

The Edinburgh Gazette

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1905.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire at Hamilton, finding that the Churchyard of the Parish of East Kilbride, in the County of Lanark, is in a condition which is offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Churchyard should be closed under the following reservations and conditions, viz.:—(I.) In regard to the two portions of ground extending to about seven falls which are known as "the Common Ground," and are marked Nos. 453 and 454, and coloured pink on the plan, signed by the Secretary for Scotland, and deposited with the Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Lanark at his Office at Hamilton, a reservation to the right of interment in favour of surviving spouses in lairs where their predeceasing spouses have been buried and there is room for their interment; (II.) in regard to the remainder of the Burial Ground a reservation of the right of interment in favour of (1) surviving spouses and the unmarried members of families resident in the Parish in their family lairs; (2) Patrick Graham, of Killochside, for himself and such of his children as may die unmarried wherever they may be at the dates of their respective deaths, in lairs Nos.

265 and 169; (3) the present generation of the valued Rent Heritors of the Parish, conform to list No. 5 of the process, and their spouses and the unmarried members of their families who may die in the Parish or within one year of leaving it in their family lairs.

Under the condition as regards all such interments that there is room in the lairs, and further that all such interments should not be injurious to public health or offensive or contrary to decency, and that notice be given to the Sanitary Inspector on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened, and that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 8th day of May next:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before such Representation is so considered.

A. W. FITZROY.

Scottish Office Provisional Order.—Session 1905.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899.

EDINBURGH SUBURBAN ELECTRIC TRAMWAYS.

(Incorporation of Company; Construction of Tramways in the County of Midlothian; Street and Road widenings and works; Compulsory purchase of lands, &c.; Part purchase of Properties; Interference with streets, roads, &c.; Electrical or other motive power; Generating Stations; Gauge; Posts; Overhead Wires; Tolls; Powers to deviate Works, remove Trees, erect Waiting-rooms, and to apply for and take transfers of Electric Lighting Orders; To provide and run Omnibuses and Motor Cars; Agreements with Local Authorities, Bodies and Persons; Amendment or Repeal of all or some of the Provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870; Bye-Laws and Regulations; Incorporation, Amendment, Application or Repeal of Acts and Orders; Other Powers and Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made by Petition to the Secretary for Scotland under and in pursuance of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in the month of April 1905, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") for the following, or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say)—

1. To incorporate a Company (hereinafter called "the Company") and to authorise the Company to make, form, lay down, maintain, work, and use all or some of the tramways and other works hereinafter described, with all necessary and proper rails, plates, foundations, sleepers, embankments, cuttings, platforms, channels, junctions, turntables, turnouts, crossings, passing-places, crossovers, triangles, pillars,

High Street at a point 135 yards measured in a south-westerly direction from the entrance gates to Dalkeith Palace.

The said Tramways (hereinafter referred to as "the tramways") will be made or pass from in, through, or into the following Parishes or places, or some of them, that is to say:—The Parishes of Liberton, Lasswade, Dalkeith, and Cockpen, and the Burghs of Dalkeith and Bonnyrigg, all in the County of Midlothian.

The Tramways, or some parts thereof, will be laid in the following streets or roads or some of them, so that at several places, for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath and the nearest rail of the tramway at the points or places indicated by a thick dotted line on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

The Edinburgh and Dalkeith Road, Drum Street (Gilmerton), Bonnyrigg Road, High Street, Eskbank Road (Dalkeith), Lothian Street, High Street (Bonnyrigg).

The Tramways are intended to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, or such other gauge as may be authorised with such grooves, plates, or tubes, as may be necessary to work the same.

It is not intended to run on the tramways, carriages or trucks adapted for use on railways.

2. To authorise the making of the following Street Works, or any of them, and empower the Company to enter upon, take, and use the lands, houses, and other property required for the purposes thereof, and of the works connected therewith, as shown in the deposited plans, and described in the deposited Books of Reference aftermentioned, or any part or parts thereof (that is to say):—

WORK A.—A widening of Bonnyrigg Road (Eskbank), on the north-west side in the Parish and Burgh of Dalkeith, between points respectively 200 yards and 240 yards measured in a north-easterly direction from the centre of the Bridge carrying that road over the North British Railway between Edinburgh and Carlisle.

WORK B.—A widening of Lothian Street, Bonnyrigg, on the north-west side, in the Parish of Cockpen, in the Burgh of Bonnyrigg, between points respectively 90 yards and 165 yards measured in a north-easterly direction from the junction of High Street and Lothian Street.

WORK C.—A rounding off and improvement of the north-east corner of Lothian Street and High Street (Bonnyrigg), in the Parish of Cockpen in the Burgh of Bonnyrigg, commencing in Lothian Street at a point 20 yards measured in a north-easterly direction from the junction of the said streets, and terminating in High Street at a point 15 yards measured in a north-westerly direction from the said junction.

