TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1927.

*Scottish Office,
Whitehall,
29th July 1927.*

THE following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties The King and Queen to Scotland, and His Majesty was graciously pleased to reply to the Deputations presenting the Addresses in the terms set forth below in each case:—

CORPORATION OF EDINBURGH.

To THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, respectfully approach Your Majesty and gratefully acknowledge the honour which you are doing the City by your presence with us to-day.

The Corporation, in common with other Local Authorities throughout the country, were at the close of the War confronted with the very serious problem of providing adequate housing accommodation for the citizens. This problem has engaged their unremitting attention since the passing of the Act of 1919, with the result that up till this date they have provided, or are in course of providing, a total of 5724 new houses.

While the Corporation have been preoccupied with the provision of new houses, they have also had before them the cognate question of dealing with the evils which exist in connection with a very large proportion of the existing houses. A few years ago they drew up a schedule of areas in the City where the housing was so unsatisfactory that nothing short of Slum Clearance Schemes would remedy the evils which were found to be existing. In accordance with that policy, the Corporation have resolved to proceed with a Slum Clearance Scheme for one of the most congested areas of the City, viz., St. Leonard's Ward.

In order to make provision for a large proportion of the people who will be displaced by this Scheme, the Corporation recently acquired this beautiful site, which forms part of the Prestonfield Estate, and they propose to erect upon it about 600 houses.

Knowing as we do the deep interest which Your Majesty takes in all matters affecting the welfare of your Scottish subjects, it appeared to the Corporation that it would be fitting that Your Majesty should be associated with the initiation of this scheme. It is a matter of much gratification to us that Her Majesty the Queen is also present on this occasion, and on behalf of the citizens, and on our own behalf, we desire to express to Your Majesties the profound feelings of pride and satisfaction with which we regard Your Majesties' residence in your ancient Palace of Holyrood. We trust that your present visit to the City will be a happy and memorable one.

We would take this opportunity of renewing the assurance of our loyal and devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Person, Throne, and Government.

Signed in name and by authority of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council at Edinburgh, the 11th day of July 1927.

ALEX. STEVENSON,
Lord Provost.
A. GRIERSON,
Town Clerk.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

The Queen and I heartily thank the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Council and Citizens of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh for their warm and loyal welcome. It is always a great pleasure to us to renew our association with this ancient and beautiful City and to make our home at Holyrood.

I have followed with interest the enterprise and initiative which the Town Council have directed towards the improvement of the conditions under which the Citizens live. Ranking prominently amongst their achievements is the work which they have carried on over a period of years towards the solution of the local housing problem, and I have seen with much satisfaction something of the progress already made.

I heartily commend the Corporation's policy of clearing and improving the slum areas of the City; and the Queen and I are very glad to be associated with this scheme at Prestonfield which I am now inaugurating, and which, by providing healthy, and convenient homes in pleasant surroundings, will add materially to the welfare of a large number of my people who are at present denied these blessings.

The scheme has been carefully laid out and designed so as to be worthy of the natural beauties of the site; and I trust that its development will be such as to enable the Corporation in the near future to make substantial progress with the task of clearing and reconstructing one of the congested areas in the City.

Housing—especially of the poorer classes—enlists the deep sympathy and warmest interest of the Queen and myself, and I wish every success to the Corporation in this particular undertaking, and health and happiness to the future occupants of the houses to be built here.

CORPORATION OF GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.
May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, desire for ourselves and on behalf of the citizens to offer your Majesty a hearty welcome to our City, along with the expression of our loyal devotion and of our grateful appreciation of the honour you have conferred upon the City in coming to inaugurate the new Kelvin Hall of Industries and to lay a Memorial Stone in connection with the completion of a new Bridge over the River Clyde at Oswald Street.

We regard it as an additional honour that Her Majesty the Queen has been able to accompany you. She is beloved by all your Majesty's subjects not only for her personal charm but for her warm sympathy in all that affects the welfare of all classes of the people, and the citizens of Glasgow are proud to extend a cordial welcome to her on this occasion.

