St. James's, April 14.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, was presented to His Majesty (in the Absence of the Chancellor) by the Reverend Dr. Goddard, Master of Clare Hall and Vice-chancellor, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Lord Chamberlain; and attended by the following Noblemen and Gentlemen who were formerly, or are at present, Members of the University, viz. The Duke of Chandos; the Earls of Halifax and Murton; the Bishops of London, Salisbury, Rochester, Chester, Peterborough, St. David's, Landaff, and Lincoln; Lord Ward, Lord Orwell, Honourable Mr. Grey, Honourable Edward Finch, Honourable George Townshend, Honourable Charles Townshend, Honourable Mr. Damar; Sir James Lowther, Sir Robert Hildyard, Sir John Griffin; with several Members of the House of Commons; a great Number of Doctors in all Faculties; and Masters of Arts, in their proper Habits; amounting in the Whole to near Two Hundred.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to express the warmest Sentiments of our Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness of your People, in Concluding an Expensive, though Successful War, by a Safe and Honourable Peace. An Event which, we trust, will be attended with the greatest Blessings and Advantages to us, and our latest Posterity.

We have had frequent Occasions, in the Continuance of the late just and Necessary War, to admire the Fortitude and Greatness of Mind, with which your Majesty pursued every Measure that could contribute either to the Glory, or the Security of your Kingdoms. Permit us to declare our most affectionate Sense of that Goodness of Heart, which has disposed your Majesty, even in the Midst of your Triumphs, to put a happy Period to the manifold Calamities of War, and to complete your amiable Character, the Friend of Mankind, and the Father of your People.

It is with a peculiar Satisfaction that your University of Cambridge embraces every Opportunity of presenting themselves before your Majesty, the Heir and Descendant of Princes, who stand enrolled with our most munificent Patrons and Benefactors. And we shall always gratefully acknowledge, that our invariable Attachment to your Majesty's Illustrious House has been distinguished by many eminent and repeated Marks of Royal Favour. We shall humbly hope, that our Perseverance in the same good Principles and Practices will always recommend us to the same gracious Favour, and Protection.

It shall be our particular Attention, as it is our most bounden Duty, to instil into those, who are committed to our Care, the highest Regard for our Holy Religion, every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection to their King, and every Principle of Obedience to the Laws and Constitution of their Country.

May your Majesty, who are formed to be the Delight and Happiness of any People, be for ever possessed of the Hearts of all your Subjects! May that Purity of Manners, that undisssembled Piety, of which your Majesty is so illustrious an Example, effectually promote and recommend the Cause of Virtue and true Religion. May it check the Progress of all open Vice and Profaneness: And may that God, whom you so faithfully serve, long, very long, preserve your Majesty the most beloved Sovereign of an united, a dutiful, and an affectionate People!

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

THE just Sentiments which you express, in this Dutiful Address, of the Peace, which the Providence of God has enabled Me to conclude, give Me particular Satisfaction. By continuing to educate the Youth committed to you, in the Principles of Loyalty, Virtue, and Piety, you will perform a most acceptable Service to Me: And as it is My earnest Desire to contribute to the Advancement of true Religion, and useful Learning, the University of Cambridge cannot doubt of My constant Favour and Protection.

They were all most graciously received; and had the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, has been presented to His Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on the good Success, with which Providence hath graciously crowned your Humane and Christian Labours for putting an End to the late necessary, but expensive and bloody War, by the Conclusion of a just and Honourable Peace.

It adds greatly to our Joy, that your Majesty's Influence and Example have been happily instrumental to restore Tranquillity throughout the Rest of Europe. And our Satisfaction is still further heightened by the Prospect, that all our Fellow Subjects, in your wide-extended American Dominions, will, by Means of the Acquisitions, which the British Arms have made, and your Majesty hath so prudently retained, live hereafter secure from savage Incursions and Alarms.

We trust also, that a Door will thus be opened to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its native Purity, by the only allowable Method, rational and benevolent Persuasion, amongst those who have hitherto, either been ignorant of it, or mixed it with dangerous Errors.

We earnestly pray God to direct and bless your Majesty's Counsels to the complete Attainment of these salutary Ends: And grant you long to see every Part of the several Nations under your Government flourishing in the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights; and shewing their Thankfulness for such ineffable Blessings by a cheerful and uniform Obedience to God and your Majesty.