3. To empower the Company to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the Tramways and Street Works shown on the deposited plans and sections aftermentioned, to the extent to be shown on the said plans and sections, or to be defined in the Order, and for the purposes of and in connection with the Street Works, with the consent of the local authority, to make junctions and communications with any existing streets or roads which may be interfered with or intercepted by or be contiguous to such works, and to make diversions widenings or alterations of lines or levels of any existing streets or roads for the purpose of connecting the same with such works.

4. To empower the Company to work and use the tramways, or any of them, by means of engines, carriages, trucks, and vehicles propelled (in addition to or in substitution for animal power) by electrical power generated at and applied from stations or otherwise, or steam, pneumatic gas oil, or other mechanical power, or partly by one such power and partly by another such power, to exempt the Company from the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, in respect to the limit of the overhang of carriages, and for the said purposes or any purpose appurtenant or ancillary thereto, to confer on the Company such rights, powers, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the purposes of the Order, and in particular, power to enter upon and open the surface of, and to lay down on, in, under, or over the surface of any footway, footpath, street, road, place, railway, or bridge, such posts, wires, tubes, mains, plates, or apparatus, and to make and maintain such openings, posts, wires, tubes, or ways on, in, under, or over any such surface, and remove any lamp-post, pillar-box, and other erections, and to attach to any house, building, bridge, or existing lamp-post or standard such supports, brackets, and fittings as may be necessary or convenient either for the actual working of the tramways or for providing access to or in connection with any generating station, engines, machinery, or apparatus, and to empower the Company, for the purposes of working the tramways and of the Order, to erect engines and machinery, and to acquire and hold patent and other rights and licences, and to use patent and other rights and licences in relation to such electrical or other mechanical power.

5. To empower the Company from time to time, and either temporarily or permanently, to make, maintain, alter, remove, or abandon such tramways, crossings, passing places, cross-overs, deviations, sidings, junctions, curves, turnouts, turn-tables, and other works in addition to those specified herein, as may be necessary or convenient for the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for connecting any portion of the Tramways with others of them, or any other Tramways or Tramroads of the Company, or the Tramways and Tramroads of any other Company, or otherwise in the interests of the Company, or for facilitating the passage of traffic along streets or roads, or for providing access to any stables, engine-houses, or carriage sheds, generating stations, works, or buildings of the Company, and to empower them to lay down double in lieu of single or interlacing lines, and single in lieu of double or interlacing lines, or interlacing in lieu of double or single lines on any of the Tramways.

6. To authorise the Company to enter upon and open the surface of, and to alter and stop up, remove, and otherwise interfere with streets, highways, public and private roadways, footways, footpaths, places, pavements, railways, rivers, water-courses, bridges, sewers, drains, water-pipes, gas-pipes, lamp-posts, pillar-boxes, and electric telegraphic and telephonic tubes, posts, wires, and apparatus within all or any of the parishes and places mentioned in this Notice, and also to straighten or set back the edge or kerb of the footpath or pavement on both sides or any side of any streets or roads in or along which any of the Tramways will be laid, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, repairing, or renewing the Tramways and works, or substituting single lines for double lines, or double lines for single lines, altering or reinstating the Tramways and works, or substituting others in their place, or for other the purposes of the Order.

7. To authorise the Company, when, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any footway, footpath, street, road, or place, or otherwise, in which any tramway channel, conduit, or electric line shall be laid or placed, it is necessary or expedient to remove or discontinue the use of any tramway channel, conduit, or electric line as aforesaid, or any part thereof, to make in the same, or any adjacent street, road, or place, and maintain work, and use so long as occasion may require a temporary tramway channel, conduit, or electric line, or temporary tramways, channels, conduits, or electric lines in lieu of the tramway channel, conduit, or electric line, or part of a tramway channel conduit or electric line so removed or discontinued to be used, or intended so to be.

8. To enable the Company for all, or any of the purposes of the Order, to purchase feu lease, or acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold lands, houses, buildings, and other property, or to take easements or servitudes over, or in connection therewith, and to erect, and hold offices, buildings, depots, waiting-rooms, engine-houses, generating stations, car sheds, stables, and other conveniences, on any such lands or property, and to sell, lease, or dispose of any such lands, houses, buildings, and property, and in particular, to enable the Company to purchase feu lease, or acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold notwithstanding, anything contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, with respect to the sale of superfluous lands, the following lands for the purposes of erecting thereon a station or stations for generating electrical energy, car-sheds, depots, and other buildings, or other, the purposes of the Undertaking, namely:—

Certain lands in the Parish of Dalkeith and County of Midlothian, extending to five acres, or thereabouts, and bounded as follows, namely:—on the east, by the property of the North British Railway Company; on the south, by the public road leading from Eskbank to Lasswade; on the west and north, by property belonging to the Right Hon. Charles Saunders, Viscount Melville; and on the north east, by the public road leading from Edinburgh to Dalkeith, being part of the field or enclosure No. 260, on the 1.2500 Ordnance Map, First Edition 1894 of that Parish.