The Kelvin Hall, when finally completed, will have cost, including the site, about £250,000, and will be a valuable addition to the many public buildings of the City. For many years it was felt that a large and commodious Hall suitable for all kinds of Exhibitions, Trade Fairs, Promenade Concerts and Entertainments was absolutely essential for the City, and that desire has now been realised by the erection and inauguration of this building. Many exhibitions connected with important Industries, Housing and Health, Shipbuilding and Education, as also Motor Shows, Flower Shows, and other enterprises were successfully held in the temporary building which previously occupied this site. The British Industries Fair held in that building was visited by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in March 1921; the Motor Show held there in January 1923 was opened by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and the Flower Show in September 1924 was opened by Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York. The City was greatly encouraged by these Royal Recognitions, as it is by the presence of Your Majesties to-day.

The Corporation are also deeply sensible of the signal mark of Royal favour conferred upon the City by Your Majesty personally associating yourself with the completion of the new Bridge, and in laying a Memorial Stone to signalise the event. The Bridge has been erected to cope with the ever increasing cross river and harbour and dock traffic, and to relieve the congestion of traffic in the centre of the City, and the results anticipated will, it is confidently hoped, be largely attained by the opening of the Bridge.

In graciously consenting to allow the Bridge to be designated "George the Fifth Bridge" Your Majesty has followed a well established precedent, as the Clyde is already spanned by other Bridges identified with the Royal House, and known respectively as the "Victoria Bridge" and the "Albert Bridge."

Your Majesty's association with the events of to-day is regarded as a renewed expression of your continued interest in this industrial centre and in the efforts made by the Corporation to foster and develop the trade and industries of the City, and to promote the amenities thereof and the social life and well-being of its inhabitants.

Our earnest prayer is that Almighty God may preserve and bless Your Majesties and all the Members of the Royal House.

Given in name and by appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto the Twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven years.

DAVID MASON,
Lord Provost.

D. STENHOUSE,
Town Clerk Depute.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

The Queen and I warmly thank you, my Lord Provost, and the Magistrates, Council and Citizens of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, for the loyal and kindly terms of the Address of Welcome to which we have listened. I am especially touched by your affectionate allusions to the Queen, who with me revisits your City with feelings of pleasure and satisfaction, and we are glad to renew that intimate and happy association so long existing between Glasgow and the Members of Our Family.

We have followed with concern the depression which in recent years has affected many of the important industries of this great City, which in population ranks second in the British Isles, and we hear with profound thankfulness that there is evidence in many quarters of improvement in the prospects of your trade and commerce.

The Corporation of Glasgow are to be congratulated upon their constant endeavours to stimulate and facilitate the manifold enterprises for which the City is famed throughout the world. One of the most interesting of these enterprises is the acquisition by the Corporation for the water-supply of their City of Loch Katrine and its surroundings, extending over a district historically famous, and associated for ever with the genius of one of Scotland's noblest sons, and his immortal romance of "Rob Roy." Glasgow is singularly fortunate in having within easy reach some of the most beautiful scenery in Scotland, and, thanks to the generosity of private donors and to the foresight of the Corporation, much has been done to make this accessible to its people. Those who are thus privileged to enjoy the beauty of these landscapes will, I feel sure, at the same time appreciate the need to preserve their amenities with care and respect.

The primary object of our visit is to open two important additions to your City. The erection of Kelvin Hall supplies the need of a suitable building for the many public meetings essential to your commercial and social life. I rejoice that it should be called after one of the first distinguished men upon whom my Father conferred the then newly created Order of Merit. It was more than deserved. I share with all the Officers and Men of the Navy; and of our splendid Merchant Service, the admiration and gratitude felt by all those brought up to the Sea, for the benefits rendered to mankind by the indefatigable labours of Lord Kelvin in the cause of science in general and of sea-service in particular.

