(4) To establish different classes, or clubs, of Members upon the footing that the Members of each class or club, insure one another on the mutual principle without recourse to the Members insured in another class and upon such terms as to contribution from and to the other classes of the Company as shall be deemed expedient, and to manage and regulate such classes or clubs.

(5) To insure and contract to make payments on the basis of fixed premium, initial premium and calls, or any other basis not being mutual, or partly on the mutual and partly on the other basis.

privileges, or easements over or in respect of any property, and any buildings, factories, mills, works, wharves, roads, railways, tramways, machinery, engines, rolling stock, plant, live and dead stock, vessels, or things, and any real or personal property or rights whatsoever which may be necessary for, or may be conveniently used with, or may enhance the value of any other property of the Company.

(18) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (perpetual or otherwise), and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised, or owing by mortgage, charge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets (whether present or future), and also by a similar mortgage, charge or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may undertake.

(19) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(20) To apply for, promote, and obtain any Act of Parliament, Provisional Order, or Licence of the Board of Trade, or other authority, for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests.

(21) To remunerate any person, firm or Company rendering services to this Company, or the Members, and in particular any servant or employee of the Company, or the Members, either by cash payment, or in such other manner as the Company shall think fit.
