Messrs. Young and Son, No. 29, Mark-lane, in the city of London, Solicitors for the assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent, on Tuesday the 11th day of April instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to consider the propriety of authorising the assignee of the said estate and effects to accept an offer of fifty pounds and costs, proposed to be paid in satisfaction of all the insolvent's interest (if any) under the will of the late Mr. William Kennett, his wife's father, and as to which proceedings in the Court of Chancery had been pending for many years previous to the insolvent's imprisonment, and are sill undisposed of; and also, in the event of the said offer being approved at such meeting, to authorize the said assignee to sign, seal, and execute all necessary receipts, releases, deeds, and conveyances which may be necessary to carry the said proposal into effect.—Dated the 3d day of April 1843.

All Letters must be Post-paid.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-row, Parliament-street, by FRANCIS WATTS, of No. 40, Vincent-square, Westminster.

Friday, April 7, 1843.

Price Two Shillings and Eight Pence.