History records that, more than seven centuries ago, a stone bridge was built over the River Clyde. To-day another bridge spans your world-renowned waterway. I am proud that it should bear my name, and trust that, as your Address anticipates, it will materially lessen the congestion of traffic in the centre of your City.

It has become more obvious every day that to minimise the complications and dangers of road traffic is one of the most urgent problems affecting those engaged in commercial pursuits, and in facilitating the hard-earned recreations of the people. By unstinted efforts, combined with economical treatment of this subject, enterprising Corporations and County Authorities throughout the land may contribute largely to the wealth and happiness of all classes.

We are deeply grateful for your kind wishes for Ourselves and Our Family; and we pray that, with God's Blessing, Glasgow and its Citizens may ever enjoy peace, happiness and prosperity.

EDUCATION AUTHORITY, GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, the Chairman and Members of the Education Authority of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful servants, welcome the opportunity so graciously afforded us by Your Majesty's visit to Your Royal Burgh of Glasgow to assure Your Majesty of our loyal devotion and attachment to Your Majesty's person and throne, to Your Royal Consort, Queen Mary, and to the members of Your Royal House.

Charged by the free suffrages of our fellow citizens with the oversight under Your Majesty's Government of the education of the two hundred thousand children who constitute the school population of your loyal City of Glasgow, we desire humbly to make mention of the zeal and love which have ever prompted Your Majesty, amid the multifarious cares and duties of Your high estate, to display the liveliest interest in the promotion of the social, physical, intellectual and moral well-being of all sections of the community. We gratefully acknowledge the help, encouragement and inspiration which Your Majesty's example has afforded us in our endeavour adequately to discharge the onerous duties laid upon us by statute to the end that these young people may grow up to take their proper place in the great family of the human race, and prove faithful and efficient citizens of the great Empire over which in the mercy of Providence Your Majesty has been called to rule.

It is our earnest prayer that Your Majesties may long be spared to reign over a happy, prosperous and devoted people.

Signed in pursuance of the unanimous resolution of the Education Authority of Glasgow, and sealed with the Common Seal of the Authority on Tuesday, the twelfth day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

CHAS. J. CLELAND,
Chairman.

J. CLARK,
Director of Education.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

On behalf of the Queen and myself I thank you for your loyal and dutiful address.

The training of children and adolescents is a matter of supreme importance to the welfare of the State; and one which we follow with deep interest; and there is general agreement that it should be directed, not only towards the intellectual, but also towards the physical, moral and social development of our future citizens. I am confident that, under your enlightened and sympathetic guidance, the rising generation of this great City will continue to derive notable and lasting benefit from the generous educational opportunities they enjoy.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE, GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Dean of Guild and Merchants' House of Glasgow, rejoice to have this opportunity of tendering to Your Majesty and Queen Mary the respectful assurance of our constant loyalty and devoted attachment to the Person and Throne of Your Majesty and to the Royal Family.

This ancient House, which for many generations has been associated with the Commerce and Industry of Glasgow and the West of Scotland, and administers large Funds for the relief of the distressed among the Mercantile Community, has ever been ready to show its unwavering devotion to the Person and Throne of the Sovereign, and never more than under your Majesty's beneficent rule. We recognise with respectful admiration and gratitude Your Majesty's care for the Mercantile interests of the Country and the sympathy of Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort with the distressed among Your subjects.

We gladly join in welcoming Your Majesty and Queen Mary to this ancient City, whose strength increases with its years, and whose interests extend to every quarter of Your Majesty's far-spread Dominions and the World beyond, and we acknowledge with gratitude the benefits a Mercantile Community such as ours enjoys through your Majesty's world-wide experience and knowledge.