Whatever we can do for the Promotion of the Publick Felicity, we shall always diligently endeavour, animated to it in the strongest Manner both by Conscience and Inclination.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

My Lords, and the Rest of the Clergy,

THIS fresh Testimony of your Duty, and Affection, to My Person, and Government, is very highly agreeable to Me. It will ever be My sincere Endeavour to extend Our Most Holy Religion throughout the vast Dominions, added to My Crown by the late Honorable and Advantageous Peace: In this pious Work, I am persuaded, I shall have the Hearty and Zealous Assistance of My Faithful Clergy; and They may be assured of My constant Protection, and Support.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff and Grand Jury at the Assizes assembled, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by Robert Burton, Esq; High Sheriff, attended by the Earl Bath, Lord Lieutenant, Sir John Aitley, Bart. Knight of the Shire, Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. Sir Thomas Jones, Thomas Hill, Esq; Member for Shrewsbury, and other Principal Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff and Grand Jury at the Assizes assembled, Gentlemen and Clergy of your County of Salop, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere and humble Congratulations on the Return of Peace.

From a Principle of Humanity, we cannot but be glad to see a Period put to the Distress of Nations, and to the Destruction of our Fellow-Creatures; but we feel a peculiar Satisfaction, on the Occasion, when we observe that while the Splendor of our Victories has raised the British Nation to the Summit of Glory, your Majesty's wise Councils have improved them, to obtain, for your happy Subjects, the more solid and durable Advantages, of augmented Commerce and extended Empire. A Peace which not only fully insures to us all the Objects for which we fought, but has also secured to us, most important Acquisitions in every Part of the Globe, could not but meet with the warmest Approbation of both your Majesty's Houses of Parliament, and becomes still more welcome, to the whole Body of your People, who find, with grateful Pleasure, many important Points more firmly established in Favour of this Country, by the Definitive Treaty, than they were by the Preliminaries; and who cannot but be sensible how much they owe to your Majesty for extricating them from Dangers and Distresses, which the Glare of Success could no longer conceal, and for closing a bloody and expensive War, before the fatal Moment was come, when we should have known, too late, that Conquests may be purchased too dear, if they cannot be acquired without depopulating our Country, and loading Posterity with an enormous, and almost irredeemable Debt. While we presume to applaud your Majesty's paternal Wisdom, thus nobly and effectually displayed, by putting so honorable a period to the War, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to give full Scope to our Joy, by looking forward to those domestic Blessings, which, on the happy Establishment of Peace, we may expect from the Virtues of a Prince, who, anticipating the Wishes of those who feel for the public Distresses, has most graciously been pleased to be the first Proposer of a Plan to remove them, by recommending from the Throne, that public Economy, which our multiplied Incumbrances render necessary to be adopted, and an universal and invariable Adherence to which can alone preserve the Greatness, the Independence, and the Liberties of Great Britain.

Happy, as we are in indulging such pleasing Prospects, it is our ardent Wish, and constant Prayer, that your Majesty may be long preserved to complete the Happiness of your faithful and united Subjects, by employing that Peace which you have established (and which, we trust, will be as permanent, as it is honourable) to perfect the great Work of national Reformation: A Work which will fill up the Measure of your Glory, and distinguish your Majesty's Reign, as much for strengthening the Foundations of the British Constitution, as it has been already distinguished for enlarging the Bounds of the British Empire.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, having been transmitted by Sir James Lowther, Bart. to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled, beg Leave hereby to testify our grateful Acknowledgement of your Majesty's paternal Tenderness, in stopping the Effusion of the Blood and Treasure of your Subjects, as soon as the End of Warfare was effectually obtained. Our inveterate and most powerful Enemies have been feelingly taught, that no Person, or State, under your Majesty's Protection, can be injured with Impunity. New and considerable Territories have moreover been acquired to these Kingdoms, and a durable Barrier of Property established.

This Blessing of Peace, and these advantageous Conditions of it, are owing evidently to your Majesty's Conduct and Resolution. It is our Duty to return your Majesty our particular Thanks for such Benefits; and it is our Interest to pray, that a Monarch, who can so well support the Honour of His Crown, and the Welfare of His People, may happily and long reign over us.

Given under the Seal of the said City of Carlisle, the Seventh Day of March, in the Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, having been transmitted by Sir James Lowther, Bart. to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, having had frequent Occasion to felicitate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms, do now with an Increase of Joy, approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations, upon the happy Fruits of your Glorious Victories, a Safe and Honourable Peace.

