NOISE INSULATION REGULATIONS 1975

A23 Star Inn To County Boundary

The A23 London—Brighton Trunk Road from a point 168 metres south of the Star Lane junction northwards to the county boundary was opened to traffic on 3rd October 1980.

Offers of insulation (double windows and perhaps doors, special ventilation and in some cases venetian blinds) or grant have been made to the occupiers (and/or landlords) of all dwellings which are believed to qualify under the Noise Insulation Regulations 1975.

A map and list showing these dwellings may be seen at the Housing and Health Department, Reigate and Banstead Borough Council, 24 Hatchlands Road, Redhill, Surrey.

The Regulations give a right of appeal to the occupier or person entitled to occupy any dwelling or other residential property (such as an old peoples home or hostel for long-stay residents), and to his immediate landlord or licensor (if any), where the dwelling or property is within 300 metres of the scheme and no offer of insulation or grant has been made in respect of it. Any such person who claims that use of the improved length of road causes or is expected to cause at the property in question noise of not less than the level specified in the Regulations may apply in writing to the Regional Controller (Roads and Transportation), "Edgeborough", 74 Epsom Road, Guildford, Surrey GU1 2BL setting out the facts on which he relies and requesting that an offer of insulation or grant be made in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations. The right of appeal must be exercised not later than 30th December 1981.

An informatory booklet "Insulation Against Traffic Noise" is available free of charge from the same address.