Amid much that is changing and unstable in modern conditions, we rejoice in the ever-increasing influence of Your Majesty's Person and Throne as a centre of loyal devotion and affection, and a unifying impulse constantly operating for the stability of the Empire, and influencing throughout their growth the great Dominions beyond the Seas—a service to the Nation and to the Empire in which your loyal subjects rejoice to see that Your Majesty has the hearty co-operation and assistance of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Bearing in grateful remembrance the many blessings which this City, the Kingdom, and the Empire, have enjoyed under your sway, we beg on this auspicious occasion to assure Your Majesty of our unaltered devotion, respect, and regard for Your Royal Person, Your August Consort and the Royal House, and humbly pray that by the Divine Blessing Your Majesty may be long preserved, the beloved and honoured Sovereign of the Kingdom and the Empire.

Signed in name and on behalf of the Merchants' House of Glasgow, and sealed with its Common Seal this twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

CHARLES KER,
Dean of Guild of Glasgow.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

The Queen and I thank you, the Dean of Guild and Merchants' House of Glasgow, for your loyal address and for the goodwill so feelingly expressed towards Our Family.

I recall with interest the long and honourable history of your Incorporation, and its intimate association with the great mercantile enterprises which have developed on the Clyde. From my own travels I realise that the trade of this great City extends to the ends of the earth, and I have watched with anxiety its fluctuations in recent years. I appreciate the measures of benevolent assistance which your Incorporation, with traditional generosity, continues to give.

I rejoice in the increasing prosperity of Glasgow, and I trust that it may long continue.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, GLASGOW.

UNTO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures in the City of Glasgow, by the hands of our President, Vice-President and Secretary, who on our behalf subscribe these presents, humbly and respectfully greet Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort on the occasion of this Your visit to Glasgow.

We are the oldest established Chamber of Commerce in Your Majesty's Empire, having been incorporated by Royal Charter granted by Your Royal Ancestor King George III., in the year 1783.

We desire to express our appreciation of the countenance and support Your Majesty has at all times extended to the Commercial and Industrial interests of Your Empire, and to everything calculated to advance these interests.

We desire also to express to Your Majesty our appreciation of the services rendered to commerce and industry by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales and Their Royal Highnesses The Duke and Duchess of York through those visits to the various parts of Your Majesty's Empire Overseas which have done so much to encourage the development and friendship of the Empire.

We regret that, in common with most parts of the Country, trade and industry in this district have been suffering from severe depression and consequent unemployment and distress. We desire to assure Your Majesty that, along with other institutions similar to ours, it is our continuous endeavour to promote the trade and industry of the Country, and so, by reducing unemployment, to restore prosperity and contentment to all classes of the Community.

In conclusion, we desire to convey to Your Majesty our respectful and loyal devotion, and pray that by the Grace of God Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a happy and contented people.

Signed on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures in the City of Glasgow.

JAMES MORTON, President.
JAMES BEGG, Vice-President.
THOS. CAMERON, Secretary.

Glasgow, 12th July 1927.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

On behalf of the Queen and myself I thank you for your dutiful address and for the kindly reference to those of our sons who have been able from time to time to visit various parts of our Empire.

I am conscious of the difficulties which have attended the Industries of Glasgow and the surrounding district during the past few years, and my sympathy has gone out to all sections of the community in their distress.

I trust that the stream of trade now flowing in fuller volume will continue to increase, and that willing co-operation and wise initiative will promote the peace and prosperity of the City and the country.

ROYAL FACULTY OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, The Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, which received its Charter from King James VI. in 1599, and its title Royal from Your Illustrious Father, King Edward, in 1909, respectfully desire to express our loyalty and homage to Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort on the occasion of this Your visit to Your Ancient City of Glasgow.

We rejoice in Your Majesty's gracious purpose of visiting the various centres of Your Realm to promote the enterprise, welfare and happiness of your people, and we are specially gratified by Your Majesty's interest in the progress of Medical Science and in all efforts towards raising the standard of the public health. We remember with pride that Your Majesty's visit coincides with the centenary year of the birth of the late Lord Lister, a Fellow of this Faculty, and one of Your Majesty's most illustrious subjects, whose anti-septic system of wound-treatment, initiated in the Royal Infirmary of this City, has contributed so greatly to the saving of life and the prevention of suffering.

