and from the Tuition Fund) shall be applicable to the payment of pensions, subject to the provisions contained in the following clauses. The unapplied balance of the income of the fund in each year shall be added to the capital of the fund.

3. Any Official Fellow who has served the College as Tutor, Bursar, or Lecturer for twenty-five years shall be entitled as of right (but subject to the provisions of clauses 5 to 7) to a pension, if without default or misconduct on his part he be not re-elected a Fellow on the expiration of his Fellowship, or vacate, or voluntarily retire from, his Fellowship. Such pension shall be at the rate of £250 per annum if he has served for thirty years, and otherwise at such rate, not being less than £200, or more than £250, per annum, as the College may determine.

4. The College may grant a pension, not exceeding £200 per annum, to any person who after serving the College as Tutor, Bursar, or Lecturer for twenty years, has retired from such service, or who after so serving the College for not less than ten years has been disabled from such service by ill-health, under circumstances such as in the opinion of the College to render such grant necessary or proper. No pension shall be granted which the income of the fund shall not in the opinion of the College be sufficient to satisfy.

5. No person, while holding the office of President or a Fellowship in the College, shall receive payment of any pension.

6. No person holding a pension shall be entitled to payment of his pension for any year otherwise than out of the income of the fund accruing in that year.

7. In any year, in which the income of the fund is insufficient to pay in full all the pensions then in existence, every pension to which a right has been acquired under clause 3 shall be paid in priority to all pensions to which a right has subsequently been acquired under that clause, and also in priority to all pensions which have been granted (whether previously or subsequently) under clause 4, and every pension granted under clause 4 shall be paid in priority to all pensions subsequently granted under that clause.

Henry F. Pelham, President.

R. W. Raper, Bursar.
