NATIONAL INSURANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of submission of draft regulations entitled "The Social Security (General Benefit, Claims and Payments) Regulations 1980".

The National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received, in accordance with section 139 of the Social Security Act 1975, for consideration and report thereon, the draft of regulations entitled "The Social Security (General Benefit, Claims and Payments) Regulations 1980".

An explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

The Committee will take into consideration any objections made by or on behalf of persons affected, received by them not later than 7th October 1980. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, Room 128, Friars House, 157-168 Blackfriars Road, London SE1 8EU.

Copies of the draft of these regulations can be obtained by sending a stamped and addressed foolscap envelope to the Secretary of the Committee.

D. S. Lees, Chairman

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The draft regulations extend to people abroad the same exception from disqualification for imprisonment as would apply had the imprisonment occurred in Great Britain.

They also allow an insurance officer a period of 28 days instead of 21 days at present to give notice of appeal to the Social Security Commissioners so that payments of those benefits referred to in regulation 13 (2) of the Social Security (General Benefit) Regulations 1974 may be suspended pending a decision from the Commissioner. The regulations also make a slight alteration to the definition of the commencing date of that period. Similar provisions will also apply when an insurance officer has to ask for leave to appeal.

The regulations change provisions relating to overpayments of benefits. The modifications require repayment to be made by a person who has received overpaid benefit on behalf of a beneficiary if that person did not exercise due care and diligence to avoid overpayment.

Finally, the draft regulations make minor amendments to the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1979 to ensure that certain provisions apply to up-rating orders as well as to regulations, and confine the age limitations which applies to a person appointed to act on behalf of a beneficiary, to a natural person; so clarifying the position when a corporate body or committee is appointed.
