JOHN CARRIE having sometime ago failed in his circumstances, his Creditors then agreed to accept of a composition of 10s. per pound, payable, by four equal instalments, at 3, 6, 9, and 12 months, by equal portions: For the two last instalments security was only required, and bonds were granted therefor to William Mill and John Airth, Esquires, bankers in Arbroath, for behoof of the Creditors in general. As these gentlemen had not an opportunity of knowing the debts due by John Carrie previous to the 28th day of October last, they inserted an advertisement in the Edinburgh Advertiser and Courant, requesting those Creditors to lodge with David Louison, town-clerk, Arbroath, their claims against Carrie, with oaths of verity thereon, betwixt and the 27th of August last. As it is believed there are several Creditors who have not attended to this intimation, notice is again hereby given to the Creditors of John Carrie previous to the 28th of October last to lodge their claims, with oaths of verity, in the hands of the said David Louison, betwixt and the 30th day of September current; certifying those who fail to do so that they will be deprived of a share of said instalments.
