ARTICLE VIII.—The Master of the Workhouse shall lay each of the said Accounts before the Guardians at their next meeting after the date of the entry therein of any such certificate as aforesaid.

ARTICLE IX.—So long as a Stocktaker is appointed it shall not be necessary for the Visiting Committee to examine the stores or to enter in any Account the memorandum required by the above-cited Order dated the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this seventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

L. S. Henry H. Fowler, President.

S. B. Provis, Assistant-Secretary.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby, as from the commencement of this Order, revoke their Order bearing date the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three approving of and defining a part of the Port of Weymouth as a landing-place for foreign animals brought from the Channel Islands: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the commencement of this Order or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order before the commencement of this Order.

This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

L. S. T. H. Elliott, Secretary.
