5. A fee of £6 will be required from every candidate attending an examination.

When vacancies (b) occur, they will be offered in rotation to the qualified candidates then on the list, who will be free to decline them without forfeiting their claim to subsequent vacancies (b).

No undertaking can be given as to the proportion of vacancies that may be filled under these Regulations and under the Reconstruction Scheme respectively.

7. For any examination that may be held in the year 1921 the following Regulations will take the place of "General Regulations respecting Open Competitive Examinations for situations in the Civil Service included in Schedule A of the Order in Council of 10th January 1910."

may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

2. The ordinary rules for navigation and safe conduct are to be adhered to in the Firth of Forth except so far as they are affected by these Regulations.

3. Nothing in these Regulations exonerates the owner, master or agent of any ship from any neglect of the ordinary rules for the navigation and safe conduct of ships.

4. Merchant vessels may enter or leave the Forth at any time, but must not leave without first obtaining port clearance from the Collector of Customs.

5. Merchant vessels wishing to enter or leave the docks at Leith or Granton must first obtain permission from the Senior Naval Officer at Leith or Granton respectively.
