Abettors, and Perpetrators of the said Offences be prosecuted as expeditiously as may be, according to the due Course of Law; and we do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power, in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Offenders. And We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who are guilty of any of the said Offences, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive, as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, and also Our Gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in Case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same; and the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment accordingly of the said Rewards.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Ninth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, June 13.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the antient Town and Borough of Southwark having been Yesterday delivered to the Earl of Hillsborough, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by George Onslow, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Guildford in Surry, and Nathaniel Polhill, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of Southwark, has been presented to His Majesty by his Lordship: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the antient Town and Borough of Southwark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, Inhabitants of the antient Town and Borough of Southwark, desire to approach your Sacred Person, to return our sincere and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Goodness, in sending a seasonable Relief of Military Force to protect our Persons and Properties from the Depredations and Insult of a lawless and licentious Mob, which were spreading Terror and Devastation through the Metropolis and it's Environs, uncontrouled. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we are determined to use our utmost Endeavours to support the Honour of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, the Peace and good Order of Society, and this happy Constitution as settled at the glorious Revolution. For these great and good Purposes we have associated, and humbly hope for the Continuance of your Majesty's gracious Protection.

St. James's, June 9.

The King has been pleased to appoint Alexander Wedderburn, Esq; late His Majesty's Attorney-General, to be Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, upon the Resignation of the Right Honourable Sir William De Grey, Knight, late Chief Justice thereof.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of June, 1780,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Alexander Wedderburn, Esq; Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Berlin, May 27. On Sunday last, the 21st Instant, and the two following Days, the King of Prussia reviewed on the Plain of Templehoff, adjoining to this City, the Troops which compose the Garrison of Berlin, together with the Regiments that had come to Town from their Quarters in the Neighbourhood. After which his Majesty returned to Potzdam; and on Thursday last set out for Magdeburg, to review the Regiments assembled at that Place.

Berlin, June 3. The King of Prussia, after finishing the Reviews at Magdeburg, returned the End of last Week to Potzdam, and the Day before Yesterday set out, by Way of Custrin, for Stargard, to review the Troops in those Parts. His Majesty will then proceed to Graudentz in West Prussia for the same Purpose. His Majesty is accompanied by his Royal Highness the Prince of Prussia.

Dresden, May 31. Last Sunday his Electoral Highness, accompanied by his Brothers Prince Anthony
