The Speech of the Lords Commiſſioners to both Houſes of Parliament, on Friday, December 19, 1806.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HIS Majeſty has commanded us to aſſure you, that, in the difficult and arduous Circumſtances under which you are now aſſembled, it is a great Satisfaction to Him to recur to the Firmneſs and Wiſdom of His Parliament, after ſo recent an Opportunity of collecting the Senſe of His People.

His Majeſty has ordered the Papers which have been exchanged in the Courſe of the late Negociation with France to be laid before you. His Majeſty has employed every Effort for the Reſtoration of general Tranquillity on Terms conſiſtent with the Intereſts and Honour of His People, and with that inviolable good Faith towards His Allies, by which the Conduct of this Country has always been diſtinguiſhed.

The Ambition and Injuſtice of the Enemy diſappointed theſe Endeavours, and in the ſame Moment kindled a freſh War in Europe, the Progreſs of which has been attended with the moſt calamitous Events. After witneſſing the Subverſion of the ancient Conſtitution of Germany, and the Subjugation of a large Proportion of its moſt conſiderable States, Pruſſia found herſelf ſtill more nearly threatened by that Danger which ſhe had vainly hoped to avert by ſo many Sacrifices. She was therefore, at length, compelled to adopt the Reſolution of openly reſiſting this unremitted Syſtem of Aggrandizement and Conqueſt. But neither this Determination, nor the ſucceeding Meaſures, were previouſly concerted with His Majeſty; nor had any Diſpoſition been ſhewn to offer any adequate Satisfaction for thoſe Aggreſſions which had placed the Two Countries in a State of mutual Hoſtility.

Yet, in this Situation, His Majeſty did not heſitate to adopt, without Delay, ſuch Meaſures as were beſt calculated to unite their Councils and Intereſts againſt the common Enemy. The rapid Courſe of the Calamities which enſued oppoſed inſurmountable Difficulties to the Execution of this Purpoſe. In the Midſt of theſe diſaſtrous Events, and under the moſt trying Circumſtances, the good Faith of His Majeſty's Allies has remained unſhaken. The Conduct of the King of Sweden has been diſtinguiſhed by the moſt honourable Firmneſs. Between His Majeſty and the Emperor of Ruſſia the happieſt Union ſubſiſts—It has been cemented by reciprocal Proofs of good Faith and Confidence; and His Majeſty doubts not that you will participate in His Anxiety to cultivate and confirm an Alliance which affords the beſt remaining Hope of Safety for the Continent of Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

His Majeſty looks with Confidence to your Aſſiſtance in thoſe Exertions which the Honour and Independence of your Country demand. The Neceſſity of adding to the public Burthens will be painful to your Feelings, and is deeply diſtreſſing to His Majeſty. In conſidering the Eſtimates for the various Branches of the public Service, you will beſt conſult His Majeſty's Wiſhes by combining all practicable Economy with thoſe Efforts which it is neceſſary to make againſt the formidable and increaſing Power of the Enemy.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The long Series of Misfortune which has afflicted the Continent of Europe could not fail to affect, in ſome Degree, many important Intereſts of this Country. But, under every ſucceſſive Difficulty, His Majeſty has had the Satisfaction of witneſſing an increasing Energy and Firmness on the Part of His People, whose uniform and determined Resistance has been no less advantageous than honourable to themselves, and has exhibited the most striking Example to the surrounding Nations.

The unconquerable Valour and Discipline of His Majesty's Fleets and Armies continue to be displayed with undiminished Lustre; the great Sources of Our Prosperity and Strength are unimpaired; nor has the British Nation been, at any Time, more united in Sentiment and Action, or more determined to maintain inviolate the Independence of the Empire, and the Dignity of the National Character.

With these Advantages, and with an humble Reliance on the Protection of the Divine Providence, His Majesty is prepared to meet the Exigencies of this great Crisis, assured of receiving the fullest Support from the Wisdom of your Deliberations, and from the tried Affection, Loyalty, and public Spirit of His brave People.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 19th of November 1806,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-first Day of May last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of December next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of December next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An "Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the "Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the "Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit "the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of "Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower "His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of "Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or "Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawkener.

Admiralty-Office, December 20, 1806.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral the Honorable Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Northumberland, at Barbadoes, the 4th November 1806.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inclose for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copies of Letters from Captains Sayer and Briggs, of the Galatea and Orpheus; also from Lieutenant Dean, commanding His Majesty's Armed Brig Dominica; giving an Account of the Capture and Destruction of Vessels therein mentioned.

I am, &c. ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Galatea, at Sea, 20th September 1806.

SIR,

ON the 18th ult. Lieutenant M'Culloch, in this Ship's Barge, pursued a Schooner some Miles up a River on the Spanish Main, near Porto Cavallo, when, after an able Resistance, (her Commander, and One Man, falling,) she struck, and proved to be a very fine Spanish Privateer, of Three long Guns, (Six and Four-Pounders,) Swivels, and Musketoons, on Stocks, small Arms, &c. He brought away the Prisoners, and blew her up, as it was impossible to get her out of the River without Danger of his Retreat being cut off. One Seaman (Cornelius O'Gullivan) in our Boat was slightly wounded.

And, on the 21st, Lieutenant Walker, in the Barge, drove on Shore, and completely destroyed, after a slight Opposition, a fine Schooner, armed with Swivels, small Arms, &c. The Crew made their Escape.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. SAYER.

Rear-Admiral the Hon. Sir A. Cochrane, K. B. &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Galatea, off Martinique, October 24, 1806.

SIR,

ON the Night of the 9th inst. Three Boats from this Ship, under the Direction of Mr. Richard Gittins (First Lieutenant), rowed up in Face of the Batteries of Barcelona, on the Spanish Main, cut adrift and cut out Four Spanish Schooners, in Spite of every Obstacle.

The Enemy opened their Fire of Round and Grape Shot from Three Batteries nearly at the same Time, accompanied with Musketry from them and the Beach, the Schooners being moored Head and Stern close to it. It was calm, and, from the Nature of the Bay, our Boats were exposed an Hour and a Half to this Fire, providentially without the Loss of a Man, although they bore, as well as the Prizes, abundant Proof of its being well directed.

They are large excellent Veſſels, Two of them coppered, and well calculated for His Majeſty's Service.

Lieutenant Gittins's Conduct ſpeaks for itſelf. He mentions that of Mr. J. Green, Maſter's Mate, and Mr. Scanlon, Boatſwain, in Terms which recommend them both.

It is ſuperfluous to ſay, our brave Fellows behaved in a Way that manifeſts how much they glory in perilous Enterprizes againſt their Enemies.

I am, &c. GEO. SAYER.

Rear-Admiral the Honourable Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

She had been Four Days from Guadaloupe, and made no Capture.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

I have alſo the Honour to inform you, that I captured, on the 4th inſtant, the French National Schooner La Chiffone, armed with Muſketry, employed as a Diſpatch Veſſel between Guadaloupe and Martinico.