Time but enhances our loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's person, throne and family, and we earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be preserved long to reign over a great Empire knit together in patriotism and blessed with peace and prosperity.

Signed in name, on behalf and by authority of the Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, and sealed with the Common Seal thereof, this twelfth day of July nineteen hundred and twenty-seven years.

R. M. BUCHANAN, President.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

The Queen and I thank you heartily for your loyal Address.

Your ancient foundation has contributed towards the health and happiness of the community through many generations. I rejoice with you in your recollection of the inestimable boon conferred upon humanity by the late Lord Lister, a Fellow of your Faculty.

I am confident that the great work achieved in the past will be emulated by constant progress of knowledge and practice, and that, as hitherto, the physicians and surgeons of Glasgow will continue to rank amongst the leaders of a great and noble profession.

ROYAL EXCHANGE, GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, Your Majesties' dutiful and faithful subjects, the Directors and Members of the Royal Exchange, humbly desire, on the occasion of Your gracious visit, to be permitted to express our loyal and ardent attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and person, and to Her Majesty the Queen. In no corner of Your Dominions have you more loyal subjects than the Members of this Exchange.

It is of special significance that Your Majesties' visit synchronises with the Centenary of the Royal Exchange, which, since its inauguration one hundred years ago, has been enlarged and extended on several occasions to meet the steady advancement of the Industry and Commerce of the City. Our Secretary has just compiled a History of the Exchange, and it is the hope of the Directors that Your Majesty will graciously accept a copy.

We recall with pleasure the fact that we were recently honoured by visits from H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, H.R.H. The Duke of York, and H.R.H. The Princess Mary, and in 1859 we were honoured by a visit from Your Majesty's beloved Father, King Edward VII., when he was Prince of Wales.

The Royal Exchange is the centre of the largest industrial area in Scotland, and the Membership numbers over 2000.

Iron and Steel, Shipping, Insurance and Coal are centred here. 90% of the coal dealings in Scotland go through the Exchange. There are many other equally important industries represented—Shipbuilding, Engineering, Oil, Timber, Cotton, &c., as well as the Home, Indian, Foreign and Colonial Merchants. The great position the Royal Exchange holds in the trade and commerce of this Empire, and the importance of its functions in maturing the transactions which secure employment for the great mass of workers, is well known.

We are profoundly conscious that the Commercial prosperity of the Empire is dependent on the security afforded to industrial enterprise, both by the settled form of Government at Home, and by the friendly relationship with all Foreign Powers maintained under Your Majesty's Government.

We earnestly pray that Almighty God may bless and further Your Majesties in all the duties of your exalted station, and that He will vouchsafe to You every happiness in private and family life, and it is our fervent hope that Your Majesties may be spared for many years to reign over a loyal, prosperous and united people in the Kingdom, the Empire and Dominions.

ROBERT MACLAREN, Chairman.

C. C. BEWSHER, Secretary.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

On behalf of the Queen and myself I sincerely thank the Directors and Members of the Glasgow Royal Exchange for the loyal and affectionate expressions of goodwill contained in their Address: and we note with much satisfaction its kind allusions to visits paid by my dear Father and Members of my Family to your City.

The great industries and undertakings represented by the members of your Institution are known in every quarter of the globe, and, on the occasion of its Centenary, they are to be congratulated on the steady increase in the City's commerce. I am especially glad that our visit coincides with so important an event in Glasgow's industrial life, and I gladly accept your kindly proffered copy of the History of the Exchange.

Your Address refers to the proud position occupied by the Royal Exchange in the commerce of the Empire: and I am confident that it will play a worthy part in fostering the ever-expanding and far-reaching trade of Glasgow and so advance the prosperity and happiness of its citizens.

I deeply appreciate the assurance of your prayers for myself and my Family: and upon this happy anniversary of its foundation I wish every success to the Glasgow Royal Exchange.

