Oſtend for Cadiz, was, by tempeſtuous Weather, driven on our Coaſt at Tanjar, where, and at all other our Ports, we had given ſtrict Orders to our Governors, that, in every Caſe where the Ships of the Nations we are at Peace with, ſhould be driven aſhore, our ſaid Governors ſhould aſſiſt and protect the People, and with all Care ſhould ſave the Cargoes, and reſtore them untouched to the Owners: In conſequence of which Orders, the Baſhaà of Duquela, our Miniſter, diſpatched ſome of his own Soldiers to prevent any Perſon from Plundering the Cargo of ſaid Daniſh Ship; But our late Alcaid Abdeſadak, inſtead of aſſiſting to carry our ſaid Orders into Execution, did himſelf plunder, and ſuffered his own People to plunder, ſaid Cargo; and the Soldiers of our ſaid Miniſter endeavouring to prevent this Violation of our Orders, ſeveral Skirmiſhes enſued between them and the Soldiers of the Baſhaà, in which ſome of the former were killed.

Alſo, ſaid Abdeſadak took a Diamond Ring from the Perſon on whom we had thought proper to beſtow the ſame, giving him a ſmall Value for it, and not regarding the Reſpect due to a Thing that had been our's.

And we having received many other Complaints of the unjuſt and violent Conduct of our ſaid late Alcaid, who preſented himſelf at our Court at Mequinez on the 15th Day of July laſt, with Forty-five of his Companions, at our Publick Audience: And we, duly conſidering his diſloyal and ungrateful Procedure, actuated by that Love of Juſtice with which Kings are inſpired, have thought fit to puniſh him with Severity, by depoſing him from his Office, putting him in a ſtrong Priſon, and ordering his Family, and all other the Inhabitants of Tanjar, to other Parts of our Imperial Dominions, and have ſent Five Thouſand Soldiers to inhabit at Tanjar, where we have ordered the Mole to be repaired, and Ten Galliots and Six Gallies to be built, to command the Straits.

Sent from our Court at Morocco, the third Day of Auguſt 1770

To Robert Boyd, Eſq; &c. &c. &c.