9. To exempt the Company from the operation of Section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, so as to enable them to purchase compulsorily parts only of certain properties.

10. To make provision for the use and disposal by the Company of any paving, metalling, or road materials excavated or removed by them during the construction of any of the tramways or street works, or in the exercise of the powers of the intended Order.

11. To empower the Company on the one hand, the County Council of the County of Midlothian, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burghs of Dalkeith and Bonnyrigg, and any local authority or other bodies or persons having the control or management of the streets, roads, and places, respectively within the Parishes and places aforesaid on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect contracts or agreements with regard to all or any of the purposes of the Order, and in particular with respect to the widening of any street, road, or place, and the contribution by such authorities or any of them to the expense thereof, the maintenance or the alteration of the widths or levels of any footways, footpaths, streets, roads, or places, the laying down, placing, altering, maintaining, renewing, repairing, working, and using of the tramways, and the rails, plates, sleepers, posts, wires, works, and apparatus connected therewith, and the use of mechanical power thereon, and for facilitating the passage of carriages and traffic over and along the same, the erection of waiting-rooms for passengers, and the acquisition of the tramways or any of them, or of any lands and properties acquired by the Company for the purposes of the Order, by such authorities, bodies, or persons, and to confirm and give effect to any agreements entered into or to be entered into with any such authorities, bodies, or persons with respect to any of the aforesaid purposes.

12. To empower the Company to widen where necessary the carriage road along which the tramways are to be laid, by reducing the width of the footpath or otherwise.

13. To reserve to the Company the exclusive right of using on the tramways engines and carriages with flange wheels, or wheels specially adapted to run on a grooved edge or other rail.

14. To enable the Company to levy and recover tolls, rates, and charges for the use of the tramways and any other tramways leased to or run over, worked or used by them, and for the conveyance of passengers and traffic thereon, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges, and to confer vary or extinguish exemptions from the payments of such tolls, rates, and charges.

15. To alter or repeal the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, with reference to the purchase of the tramways by local authorities, and make other provisions with respect to the purchase of the tramways and undertaking of the Company by the local authority, particularly with reference to the date of such purchase the method of payment and the basis upon which the amount to be paid shall be determined, and for securing that the Lines may not be broken into sections held by different owners or lessees or in any way to prevent or obstruct or hinder their being worked as one continuous tramway route.

16. To empower the Company to enter into and carry into effect agreements with any local authority, company, body, or person for the supply to such local authority, company, body, or person, or by such local authority, company, body, or person to the Company of electrical energy, and to lay pipes, tubes, and wires to or from any generating station of any such local authority, company, body, or person from or to the tramways across or along any roads, streets, or bridges so as to connect the tramways with such generating station, and to empower the Company to apply for or take transfers of Provisional Orders enabling them to supply electrical energy and to supply electrical energy under such Orders.

17. To authorise the Company on the one hand, and any local authority, company, body, or person on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect, agreements for the supply by the Company of energy in bulk or otherwise, to such local authority, body, or person, for use beyond the area of supply.

18. To authorise the Company on the one hand, and the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, and any local Authority, company, or person, owning or working any tramways or light railways, which can be worked with the tramways, on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the working, running over, using, managing, and maintaining by the contracting parties of all or any of their respective tramways or light railways, the making of all necessary junctions, the supply of rolling stock, plant, and machinery necessary for the purposes of such agreements, and the employment, appointment, and removal of officers and servants, the payments to be made and conditions to be performed in respect of such working, use, management, and maintenance, and the interchange, accommodation, and transmission and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for the respective undertakings of the contracting parties, the payment, collection, division, and apportionment of the tolls, rates, and other receipts arising from the respective undertakings, and to confer on the Company and the said authorities, company, or person, all such powers as may be necessary for giving effect to all or any of the aforesaid purposes.

19. To empower the Board of Trade from time to time to make, and the Company to enforce, Bye-Laws and regulations for regulating the use of electrical power, and for ensuring the protection and accommodation of passengers in the tramcars, and traffic in and along the streets and roads in which the tramways are laid, and to attach penalties to the breach or non-observance thereof, or of the provisions of the Order.

20. To empower the Company to cut, lop off, and remove any trees planted in or near any street, road, or place along or across which any of the tramways are laid, which may interfere with the construction or working of the tramways or trolley wires, or the clear and safe passage of the tramcars, and the passengers thereon, and to erect waiting-rooms for passengers on any of the roadways in which the tramways will be laid.

21. To authorise the Company to provide motor cars and omnibuses, and work the same, and make charges in respect thereof.