TRADES HOUSE, GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, the Body Corporate and Politic designated The Trades House of Glasgow, representative of the Fourteen Ancient Craft Guilds, beg leave to approach Your Majesty to tender our sincere loyalty and devotion towards Your Majesty's person, Your Royal Consort Queen Mary, The Throne and all the members of the Royal Family, and to express, on behalf of the Craft Burgesses and Guild Brethren of our City, numbering upwards of 9000, our most lively gratification at a further gracious visit of Your Majesty and Queen Mary to the City of Glasgow.

With gratitude we recall the occasions on which we have been granted the privilege of addressing in person Your Gracious Majesty, Your Royal Ancestor King George IV., Your revered Grandmother, Queen Victoria, and your beloved Father, King Edward VII.

We cherish most dearly the great honour conferred on The Trades House and Craft Guildry of Glasgow by the admission of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales and His Royal Highness The Prince Henry as Guild Brethren of Craft Rand and Freemen of two of our Ancient Guilds.

For these privileges we humbly desire to express to Your Majesty our most heartfelt thanks.

By our Charter the Letter of Guildry, A.D. 1605, afterwards ratified by His Majesty King Charles II. in 1672, our corporate Funds were directed to be applied to the welfare of our Craftsmen, decayed in fortune, and to any other good and godly work which might tend to the advancement of the Common Weal of the Burgh.

Through the labours and foresight of a long line of worthy Craftsmen and generous gifts from Guild Brethren it is now the happy privilege of our Ancient House and Crafts to be able to distribute annually a sum of more than £40,000 in pensions to the aged and needy, in grants towards the education and training of the young, in bounties to encourage the wise and judicious adoption of orphan children, and in contributions to Charitable and Benevolent Institutions and Schemes in Glasgow.

Your Majesty's beneficent reign has been distinguished by the promotion of legislation designed to mitigate the hardships of those upon whom misfortune has fallen—the aged, the widow, the fatherless and the afflicted—yet amid the complexity of modern civilisation there remains a wide field wherein the well directed efforts of Voluntary Institutions may usefully contribute to the Weal of the community.

In such a field it is the earnest aim and desire of our House and its Ancient Crafts to continue our labours and, as necessity may arise, to adapt our efforts to meet the ever changing needs of modern life.

The sympathy and close personal interest which Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, throughout a reign of unprecedented responsibilities have maintained in all that makes for the happiness of your subjects has enshrined Your Throne and gracious persons in the hearts of the people; and such noble exemplars will inspire us to continue with renewed zeal the work which lies to our hand.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty, Queen Mary and all the members of the Royal Family may enjoy many years of health and happiness; that the coming years of Your Majesty's illustrious reign may ever be blessed with peaceful relations towards other countries and with increasing prosperity amongst all classes of Your Majesty's subjects, who by Your Majesty's noble example may be guided to work together for the weal of the communities in which they live, for the maintenance and unity of your great Empire and the happiness of all your people.

Signed in pursuance of the unanimous resolution of The Trades House of Glasgow and sealed with the Common Seal of that Corporation on the eleventh day of July nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

JOHN DALLAS, Deacon Convener.

JOHN R. CAMPBELL, Collector.

HARRY LUMSDEN, Clerk.

The KING's gracious Reply was as follows:—

On behalf of the Queen and myself I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, presented in the name of more than nine thousand of the citizens of Glasgow. We are touched by your affectionate references to ourselves, to our Predecessors and to Members of our Family.

The valuable work which your House and its Incorporations have been performing for centuries has contributed much to the welfare and happiness of generations of citizens, and I feel sure that, though circumstances may change, there will always be scope in numerous directions for the exercise of your beneficent activities.

I trust that success and happiness may continue to attend upon your labours.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July 1927

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day Admiral of the Fleet the Right Honourable David, Earl Beatty, G.C.B., O.M., G.C.V.O., D.S.O., was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Marquess of Bath.
Lord Chamberlain.
Earl Beatty.
Lord Eustace Percy.

