EXETER CITY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971, SECTION 277
AS AMENDED BY THE
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING AMENITIES ACT 1974,
SECTION 1

Central Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that, following a Local Public Meeting, the Exeter City Vouncil have designated a Central Conservation Area as being an area of special architectural or historic interest which it is desirable to preserve or enhance.

The area is bounded by the junction of Queen Street with Northernhay Place following the centre line of Northernhay Place, the City Wall as far as Rougemont Gardens, the north-eastern boundaries of the properties in Gandy Street, the centre of High Street to St. Stephens Street, the contiguous boundary of the Cathedral Close Conservation Area and the rear of the remaining properties in High Street, the south-western boundary of properties in North Street as far as No. 9, the centre line of Waterbeer Street, the south-western and north-western boundaries of the former Higher Market, and the south-western boundary of 18-26 Queen Street.

A plan showing the area may be inspected at the Civic Centre, City Planning Department or Room 2.7, City Secretary and Solicitor's Department during normal working hours.

Anyone wishing to demolish a building within a Conservation Area must first apply for Listed Building Consent to the Local Planning Authority. Such an application may be made separately or as part of an application for planning permission. Generally speaking an application for the demolition of any part of a building would be regarded as demolition of the building for the purposes of section 277A of the Act.

Listed Building control applies to all buildings in the area with the exception of those categories of building specified by the Secretary of State (see Department of Environment Circular 147/74, Paragraph 15).

In general the Secretary of State is of the view that consent to demolish should only be given where there are acceptable and detailed plans for redevelopment.

Applicants for advertisements within the Conservation Area are advised to consult the City Planning Officer in advance as the Local Planning Authority would not wish advertising displays to detract from the appearance of the area generally.

Under the Town and Country Amenities Act all trees in Conservation Areas are subject to the same conditions as trees covered by Tree Preservation Orders and the permission of the City Council would be required to lop or fell any such trees.

D. G. Sainsbury, City Secretary and Solicitor.

Room 2.7,
Civic Centre, Exeter.
