His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

At the Court at Saint James', the 22nd day of April 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorised by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorised in manner aforesaid.

And whereas there was this day read at a Council held by His Royal Highness under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the eighteenth October one thousand nine hundred and nine, we are empowered to offer temporarily to Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants exceptional terms of retirement, with the reservation that such terms are not to be applicable to Officers retired for misconduct, nor to Officers retired for non-service after being placed on half-pay by Order of the Admiralty:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that the benefits of the scale of retired pay sanctioned by the above-mentioned Order in Council shall be restricted to Officers who, in our opinion, are worthy to receive them:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us at our discretion to grant retired pay at the rates laid down in the Order in Council of the twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and seventy, as amended by the Order in Council of the eighth December one thousand nine hundred and three, in the cases of Officers who, in our opinion, are unworthy to receive the benefits of the new scale:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorised thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council on behalf of His Majesty, to approve of what is therein proposed, and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