WHEREAS by section six of the Merchant Shipping (International Labour Conventions) Act, 1925 (15 & 16 Geo. V., cap. 42) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") it is enacted among other things that His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that the provisions of the Act shall, subject to such modifications and adaptations, to be specified in the Order, as appear to His Majesty necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case, apply to ships registered in any British possession outside the United Kingdom, other than the Dominions mentioned in the Second Schedule to the Act, as they apply to ships registered in the United Kingdom:

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the Act should, subject to the modifications and adaptations specified in this Order, apply to ships registered in the Colonies mentioned in the Schedule in like manner as they apply to ships registered in the United Kingdom:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct, and it is hereby directed, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Act shall apply to ships registered in the Colonies mentioned in the Schedule in like manner as they apply to ships registered in the United Kingdom subject to the following modifications and adaptations, that is to say:—

(1) For the expressions "the Board of Trade" and "officers of the Board of Trade" there shall be respectively substituted the expressions "the Officer Administering the Government" and "officers authorised for such purpose by the Officer Administering the Government."

(2) For the words "United Kingdom" in section five of the Act there shall be substituted the name of the Colony.

(3) Sections 2, 3 and 4 of the Act shall not apply to (a) ships registered in the Straits Settlements or (b) ships registered in Seychelles by the Port Officer for voyages between the Islands shown in Schedule A of the Regulations made by the Governor in Executive Council under Sections 16 and 17 of the Unseaworthy Vessels Ordinance, 1896.

(4) For the purpose of the penalties prescribed in section four of the Act Rupees 10 shall be taken as the equivalent of £1 in the case of Mauritius.

2. This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Colonies) Order, 1927.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 84 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (57 & 58 Vic. c. 60), it is enacted that whenever it appears to His Majesty the King in Council that the tonnage regulations of the said Act have been adopted by any foreign country and are in force there, His Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that country shall, without being remeasured in His Majesty's Dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that the tonnage regulations of the said Act have been adopted by the Government of Latvia and are now in force in that country:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Latvian Tonnage Order, 1927.

2. Latvian ships, the certificates of registry or other national papers of which are dated on or after the 4th June 1925, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such certificates of registry or other national papers in the same manner, to the same extent and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.

EDUCATION (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1918.

COUNTY OF PERTH.

In accordance with the requirements of subsection (3) of Section two of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918, intimation is hereby given that the Secretary of State proposes to make an Order in the terms annexed hereto, and that before making the said Order he will consider any objections and representations in writing respecting the same received in the Scottish Office, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, within twenty-one days of the date hereof.

Order by the Secretary of State determining the electoral divisions of the education area of the County of Perth, the number of members to be elected to the Education Authority, and the apportionment of these members among the electoral divisions of the education area.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section two of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918, as read with the Secretaries of State Act, 1926, and after compliance with the procedure therein prescribed, I, the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour, Bart., One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby direct that the electoral divisions of the education area of the County of Perth, the number of members to be elected to the Education Authority of the said area, and the apportionment of such members among the electoral divisions shall be as follows:—

Number of Members of Education Authority 36

Electoral Divisions.	Contents of Divisions.	Number of members for each Electoral Division.
First	The Burgh of Perth	9

TRADE BOARDS ACTS, 1909 AND 1918.

NOTICE OF INTENTION GIVEN UNDER THE ABOVE-MENTIONED ACTS TO MAKE A SPECIAL ORDER TO BE CITED AS THE TRADE BOARDS (MILK DISTRIBUTIVE) ORDER, 1927.

The Minister of Labour hereby gives notice that, with a view to altering the description of the Milk Distributive Trade contained in the Appendix to the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1920, and as varied by the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1926, he intends, pursuant to the powers conferred on him by Section 2 of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, to make a Special Order varying the above Orders in the manner shown in the Draft Special Order contained in the Appendix hereto.

Further copies of the Draft Special Order may be obtained on application in writing to the Secretary, Ministry of Labour, Whitehall, London, S.W.1.

