TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Great Burstead Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that Basildon District Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") has authorised the designation of a conservation area at Great Burstead, Billericay, Essex with effect from 7th April 1983.

The conservation area boundary includes Nos. 116–132 Church Street, on its north side, including farm buildings to the former Gobions Farm and Nos. 111, 125, 129 and 143 Church Street on its south side including the church and adjoining land. The boundary takes account of property and field boundaries and follows full public consultation.

The effect of the designation is to identify this part of Great Burstead as an area of special architectural or historic interest and to require the Council and the Secretary of State for the Environment to pay special attention to the character and appearance of the area when exercising their powers of planning control. The Council may also adopt a policy of enhancing and improving the area. In a conservation area, permission is required for certain works to buildings (e.g. demolition) where it would not otherwise be necessary.

A plan showing the extent of the area designated as a conservation area is available for inspection at the offices of the Council's Technical Services Division (Planning), Keay House, 88 Town Square, Basildon between the hours of 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.
