A period in chambers, experience at the bar or in a solicitor's office, or other legal experience (particularly experience of work similar to that carried out in the legal branches of one or more of the departments in which vacancies are to be filled) will be an advantage.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Board will normally assess a candidate on his suitability for the general duties of the Legal Class, but specialised experience in one or more branches of legal practice will be taken into account. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.