It has common been the Fate of the greatest Conquerors, that from the Want of Moderation in Setting fit Bounds to their Conquests, the Glory of their Victories hath been allayed by the Vicissitudes of War; or through a Defect of Prudence in Directing the Issues of them to a proper End, their most illustrious Triumphs have produced no other Effects than the most detestable Scenes of unavailing Slaughter and Desolation, in which their Subjects and their Enemies have been equally involved. But your Majesty, amidst the Tumults of War, ever attentive to the Blessings of Peace, hath displayed the greatest Goodness, joined to the most consummate Wisdom, in improving the favourable Crisis, by cultivating the first Dawnings of a Pacific Disposition, into which your Enemies had been awed by the Splendor and Rapidity of your Victories, and making it productive of Peace equally beneficial to your Subjects and to your Allies.

When we consider the Power of your Enemies, who had already in their Imaginations possessed the Dominions of your Allies, it gives us the highest Idea of the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Valour of your Arms, which, by your timely and powerful Support, could so alter the Face of Affairs, Affairs, as to make them gladly consent to exchange their Dreams of Conquest Abroad for Security at Home.

We are struck with Astonishment when we see a Confederacy of Two most powerful Kingdoms, which in the Beginning of the present Century was able for so many Years to withstand the united Force of the principal Powers of Europe, utterly frustrated in the Course of the last glorious Year by the sole Valour of your Majesty's Forces, animated by the Wisdom of your Councils; and their ambitious Monarchs reduced to the Necessity of purchasing Peace by the Cession of their most valuable Settlements. As this is an Event which reflects a distinguished Glory upon these Kingdoms, so it calls for the warmest Returns of Gratitude to your Majesty, to whose wise and vigorous Administration, under Heaven, it is principally owing. Nor is the Peace procured by your Majesty's Wisdom more glorious than beneficial to these Kingdoms. Those immense Tracts of Country, which have been ceded by the Enemy, are highly valuable, not only as they add Security to our former Settlements, but also as they open new Sources of Wealth, and afford a certain Prospect of the Increase of our Naval Strength and Commerce in succeeding Ages.

Their beneficial Effects of your Majesty's wise and auspicious Government, raise your Majesty to the most elevated Pitch of temporal Glory, and scarce leave Room for our warmest Affections to wish any other Accession to it, but that you may long share your present Felicity with our most gracious Queen your Royal Consort; and that when, mature in Years and Glory, your Majesties shall be advanced, by the merciful Providence of God, to an immortal Crown, you may have the Comfort of transmitting the Imperial Scepter of these Kingdoms to the Prince of Wales (whose auspicious Birth crowns all the other Blessings of this glorious Year) and through him in Succession to your Descendants to the remotest Periods of Time.

The following Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Cocker-mouth, having been transmitted by Sir James Lowther, Bart. to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Cocker-mouth, your ever faithful and affectionate Subjects, beg Leave thankfully to acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness, and the Wisdom of your Measures for the Restoration of public Tranquility. The Motives for entering into the late War were on the Part of this Kingdom just and laudable; and the Expectations of your People have been fully answered.

By your Majesty's efficacious Dispositions, and the Valour of your Forces, your Subjects and Allies have been relieved from Oppression, the Oppressors have been punished, and a stable Foundation is now laid for future Quiet and Security.

This Blessing of Peace, though attended with peculiar and valuable Advantages to Great Britain, is not singly confined to it; but through your Majesty's Humanity and Influence is extended to Nations, variously denominated, in all Quarters of the Globe.

To wish your Majesty greater Glory would be vain; but it befits every Person under your Protection to pray, and to endeavour that your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruit of this Universal Union, as a Recompence due to Universal Benevolence.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Appleby, having been transmitted by Sir James Lowther, Bart. to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

THE Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Appleby, truly sensible of the Benefits daily resulting from your Majesty's auspicious Government, most sincerely tender to your Majesty their Thanks, in particular, from a late signal Instance of Love to your Country. The Termination of a War, conducted with Wisdom and maintained with Valour, by Conditions glorious to your Majesty, and highly advantageous to your Subjects, afford a Prospect of Happiness to these Kingdoms unknown to former Ages. This Peace, thus honourable, and thus beneficial, promises also Duration, since no Foreign Prince will dare to offend a Nation so able to chastise. May Harmony and Concord at Home compleat this good Work; and may these Islands shew forth an eminent and a lasting Example, how well the Services of an affectionate King can be repaid by the Services of an affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Town-hall, the Fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and sixty three.

Copenhagen, April 2. Orders are sent to the Troops, that were left cantoned in Hólstéin, to return to their ancient Quarters. Accordingly, the Norwegians are Marching towards the Extremity of Jutland to embark for their native Country; and those, which belong to this Garrison, are actually upon the Road hither, and are expected by the Middle of this Month.