Objections to the draft Special Order must be sent so as to reach the Minister of Labour at the above address within 49 days from the second day of August 1927, that is to say on or before the twentieth day of September 1927. Every objection must be in writing and must state—

- (a) the specific grounds of objection; and
- (b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Labour this thirtieth day of July in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

(L.S.)

T. W. PHILLIPS,
Deputy Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.

DRAFT SPECIAL ORDER.

TRADE BOARDS.

THE TRADE BOARDS (MILK DISTRIBUTIVE) ORDER, 1927, SPECIAL ORDER DATED 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF LABOUR UNDER SECTION 2 OF THE TRADE BOARDS ACT, 1918 (8 AND 9 GEO. 5 C. 32) VARYING THE TRADE BOARDS (MILK DISTRIBUTIVE) ORDERS, 1920 AND 1926.

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereinafter referred to as the Minister) by a Special Order called the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1920, dated the 9th day of January 1920, applied the Trade Boards Acts, 1909 and 1918, to the trade specified in the Appendix to the said Special Order;

And whereas the description of the trade in the said Appendix was altered by the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1926;

And whereas it is provided by sub-section 1 of section 2 of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, that every Special Order may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Special Order;

And whereas the Minister is of opinion that it is desirable to vary the said Special Orders by altering the description of the trade therein specified;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by the Trade Boards Acts, 1909 and 1918, and of any other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes a Special Order varying the said Special Orders:—

(1) The description of the trade set out in the Appendix to this Order shall be substituted for that set out in the Appendix to the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1920, as altered by the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1926.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Trade Boards (Milk Distributive) Order, 1927.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Labour this _____ day of _____ in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven.

Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.

DRAFT DEFINITION OF THE MILK DISTRIBUTIVE TRADE.

1. Subject as hereinafter provided, the Milk Distributive Trade shall consist of the following operations:—

- (i) the wholesale and retail sale of milk;
- (ii) the sale of other goods by workers mainly employed in the sale specified in paragraph 1 (i) hereof;
- (iii) all work incidental to the sale specified in paragraph 1 (i) hereof.

2. Work incidental to the sale specified in paragraph 1 (i) hereof shall include, inter alia:—

- (a) collecting, delivering, despatching;
- (b) pasteurising, sterilising, homogenising, humanising, cooling, separating and all work performed in connection with any other processes in the preparation of milk;
- (c) blending, testing and sampling of milk;
- (d) cleaning of utensils, receptacles, vehicles, premises, plant, machinery;
- (e) stoking, attending to boiler, plant or machinery, fire lighting, portering of coal, or other fuel;
- (f) horse keeping and harness cleaning;
- (g) portering, lift or hoist-operating, time-keeping, storing, stock-keeping, warehousing;
- (h) boxing, parcelling, labelling, weighing, measuring, checking, bottling, packing and unpacking;
- (i) clerical work or canvassing carried on in conjunction with the work specified in paragraph 1 hereof.

3. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, the Milk Distributive Trade shall not include any of the following operations:—

- (a) the wholesale sale of milk (and operations incidental thereto) from an establishment at which milk products are manufactured and from which unseparated milk is not ordinarily sold at such;

- (b) the wholesale sale of milk direct from the farm where the milk was produced and all operations incidental thereto;
- (c) the following operations when performed at a farm where the only milk dealt with is that produced on the farm:—cooling, bottling, cleaning of the dairy premises and of utensils and receptacles used thereon;
- (d) work done by a worker for an employer who employs that worker mainly in agriculture or in operations specified in paragraph 3 (b) or (c) when performed in the circumstances described therein;
- (e) the sale of milk in restaurants, shops or similar premises by waiters or shop assistants who are not mainly engaged upon such sale;
- (f) the transport of goods by common carriers;
- (g) carting and operations incidental thereto where the business carried on consists exclusively of such operations;
- (h) work done by or on behalf of the Post Office;

4. For the purpose of this Schedule the expression "milk" means milk other than dried or condensed milk.
