The London Gazette

[illegible]

[illegible]

A Court, at the Queen's Palace, the 6th day of July, 1820.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

[illegible]

Duke of [illegible]
Lord Chancellor; [illegible]
(commonly called [illegible]
Earl of [illegible]
Earl of [illegible]
Viscount [illegible]
Viscount [illegible]
at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty is [illegible] declare to Her [illegible]
Campbell Temple [illegible] of Sudeley, [illegible]
Her Majesty's Most [illegible] and [illegible]
[illegible]

Her Majesty [illegible]
to deliver [illegible]
Francis [illegible]
of Lord [illegible]
Majesty's [illegible]
[illegible]

Her Majesty [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
Keeper of the [illegible]
[illegible]
at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased [illegible]
Right Honorable [illegible]
Earl of [illegible]
Arthur Taylor Cole ([illegible] Chancellor); the Right [illegible] Stanley (commonly called [illegible]
Right Honorable [illegible]
the Right [illegible] Majesty's Five [illegible]
they were this day, by [illegible]
sworn [illegible] Majesty's Principal [illegible]
State accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased [illegible]
Right Honorable [illegible]
and Under-Treasurer of [illegible]
the usual oath was this day [illegible]