Last Thursday being the King of Denmark's Birthday, his Majesty gave the Order of the Elephant to Counts St. Germain and Lynar, the Prince of Souderbourg, M. Thott, M. Pless, and M. Benzen: At the same Time Ten Knights of the Order of Dannebrock were made, among whom is Count Bothmar, the Danish Minister at London.

Translation.

Hague, April 8.

Extract from the Register of the Resolutions of their High Mightinesses the States General of the United Provinces, Friday, April 8, 1763.

M. Van Borsele, President at the Assembly, hath represented and notified to their High Mightinesses, that Sir Joseph Yorke, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, had been with him, and had told him, that the British Troops being now all gone from hence, he thought himself obliged to thank their High Mightinesses once more, for having granted to those Troops a Passage through the Territories of the State, as also for the particular Care which those, whom the States had intrusted with the Direction of it, had applied in all Respects to every thing which regarded the said Troops, so as to merit the Praises and Approbation of every one, and that he the Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary was persuaded that His Majesty would be extremely satisfied therewith.

Whereupon, after Deliberation had thereupon, it has been judged proper and resolved to desire, by these Presents, the aforesaid M. Van Borsele, President at the Assembly, to thank the before-mentioned Sir Joseph Yorke, in the Name of their High Mightinesses, for his above-mentioned friendly Declaration, and to testify that it was most agreeable to their High Mightinesses to have had this Opportunity of giving His Majesty this Proof of their Respect and Deference.—That the British Troops, during their Passage through this country, have observed such good Order, maintained so exact a Discipline, and paid for every thing with so great Punctuality, that there has not only not been the least Complaint laid to their Charge (which otherwise is almost unavoidable in like Cases) but that even the Inhabitants of all the Places, through which those Troops passed, have shown the greatest Satisfaction, Satisfaction in their Behaviour. That this ought, above all, to be attributed to the good Orders given by General Conway and the other Officers, who conducted the said Troops; and that their High Mightinesses desire the Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary will be pleased to report the same to His Majesty, and to assure Him that they are extremely pleased with the Conduct of the said Troops, and with that which the said General and other Officers have held on this Occasion, and that they shall have nothing more at Heart than to give, for the future, on all Occasions that may offer, Proofs of their true and sincere Sentiments of Esteem for His Majesty, and for His Friendship.

And an Extract of this Resolution of their High Mightinesses shall be sent to the Count of Welden, Envoy Extraordinary of their High Mightinesses at the Court of Great Britain, to serve for his Instruction, and in order that he may also, on proper Occasions, give the same Assurances.

It agrees with the above-mentioned Register.

Hague, April 12. The Prince of Orange has continued mending daily; and he is now declared by His Physicians to be out of Danger.

The new French Ambassador to the States-General, the Marquis d'Havrincourt, is expected here in the Beginning of June.

Whitehall, April 16, 1763.

On Thursday Night, Lieutenant Colonel Scott arrived with the following Letter to the Earl of Egremont, from Brigadier General Draper, who also arrived himself about the same Time.

Manila, November 2, 1762.

My Lord,

I Do myself the Honour of sending Lieutenant Colonel Scott, late Adjutant-General, to inform your Lordship of the Success of His Majesty's Arms in the Conquest of Manila, the Surrender of the Port of Cavite, and the Cession of the Philippine Islands.

On the 6th of October we took the Capital by Storm, after 12 Days Operation, which are detailed in my Journal. Our Loss upon this Occasion would have been trifling, but for the Death of Major More, a valiant good Officer; and it is with particular Satisfaction I can assure your Lordship, that the firm Bravery and Perseverance of the Troops could only be equalled by their Humanity after Victory. Out of Respect and Deference to Admiral Cornish, we waited till he came on Shore, and, being desirous to save so fine a City from Destruction, we jointly dictated the annexed Conditions to the Governor General (the Archbishop), and the chief Magistrates, who most readily embraced them.

Considering their critical Situation, and vast Opulence, the Terms were as reasonable for them as beneficial to us. We allow the India Company a third Part of the Ransom, the Whole of which amounts to a Million Sterling; and, according to my Instructions, I have this Day delivered up Manila, one of the richest Cities and Islands in this Part of the World, with the Port of Cavite, to Dawson Drake, Esq; and the other Gentlemen appointed to receive them on Behalf of the Company, with all the Artillery, Ammunition, and warlike Stores found therein, agreeable to the inclosed Inventories.

