SOCIAL SECURITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

SOCIAL SECURITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of Submission of Draft Regulations relating to Equal Treatment of Men and Women in the Social Security Scheme and a Draft Amendment to Supplementary Benefit (Conditions of Entitlement) Regulation 7.

The Social Security Advisory Committee gives notice that it has been asked by the Secretary of State for Social Services under section 10 of the Social Security Act 1980 to consider and report on the draft regulations entitled:

(i) Supplementary Benefit (Equal Treatment) Regulations 1983;
(ii) Supplementary Benefit (Requirements) (Long-Term Rates) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations 1983;
(iii) Family Income Supplement (Miscellaneous Amendment) Regulations 1983;
(iv) Social Security Benefits (Dependency) Amendment Regulations 1983;
(v) An amendment to Supplementary Benefit (Conditions of Entitlement) Regulation 7, which is a further part of the Supplementary Benefit (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 1983, about which Gazette notices were recently published.

A short explanatory note provided by the Department of Health and Social Security on these regulations is appended to this notice. The Committee will take into account any comments or objections made by or on behalf of people or organisations who would be affected by the regulations received by them not later than 27th May 1983 for items (i) to (iv) and 29th April 1983 for item (v). Comments or objections should be sent to Miss G. Moore, the Secretary, Social Security Advisory Committee, Room 458, New Court, Carey Street, London WC2A 2LS. J. Moore, Secretary

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Equal treatment

A number of changes are proposed from November 1983 to enable women to claim certain benefits for their families in the same way as men. Some changes relating to Family Income Supplement, National Insurance benefits and supplementary pension require only commencement orders to bring into effect existing legislation. Regulations are however required to introduce equal treatment in respect of eligibility to claim supplementary benefit and to make some changes in the Family Income Supplement scheme. These regulations propose that:

(i) either a man or a woman will be entitled to claim supplementary benefit for a couple so long as he or she can satisfy conditions mainly designed to demonstrate contact with the employment field;
(ii) couples will get the higher long-term rate of supplementary benefit when either partner reaches 60;
(iii) certain families will be excluded from FIS for up to three months where both partners normally work but one is temporarily not working.

Part-time study for unemployed young people

Unemployed people can in certain circumstances undertake part-time study for up to 21 hours a week without losing supplementary benefit entitlements. Amending regulations made in 1982 introduced a qualifying period of 3 months spent unemployed and receiving benefit before the concession operated. A draft amendment to Regulation 7 of the Conditions of Entitlement Regulations 1981 now provides for time spent on a Youth Opportunities Programme or a Youth Training Scheme course to count towards this qualifying period. The proposed amendment is to be incorporated in the set of draft Supplementary Benefit (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 1983 which have already been referred to the Committee for consideration.
