Hanover, Feb. 26. The Negotiation for adjusting the Affairs of Holstein, is continued here with great Application, the Mediators being desirous to make all the use they can of the opportunity the unfitness of the present Season for Action gives them for this purpose. In the mean time the Danes and Swedes with equal diligence are making Preparations both at Sea and Land. The Letters from Copenhagen say, 15 Men of War would shortly go to cruize in the Baltick Sea, and hinder the Swedes (who we hear have 10000 Men in a readiness on the Coast of Schonen) from transporting any more Forces to Holstein. The Heer Pinsier, Minister from the Duke of Holstein, went from hence yesterday to Hanover and Celle, to treat, as is said, about taking some of the Forces of the House of Lunenbourg into the Service of the Duke his Master; And the Heer Keyser, Treasurer to his Highness, is buying up a great quantity of Provisions, as is believed, for the use of these Troops. The Elector of Hanover is returned from Celle to his Residence at Hanover, where the Electoress of Brandenburgh is daily expected, to make a Visit to the Dutchess-Dowager of Hanover her Mother; And it's discoursed, that Proposals have been made for a Marriage between the Electoral Prince of Brandenburgh and the Princess of Hanover. The Ministers of the several Princes of the Empire who still oppose the establishing of the Ninth Electorate, have lately had several Conferences at Goslar, and are now separated, but 'tis not yet known what Resolutions they have taken.

Hague, March 2. A Placaet is published here, for taking off the Prohibition to Export Barley, Oats, Pease and Beans; but it orders, that no Wheat shall be Exported without a License, and those that give the said Licenses are to take care, that not above half the quantity of Wheat that is brought into these Provinces be again Exported.

Paris, Feb. 27. N. S. Monsieur de Pointi is gone from hence to Brest, to hasten the fitting out of the Squadron he is to command against the Moors of Salee; and 'tis said, he will have Orders to Bombard that Town. Our Letters from Italy say, the Cardinals Fourbin, Coaslin, and Le Camus, were arrived at Leghorn, from whence they intended to go by Land to Rome, and to send their Retinue and Equipage by Sea to Civita-Vecchia. They write from Turin, that Cardinal d'Estrees was gone from thence on his Journey to Rome. The Persecution of the Protestants in this Kingdom is carried on with the greatest Severity, without any regard to Age, Sex, or Quality; The Countess de Fiennes, aged above 80 years, in a Fit of Sickness she had some time ago, being pressed by the Priests to receive the Sacrament and Extream Unction, refused to do it, and declared she was, and would die a Protestant, for which Dragoons were quarter'd in her House, who lived there at discretion for several months, and these and other Endeavours to make her change her Religion having no effect, they have shut her up in a Monastery.

Plimouth, Feb. 20. Yesterday came in here His Majesty's Ships the Plimouth from the Eastward, and the Queenborough from the West-Indies. This day the Ann of Jersey, Amy Dauteyne Master, arrived here from Bilboa.

The Great Aldborough Adventure meeting with extraordinary Encouragement, both at Home and Abroad, Mr. [illegible] Proposes, That the Five Thousand Tickets will be [illegible] Monies; Therefore all Persons [illegible] desirous to be expeditious in taking out their Tickets, that the Undertakers may be also enabled to answer the Twenty Thousand Tickets [illegible] time limited by Act of Parliament. Assurance also is made, that the Buildings are [illegible] and without the Staff Duties, which [illegible] Publick [illegible] Duties to be made use of at the Lottery, may be [illegible] of the Adventurers, at their Office at the Bank of England.
