TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of December, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Earl of Carnarvon.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
Mr. Waddington.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal "the several Laws relating to the performance of "Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu "thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows:

Section 2. That from and after the 1st day of June, 1825, all vessels coming from or having touched at any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, might be brought, should be and be considered to be liable to quarantine, within the meaning of the said Act and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection as therein mentioned; and all such vessels as aforesaid should, upon their arrival at any such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine, in such place or places, for such time, and in such manner as should from to time be directed by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by His or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and all commanders, masters, or other persons having the charge or command of any such vessels, whether coming from any infected place, or being otherwise liable to quarantine as aforesaid, should be subject to all provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions contained in the said Act, or in any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in Council, as aforesaid, concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection, and to all the pains, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments contained in the said Act, for any breach or disobedience thereof, or of any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, made under the authority thereof.

Section 3. That it should be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by His or their Order in Council, or for the Lords or others of His or their Privy Council, or any two or more of them, by their Order from time to time, as often as they should see reason to apprehend that the yellow fever or other highly infectious distemper prevails on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, to require that every vessel coming from or having touched at any port or place on the Continent of America or in the West Indies, should come to an anchor at certain places to be appointed from time to time by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs (who were thereby authorised to make such appointment), for the purpose of having the state of health of the crew of such vessel ascertained before such vessel should be permitted to enter the port whereto she should be bound, or any other port of the United Kingdom; but that such vessel should not be deemed liable to quarantine unless it should be afterwards specially ordered under that restraint.

Section 6. That it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they should see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper might have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessels should not have come from any place from which His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, might have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or any such infectious disease or distemper might be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as therein mentioned on board the same, and likewise to make such Orders as they should see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandise, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them from quarantine; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid, should be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the commander, master or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments, to which they might respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette.

And whereas, by "The Sanitary Act, 1866," it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows:—

Section 52. That every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder, should be deemed to be within the provisions of the Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel had not commenced her voyage, or had come from or was bound for some place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as to them should seem fit, and every such Order should be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and should be published in the London Gazette, and such publication should be conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents and purposes.

And whereas one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels, called the "Seine," has lately arrived, from the West Indies, in the Southampton Water, in the county of Hants, and has been directed to proceed to and remain under quarantine at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the West Indies, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel, and attacked several persons on board thereof, and the said vessel arrived under alarming and suspicious circumstances; and whereas several persons who were on board the "Seine" on her arrival have since been ordered to be removed to the Quarantine Lazarette or Hulk called the "Menelaus," lying at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them in that behalf, do hereby order,—

1. That the said vessel, called the "Seine," shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid, until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them shall make further Order.

2. That the persons now on board the said vessel, called the "Seine," not ordered to be removed to the "Menelaus," shall be removed to the hospital ship "Parana," unless ordered to remain on board the "Seine" by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton, in accordance with the provisions contained in the twenty-fourth paragraph of the Order in Council, dated 19th July, 1825.

3. That all persons so removed on board the "Menelaus" Quarantine Hulk, or who shall hereafter be removed on board the said Hulk, or on board the "Parana," or any other Hospital Ship, and who shall have been on board the "Seine," shall be kept and detained on board the said Hulk or other Hospital Ship, until the said Lords of the Council, or any three or more of them shall make further order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Edmund Harrison

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of December, 1866.

PRESENT,

Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the 25th day of September last, reciting certain provisions of the statute of the session held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 107, and that a contagious or infectious disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, then prevailed among the sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom, and it was expedient to take measures for preventing such disorder from spreading; the Lords of the Council did make certain Orders and Regulations respecting the removal of sheep or lambs to or from that part of the township of Congleton, in the county of Chester, which lies to the westward of the undermentioned boundary: the London-road from near the Marsh Toll-gate to its junction with the Sandbach, the Holmes Chapel, and the Radnor Roads, and from thence lying in a north-east direction to its intersection with the River Dane; and respecting other matters relating to such sheep and lambs:

And whereas these several Orders were to continue in force until revoked, and it is no longer necessary that the whole of them should continue in force:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby, from and after the fourth day of this present December, revoke the Order of the 25th day of September, above mentioned and described, and so much of the Order of the 2nd day of October as relates to the farm called High Smallwood, in the occupation of John Walker; and the farm called Pump House Farm, in the occupation of John Dale, in the township of Odd Rode; and the whole of the township of Over Peover:

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice to the holders of Exchequer Bills issued under the authority of the Act 24 Vict. c. 5, and dated the 11th June, 1866, that the Interest thereon for the half-year ending on the 11th December, 1866, will be payable at the Bank of England, on and after the 11th December instant; and that the Interest of such Exchequer Bills for the following half-year, to June, 1866, will be at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, 4th December, 1866.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirtieth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 76, intituled "An Act "to provide for the collection of fees in public "departments and offices, by means of stamps," it is provided, by the second section thereof, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by notice published in the London Gazette, to declare and direct that from and after the time specified in such notice, all or any of the fees for the time being payable in money in any public department or office connected with the public service, or to the officers thereof, shall be collected by means of stamps; and it is further provided, by the fifth section thereof, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, from time to time, make such regulations as seem fit regarding:—

The use of stamps under this Act;

The application of such stamps to documents in use or required to be used as aforesaid;

The cancellation of adhesive stamps.

Now, we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby give, with respect to the Companies Registration Office, notice, under "The Public Offices Fees Act, 1866," that from and after the 31st day of December, 1866, the fees for the time being payable in the Companies Registration Office, or to the officers thereof, shall be collected by means of stamps.

And we do hereby order and direct that the following rules be observed in respect to stamps used and taken for fees payable in the Companies Registration Office.

1. The stamps to be used for collecting the fees payable to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies shall be procured and paid for by the persons liable to pay such fees.

2. All documents tendered for registration shall be according to the approved forms, and bear an impressed stamp denoting the amount of fee payable for the same.

3. Where any such fees are payable in respect of any matter or thing to be done in or by any officer in the Companies Registration Office, the person, or his attorney, requiring such matter or thing to be done or permitted to be done, shall make application for the same in the form kept for that purpose in the said office, and an adhesive stamp denoting the amount of the fee so payable shall be affixed to such form of application.

4. On the necessity thereof being proved to the satisfaction of the Registrar, with his consent, the stamp denoting the amount of the fee payable in respect of such matter or thing as aforesaid may be either impressed on or affixed to any copy, second certificate, or extract, so applied for as aforesaid, in lieu of being affixed to the form of application.

5. All adhesive stamps affixed to any paper presented to, kept in the possession of, or delivered out by the said Registrar, shall, before the act is done or permitted to be done in respect of which the fee denoted by such stamp is payable, be effectually cancelled by some officer in the office of the said Registrar, who shall write thereon the initial letters of his name and the date of such cancellation; and no such paper shall be filed or delivered out, or act done, until such stamps shall have been cancelled or defaced in manner aforesaid.

6. That when any stamp has been cancelled without having been legitimately used, and the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies has granted a certificate that any particular stamp is a fit subject for allowance, it shall be competent to the Board of Inland Revenue, upon the presentation of such certificate, to allow the amount thereof.

Given under our hands, at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