22. To provide for the appointment of an auditor or auditors of the Company, and the holding of the ordinary meetings of the Company once, instead of twice, in each year.

23. To enable the Company out of moneys to be raised by them, under the powers of the Order, to pay interest to shareholders on the sums which may be from time to time paid on the shares in the undertaking allotted to them, anything in the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

24. To enable the Company to sell or to lease, either in perpetuity, or for a limited period, their undertaking and works, or any part thereof, to any local authority, public body, company, or person, and to transfer to and vest in the purchaser or lessee all or any of the powers of the Company, including power to work the tramways so transferred, and to levy and recover tolls, rates, and charges in respect of the use of the same, and for the conveyance of passengers and traffic thereon, and to empower any such authority to grant, and the Company to take a lease of, or to run over and use the same, on such terms and conditions, and for such period as may be agreed.

25. To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects of the Order, and to confer such other rights and privileges as may be requisite or necessary for the purposes of the Order.

26. To incorporate in the Order, the Lands Clauses Acts, and extend and apply to the tramways and works all or some of the powers and provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, and, so far as may be deemed expedient, to alter, amend, repeal, render inapplicable, or extend all or some of the provisions of that Act, and of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, and all other Acts of Parliament and Orders (if any) relating to, or which may be affected by, or interfere with the objects of the Order.

27. And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections in duplicate of the tramways and street works, and the lands and other property which will or may be taken or used for the purposes thereof, or under the powers of the Order, with a Book of Reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, will, together with a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, be deposited on or before the 31st day of March instant for public inspection in the office at Edinburgh of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Midlothian, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and Book of Reference as relates to the Burgh of Dalkeith, the Burgh of Bonnyrigg, and the Parishes of Liberton, Dalkeith, and Lasswade respectively, and also a copy of this notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette will be deposited with the Town-Clerks of the said Burghs respectively, at their respective offices, and with the Clerk of the Parish Council of each such Parish at his office, or if he have no office, at his residence.

28. Printed copies of the draft Order will be lodged with the Secretary for Scotland at his Office, Whitehall, London, in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 17th day of April 1905.

29. The procedure subsequent to the deposit of the Petition for, and the draft Order in the office of the Secretary for Scotland, will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation

Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and other Notices, and the deposits of plans, sections, Books of Reference, and copies of the Gazette Notice above-mentioned, will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 14th day of March 1905.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW.

(To regulate the M'Callum Lectureship in the University of Glasgow, and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application by Petition under and in pursuance of The Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, is intended to be made in the month of April next to the Secretary for Scotland by the University Court of the University of Glasgow for an Order for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

(The procedure subsequent to the deposit of the Petition will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it be otherwise decided, in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure will be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.)

To provide, notwithstanding the provisions contained in the Holograph Last Will and Testament by the deceased Reverend Archibald Kelly M'Callum, M.A., LL.D., residing at Primrose Villa, 57 St. Andrew's Drive, Pollokshields, dated 8th March, 1881, and with relative Holograph Codicils annexed thereto, recorded in the Books of Council and Session 3rd February, 1904, and in a Discharge by the University Court of the University of Glasgow in favour of the Trustees of the said Archibald Kelly M'Callum, dated the 28th, and registered in the Books of Council and Session on the 31st, both days of May, 1898, that the Lectureship known as "The M'Callum Lectureship" shall or may be placed on the same footing as a Lectureship established under Ordinance No. 17, General No. 10, made by the Commissioners acting under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, and that the University Court of said University shall have power to appoint a Lecturer for the same period and on the same terms as a Lecturer appointed under said Ordinance or under any other Ordinance which may be made, or to make such other provisions with respect to the said Lectureship as the Provisional Order may provide.

To provide that the University Court of said University shall be entitled to apply the residuary funds of the said trust estate in their possession, as well as any University Funds or any other funds, which may or shall be specially subscribed or appropriated for the purpose in increasing the remuneration of the person holding the said Lectureship for the time being, and in otherwise carrying on the said Lectureship in accordance with the trust purposes of the aforesaid deed as the same are or may be varied and amended by the proposed Order.

To provide that sections 10, 11, 12, and 13 of said Ordinance, or the corresponding or other provisions of any Ordinance which may or shall be substituted therefore or in addition thereto, shall apply to the said Lectureship and to the Lecturer appointed thereto.

To vary, alter, and amend the provisions of the aforesaid Last Will and Testament and Codicils and the aforesaid Deed of Discharge, or some of such provisions as far as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Order.

To make such further and other provisions as may be necessary or expedient for effecting the objects and purposes of the intended Order, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with the purposes of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Petition for the Order and printed copies thereof and of the Draft Order will be lodged at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on or before the 17th day of April, 1905, and printed copies of the Draft Order will, on or before the same day, be deposited in the Parliament Office of the House of Lords and the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
