of Whitley Road at the southern end of the wall or fence forming the boundary between the houses and premises known as Numbers 40 and 42, Whitley Road, and extending thence northward along the said wall or fence for a distance of 3 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the boundary between the houses and premises known as Numbers 53 and 55, Ringwood Road, and extending thence northward along the last mentioned wall or fence for a distance of 3¼ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the southern side of Ringwood Road, and extending thence northward and in a straight line across Ringwood Road for a distance of 14 yards or thereabouts to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the boundary between the houses and premises known as Numbers 56 and 58, Ringwood Road, and extending thence northward along the last mentioned wall or fence for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the grounds of the Cavendish Bowling and Lawn Tennis Club, and extending thence northward along the last mentioned wall or fence for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to its northern end, and continuing thence northward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Woodgate Road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Woodgate Road, for a distance of 5¾ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Southbourne Road, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Southbourne Road for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the New Parish of Saint Andrew, Eastbourne, in the said County and Diocese, from the said New Parish of Christ Church, Eastbourne, and extending thence north westward along the last mentioned boundary for a distance of 17½ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Eastbourne, from the said New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, Eastbourne, and extending thence first north westward and then in various directions along the last mentioned boundary for a distance of 29½ chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the said Eastbourne Branch Line of the Southern Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Anne, Upperton, Eastbourne, from the said New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, Eastbourne), for a distance of 55 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the roadway connecting Bedford Well Road and Whitley Road, across such line of railway at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December, 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the dominions of His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco and Fez:

And whereas by a Convention signed on behalf of His Majesty at Paris on the 18th day of December, 1923, provision was made for the abrogation of the capitulations in the region defined in the First Schedule hereto (hereinafter described as the "Tangier Zone"), and for the establishment of an international jurisdiction to administer justice in the Tangier Zone to His Majesty's subjects and the nationals of other Powers:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 (53 & 54 Vict. c. 37) and 1913 (3 & 4 Geo. V., c. 16), or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. As from the commencement of this Order the operation of the Orders mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto, and of any King's Regulations, Rules or other enactments made thereunder, shall, as regards all such matters and cases as come within the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court of Tangier established under the Convention signed at Paris on December 18th, 1923, be suspended in the Tangier Zone, except as regards any judicial matters pending in His Majesty's Consular Court at the date of the commencement of the Order; but such suspension shall not affect the past operation of those Orders or enactments, or any of them, or any right, title, obligation or liability accrued, or the validity of anything done or suffered thereunder, before the commencement of this Order, or take away or abridge any protection or benefit given or to be enjoyed in relation thereto.

2. As from the commencement of this Order, in the operation outside the Tangier Zone of the Orders in Council mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto and any King's Regulations, Rules or other enactments made thereunder—

(1) the powers and duties of His Majesty's Minister and of the Consul-General shall be transferred in and so far as concerns the French Zone of Morocco to His Majesty's Consul-General at Rabat, and in and so far as concerns the Spanish Zone of Morocco to His Majesty's Vice-Consul at Tetuan, and any act required or permitted to be done by, to or before His Majesty's Minister or the Consul-General shall be done by, to or before
