In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Liverpool.
In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of Cope, Roberts, and Company Limited.

BY an Order made by His Honour Judge Collier in the above matters, dated the 18th day of October, 1901, on the petition of William Henry Edwardes, of Holland House, Greenheys-road, Liverpool, trading without a partner at 87, Naylor-street, Liverpool, under the style or firm of W. H. Edwardes and Co., Oil Refiner and Manufacturer, a creditor of the above named Company, praying in the alternative that an Order might be made for the continuance of the voluntary winding up of the said Company, but subject to the supervision of the Court, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Cope, Roberts, and Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of that Court, and any of the proceedings in the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit; and it was ordered that Richard Ryland Daly, the Liquidator in the voluntary winding up of the said Company, might exercise all the powers conferred upon him by the above Statutes without the sanction or intervention of the Court, in the same manner as if the Company were being wound up altogether voluntarily, subject until further Order to the restrictions thereinafter imposed upon him, that is to say:—(a.) That the Liquidator should not, without the sanction of a majority of the following persons: Henry Clint, James Hamilton, and Percy Marshall Miles, being the persons nominated by the creditors of the Company to act as a committee, or the sanction of the Court, carry on the business of the Company, or bring or defend any legal proceedings, or exercise any of the powers conferred by section 159 or section 160 of the Companies Act, 1862. (b.) The Liquidator should not, without the sanction of a majority of the said persons, or the sanction of the Court, sell or enter into any contract for the sale of the Company's business, or any part thereof. (c.) The Liquidator, except in cases of urgency, should not, without the sanction of a majority of the said persons, or the sanction of the Court, employ a Solicitor, or other agent, to take any proceedings or do any business which the Liquidator is unable to take or do himself. (d.) The Liquidator was to be at liberty to pay out of the assets of the Company the actual out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred by the aforesaid persons acting as aforesaid. And it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidator, or of any Manager, Accountant, Auctioneer, Broker, or other person, be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, expenses, or remuneration should have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar; and it was ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses, and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioner, and of the said Company, and of the creditors supporting a Supervision Order, be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company, and that on such taxation one set of costs was to be allowed to the petitioner and creditors appearing by the same Solicitors, and that one set of costs be allowed to the other creditors supporting a Supervision Order; and the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply in the event of any of the aforesaid members of the said Committee dying or retiring, or generally as there might be occasion.—Dated the 22nd day of October, 1901.
