TUESDAY, 21 MAY, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Pebworth, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pebworth is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Edleston Bonner Shekell, of Manor House, Pebworth, in the said county of Gloucester, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Edleston Bonner Shekell is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pebworth, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edgar Charles Sumner, now Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Edgar Charles Sumner, now Bishop of Gloucester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Pebworth which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Pebworth.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edleston Bonner Shekell (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pebworth now vested in him the said Edleston Bonner Shekell as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Gloucester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Philip, Norbury, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Broad Green, Croydon, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Philip, Norbury, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Philip, Norbury.'

"And with the like consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Philip, Norbury, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Philip, Norbury, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Broad Green, Croydon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded upon the south-west by the parish of Mitcham, in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, upon the north-west partly by the last-mentioned parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, in the said county of Surrey and in the said diocese of Southwark, upon the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint Paul, Thornton Heath, and partly by the new parish of Saint Stephen, Norbury, both in the said county of Surrey and in the said diocese of Canterbury, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Norbury, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Broad Green, Croydon, at the junction of London Road with Galpin's Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Galpin's Road for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Broad Green, Croydon, from the said parish of Mitcham."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 16 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is amongst other things enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand, or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of York, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the 29th day of June, 1911, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"The undersigned, Cosmo Gordon, Lord Archbishop of York, doth hereby state that it having been represented to him that the rectories of Saint Mary le Bow and Saint Mary le Bow the Less, both in the city, county and diocese of Durham and province of York, might, under the provisions of the Act 1 and 2

Victoria, chapter 106, be united with advantage to the interests of religion, he made enquiry into the circumstances of the case, and that on such enquiry it appeared to him that the said union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patrons of the said rectories have consented thereto, and that he therefore caused to be published as required by the said Act a statement in writing of the facts with notice to any person or persons interested, to show cause in writing to the said Archbishop within the time prescribed by the said Act against the said union, and that the said time has expired, and no such cause has been shown to him. Therefore, he, the said Archbishop, doth hereby, pursuant to the said Act, certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances of the case respecting the said union appeared on the before-mentioned enquiry to be as follows:—

"That the said rectories of Saint Mary le Bow and Saint Mary le Bow the Less are contiguous to each other.

"That the aggregate population thereof is three hundred and ninety-five, and that the aggregate yearly value thereof is three hundred and thirty-five pounds.

"That there is a church belonging to each of the said benefices distant from each other about three hundred yards sufficient for the accommodation of the population of each parish.

"That there is no house of residence belonging to either of the said two benefices.

"That this scheme shall take effect on the first vacancy which shall occur in either of the said two benefices.

"The said enquiry and consent are thus certified by the said Archbishop to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, by virtue of the said Act, issue an Order if Your Majesty in Council shall think fit for uniting the said rectories of Saint Mary le Bow and Saint Mary le Bow the Less into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"COSMO EBOR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Saint Mary le Bow, situate in the city, county, and diocese of Durham, and the rectory of Saint Mary le Bow the Less, situate in the same city, county, and diocese, shall be united into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said benefices, after the same shall be united into one benefice and come to be holden by the same Incumbent, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows, that is to say:—the first turn in every three turns of presentation shall belong to and be exercised by the Right Honourable The Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain in right of the Crown, and the second and third turns in every three turns shall belong to and be exercised by the Dean and Chapter of Durham—the first turn or right of presentation belonging to and being exercised by the said Lord High Chancellor.