I have appointed Major Fell of the 79th Regiment to be Commandant of the Garrison, which must consist of all the Troops brought from Madras, as the great Extent of the Place, it's very numerous Inhabitants, an unsettled Country, with the Importance of the Cavite, demand at least this Force for an effectual Security.

The Season of the Year, and Condition of the Squadron, oblige us to defer the taking Possession of the subordinate Places ceded to the Crown, until the Ships have had a sufficient Repair; and I have the Pleasure to acquaint your Lordship, that the large Quantity of Naval Stores taken in the Royal Magazines at Cavite, supply most excellent Materials for this Purpose, in which the Admiral is indefatigable, whose Zeal for His Majesty's Service, great Cordiality, and constant Attention to us during the whole Course of the Expedition, and fatiguing Progress of the Siege, are beyond all Praise. The other Officers of the Fleet exerted themselves to the utmost upon every Occasion. As a small Acknowledgment of our many Obligations to Mr. Kemperfeldt, the Admiral's Captain, I begged his Acceptance of the Government of the Citadel and Port of Cavite, till it was given up to the Company, his prudent and excellent Regulations, there, were of infinite Utility to the Public Service.

The Captains Collins, Pitchford and George Ourry, who commanded the Battalion of Seamen, behaved with great Spirit and Conduct, and Captain Jocelyn, who was entrusted with the Care of the Disembarkations, gave us all the Assistance that could be wished or expected from a diligent good Officer. The Marine Officers and Corps were of great Service, and the Seamen astonished us with most extraordinary Proofs of Activity and Valour, particularly those who assisted at our Batteries.

The Reduction of Manila has been so much owing to the consummate Skill and Bravery of Colonel Monson, that I fear my faint Representations cannot do Justice to his Merits; and I most humbly beg Leave, through your Lordship, to recommend him to His Majesty, together with the following Officers, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Scott, Major Parker who commanded our Artillery; Captain Fletcher, Major of Brigade; the Engineers Captains Stevenfon and Cotsford, and Ensign Barnard; the Captains Moore and Pemble, Aides de Camp, who have all acted in their several Departments with extraordinary Merit, and greatly facilitated my good Fortune. Both the Royal and the Company's Artillery, with their other Troops, behaved very well. In the last Place, may I presume to point out the Services of the 79th Regiment, which, from the good Conduct of their former and present Field-Officers, has the peculiar Merit of having first stopped the Progress of the French in India, and not a little contributed to the happy Turn and Decision of that War under Colonel Coote, and has since extended the Glory of His Majesty's Arms to the utmost Verge of Asia. Twenty-three Officers, with upwards of 800 Men, have fallen, in the Cause of their Country, since the Regiment left England: Numbers of the Survivors are wounded. Your Lordship's Goodness encourages me to mention them as Objects of Compassion and Protection. Captain Fletcher has nine Colours to lay at His Majesty's Feet.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

William Daper,

Brigadier General, and Commander in Chief.

Dr. ANDERSON'S, or The Famous SCOT'S PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mules Agent, Dr. Anderson's Head berwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epfom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES'S Powder or FEVERS,

and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

BY THE KING'S PATENT, bearing Date the First of September, 1761.

THE IMPERIAL LOTION, being

a Chymical Preparation, the wonderful Qualities of which, by an outward Application, are to extract and expel any Injury or Infection received upon Coition with Persons having the Venereal Disease. Price 10s. 6d. the Bottle. One Bottle will preserve a Person for many Months, and although he has carnal Knowledge of many unclean Persons, he cannot possibly receive any Injury. There is no Occasion to expatiate upon the Use and Happiness of such a Discovery, as all the attendant dreadful Consequences of this Disorder, so fatal to many, by proper Application hereof, may now be prevented, and the Lives and Health of many Thousands preserved by it.

Alfo, The Admirable ESSENCE OF LIFE, being Chymical Drops, which are an absolute and infallible Cure for Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds, and all Manner of Inward Decays; the Like of which for Certainty in those difficult Cases has never been equalled. Price 6s. the Bottle. By the Author's Appointment these most excellent Medicines are to be had at Mr. JACKSON'S Medicinal Warehouse, Fleet-Market, London, and at Mr. Carr's, Bookseller, in Portsmouth, where a Treatise on these powerful Remedies may be had gratis, with plain Instructions, by the Use of which, every Person may preserve and cure himself, even in the worst Cases, without much Trouble, or any further Advice whatever.
