ARMY DEPARTMENT

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve of the name shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for Brave Conduct:

24101626 Junior Lance Corporal Andrew Adie SINCLAIR (Posthumous) Queen's Own Highlanders (Seaforth and Camerons).

On the 20th June 1967, Junior Lance Corporal Sinclair and Junior Lance Corporal Bell were carrying out canoe training in the lower reaches of the River Don, Aberdeen.

The weather deteriorated rapidly and the canoes were swept out towards the sea by the strong ebb tide. Junior Lance Corporals Sinclair and Bell managed to beach their canoe, and then noticed another canoe containing two younger boys being carried out to sea.

Junior Lance Corporal Sinclair suggested to his companion that they try and help, and despite the odds, convinced him that they should put to sea.

By this time, the off shore wind had increased considerably, but nevertheless they relaunched their canoe and paddled seawards. In the rough water the canoe was uncontrollable and capsized. Junior Lance Corporal Bell succeeded in reaching the shore safely, but Junior Lance Corporal Sinclair was carried out to sea and his body has never been recovered.

This brave young man, without any thought for his own safety, returned to the sea from which he had previously so narrowly escaped and sacrificed his own life by his gallant action.

2nd January 1968.

Brig. William Charles Walker SLOAN, late R.A.C., is appointed Aide-de-Camp to The QUEEN, 1st Jan. 1968, in succession to Brig. The Lord GRIMTHORPE, O.B.E.
