

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 29; to Tuesday February 1, 1774.

Naples, December 28.

WE have Accounts of the Arrival of Count Corofa at Palermo, with two Battalions confifing of about Seven Hundred Men; and that he has been well received and lodged in the City, but that the Maeftranza are not inclined to give Admittance to the Troops, fo that they are quartered in the Suburbs. It is faid that the Burghers, unlefs compelled by Force, will not give up their ancient Privilege of guarding the City of Palermo, nor fuffer the Duke Fogliani's Return thither: They continue to call loudly for Ratification of the Indulto granted them by the Archbifhop; and as they are faid to amount to twenty thousand armed men, it may require Time to reduce them to Obedience.

Vienna, January 15. We have had To-day, about half an Hour after One o'Clock in the Afternoon, two very smart Shocks of an Earthquake, which were felt in almoft every Houfe in Vienna, but without caufing any Damage, as we have yet heard. The Weather was calm and pleafant; and a gentle Thaw, with Sunfhine.
