The humble Address of the Mayor and Citizens of Kilkenny. All Three presented by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

At the Court at St. James's, July 23. 1706.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been informed, That great Liberty has been taken by some Papists, and some other Disaffected Persons, in their Discourses, and laying Wagers relating to the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, tending thereby to create Misunderstandings between Her Majesty's Subjects; Her Majesty being Graciously inclined to prevent Her good Subjects from being misled by Inadvertency, is this Day pleased, with the Advice of Her Privy-Council, to Order, That Publick Notice be given, That whosoever shall be concerned in any Seditious Discourse or Libel, or laying Wagers, or making or subscribing Policies of Assurance relating to the said Union, shall be Prosecuted for such their Offence according to the utmost Rigour of the Law: Whereof all Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates are to take Notice. And that this Her Majesty's Pleasure may be publickly known, it is ordered to be Printed in the Gazette.

JOHN POVEY.

Kensington, July 24. Her Majesty and his Royal Highness returned this Evening to Windsor.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to serve Her Majesty in the Train of Artillery, let them repair to Capt. Silver, Master-Gunner of England, at his House in St. James's Park, or at the Exercise on Blackheath, they shall enter into present Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be further encouraged and advanced as they shall deserve.

That no Person may pretend Ignorance, these are to give Notice, That it is Enacted by an Act of Parliament passed the last Sessions, That from and after the 24th of March, 1705. any Person or Persons whatsoever, trading or dealing in Whalebone, having in his, her or their Custody, any Foreign-cut Whalebone, (other than in Fins regularly imported) shall forfeit Thirty Pounds, besides the like Penalties and Forfeitures as the Importers thereof are liable to by a Clause in that behalf, in an Act made in the Ninth Year of his late Majesty. And all Masters of Ships who shall knowingly import the same, shall forfeit Fifty Pounds: And upon any Dispute whether the said Bone were Cut in Parts beyond the Seas, the Proof shall be incumbent only upon the Importer, Claimer, Owner, Proprietor, or such Person or Persons in whose Hands or Custody such Cut Whalebone shall be found respectively, as by the aforesaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, will more at large appear.
