described in the Schedule to this notice is an area of special architectural and historic interest, the character or appearance of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance and have therefore included the said area within the previously defined Conservation Area.

The effect of the extension to this Conservation Area is that where an application for planning permission for the development of land in or adjacent to a Conservation Area is made to the Council, which would, in the opinion of the Council, affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area, the application will be subject to the special procedures contained in sections 28, 29, 31 and 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.

A map of the newly-defined Conservation Area may be inspected during normal office hours at the Council Offices, Knowle, Sidmouth.

SCHEDULE

Extension to Colyton Conservation Area

The Conservation Area is extended to the north of the River Coly to include the open land generally known as The Chantry. To the east of Chantry Bridge the Area included is the football field and field O.S. No. 6928 up to Umborne Bridge. To the west O.S. No. 3331 and 1631 are included. The Conservation Area is extended eastwards to include properties in Dolphin Street and Rosemary Lane as far as their junction with Station Road. To the south the properties and their curtilages in Hillhead are included up to and comprising Lidden Cottage on the east side and Greenways and the adjoining garages on the west side. To the south of Queen Street the Conservation Area is extended to include the back gardens of the properties in this road and also the property known as The Bungalow. An extension to the south-west is also made to include properties in The Butts as far as "Mirador" and in New Sidmouth Road as far as Upper Greencroft. To the west the extension now includes the whole of the curtilages of the properties in King Street.
