PRICES AND INCOMES ACT 1966

Reference to the National Board for Prices and Incomes

WAGES AND CONDITIONS IN THE ELECTRICAL CONTRACTING INDUSTRY

WAGES and conditions in the electrical contracting industry for England, Wales and Northern Ireland are currently determined by a three-year agreement reached on 30th June 1966, the final stage of which was put into effect from 2nd September 1968. Wages and conditions in the electrical contracting industry in Scotland are determined separately.

In pursuance of her powers under Section 2(1) of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966, the First Secretary of State and Secretary of State for Employment and Productivity hereby refers to the National Board for Prices and Incomes for separate examination and report:

- (1) Wages and conditions of employment in the electrical contracting industries in England, Wales and Northern Ireland;
- (2) Wages and conditions in the Electrical Contracting Industry in Scotland;
- (3) Questions related to (1) and (2) above, including the relationship of national settlements in electrical contracting to other pay settlements and in particular to site agreements.
