Provisions as to payment of cash bonus.

6.—(1) Any cash bonus payable in pursuance of a continuance application relating to stock inscribed or registered in the books of the Bank may be paid by warrant, and any such warrant may be sent by post in an envelope addressed to the person and to the address specified in the instructions contained in the application in that behalf or, in a case where no such instructions are contained in the application, to the stockholder (or in the case of a joint holding to the stockholder whose name stands first on the account) to his address as shown in the books of the Bank.

(2) Any cash bonus payable in pursuance of a continuance application relating to stock inscribed or registered in the Post Office Register may be paid by warrant, and any such warrant may be sent by post in an envelope addressed—

Provided that the Bank of England may, in any particular case, treat any coupon which would otherwise have ceased to be valid as aforesaid as if it were valid for the payment of interest at the reduced rate specified in the redemption notice.

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Regulation, where a holding in the Loan is continued after the redemption date, the validity of any certificate or other document with respect to the holding shall not be impaired by the fact that the redemption notice has been given, or by anything contained in the notice, but as from that date all such documents shall have effect (subject to any reduction in the rate of interest and other modifications specified in the said notice in pursuance of paragraph (a) (i) of sub-section (1) of section eleven of the Act) in like manner as if the notice had not been given.
