SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
September 30, 1908.

THE following Addresses were presented to the King on the occasion of His Majesty's visit to Dunblane on the 28th instant, by the Subscribers to the Queen Victoria School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers, and the Town Council of Dunblane, and His Majesty was pleased to reply to the Authorities presenting the Addresses in the terms set forth below in each case:—

SUBSCRIBERS TO QUEEN VICTORIA SCHOOL.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,
The Humble Address of the Subscribers to the Queen Victoria School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,—

We, your loyal and devoted subjects here assembled, desire to congratulate Your Majesty upon your return from abroad in renewed health.

We thank Your Majesty for your gracious presence here to-day. We ask you graciously to receive at our hands, in order that they may be taken over by the authorities constituted by Your Royal Warrant, the buildings of the School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers. These buildings have been erected by public subscription in memory of the conspicuously prosperous and glorious reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, whose affection for Scotland and for the Scottish people was whole-hearted and sincere, and was manifested on many occasions and in many ways during her long and illustrious life.

We further invite Your Majesty to lay the foundation stone of a Chapel in connection with the School erected in memory of the Scottish Sailors and Soldiers who fell in action or died from wounds received in the late South African War. The Naval and Military Forces of the Empire are ever a matter of interest and concern to Your Majesty, and we feel that your presence on this occasion will serve to mark all the appreciation which this National Tribute is designed to shew for the great deeds done and noble services rendered by our fallen Countrymen.

For and in name of the Subscribers.

ROSEBERY,
President of the Council.
P. D. TROTTER,
Chairman of Executive Committee.
R. ADDISON SMITH,
Honorary Treasurer and Secretary.

THE KING'S GRACIOUS REPLY WAS AS FOLLOWS:—

I thank you most heartily for your loyal and dutiful address of welcome.

The object of My visit cannot but excite My deep interest. You could not better have honoured the memory of the dead who lived worthily than in founding this Institution, of which the purpose is to prepare succeeding generations for the duties and the proper conduct of life. I rejoice in the association of this School with the name of Queen Victoria, my beloved and ever lamented Mother.

I rejoice also that you have chosen to found an Institution with the especial object of providing for the sons of my Scottish Sailors and Soldiers, for whose interests I have ever been warmly concerned. As their fathers served the State, so also I pray that the children may grow up under the shelter of these buildings to be useful in their station and calling.

In laying the foundation stone of the Chapel of this School, I am glad to be able to honour once again the memory of those who died in the late South African War.

You may feel assured of my constant interest in the work of this Institution.

TOWN COUNCIL OF DUNBLANE.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Dunblane, in our corporate capacity and in name of the community we represent, beg respectfully to bid Your Majesty a most hearty welcome to our ancient City, and to assure you of the loyalty and devotion of the community to Your Majesty's Crown and Person.

It is with deep thankfulness and pride that Your subjects observe the readiness which Your Majesty ever evinces to advance every object tending to promote their best interests, and especially the gracious solicitude manifested for the comfort and happiness of those suffering from misfortune.

When Your Majesty signified your gracious intention to open the Queen Victoria Memorial Schools for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers at Dunblane, it was hailed with the liveliest satisfaction by the whole community. We recognise and most highly appreciate Your Majesty's condescension in so readily agreeing to undertake a long and fatiguing journey in connection therewith.

We pray that Your Majesty may be spared for many years to reign over a loyal and contented people.

Signed in our name and by our authority, and sealed with the corporate seal of the Burgh, this twenty-eighth day of September one thousand nine hundred and eight.

JOHN MURRAY, Provost.
D. T. REID, Town-Clerk.

THE KING'S GRACIOUS REPLY WAS AS FOLLOWS:—

It gives me great pleasure to be here to-day, and to receive your loyal address of welcome to your ancient Town.

I am glad to observe the enthusiasm which you manifest towards the object of My visit. The affection entertained by Queen Victoria, My reverend Mother, for the Scottish people was deep and sincere, and the School for the Sons of Scottish Sailors and Soldiers, which I am opening to-day in Her Memory, is a fitting memorial of Her affection.

I wish every prosperity to the community of which you are the chosen representatives.

The following Address was also presented to the King by the Town Councils of Blairgowrie and Rattray on the same occasion:—

THE TOWN COUNCILS OF BLAIRGOWRIE AND RATTRAY.

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We trust You and Your Royal Consort may be long spared to reign over a united People and Empire, and that Your Majesty may continue to promote, as You have done in the past, the peace of the Nations.

Signed in name and by authority of the Provosts, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burghs of Blairgowrie and Rattray, this 28th day of September 1908.

JOHN SMITH, Provost of Blairgowrie.

We gratefully recognise the powerful influence exercised by Your Majesty in the maintenance of peace and goodwill among the nations, and in the promotion and furthering of every good and worthy cause.

We humbly pray that Your Majesty and Your Illustrious Consort may long be spared in health, happiness, and prosperity to reign over a loyal, affectionate and contented People.

Signed in name and on behalf of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Coupar-Angus, and sealed with the Common Seal of the Burgh, this twenty-eighth day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight.
