From Tuesday November 10, to Saturday November 14, 1778.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th Day of November, 1778,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Lord Viscount, Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath laid before this Board an Extract of a Letter from Sir William Hamilton, His Majesty's Envoy at Naples, giving Information, That that Government, justly alarmed by the Accounts of the Plague raging violently at Smyrna, and in several Islands of the Archipelago, and of it's having passed Salonica, have augmented their Quarantine, and taken other Precautions to prevent it's coming into that Kingdom; His Majesty this Day took the same into Consideration; and although it appeared that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time subsisting, by Orders of this Board, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, (except those coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, Minorca or Gibraltar); yet His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary, upon this Occasion, to cause the said Orders to be enforced and extended; and to that End, His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby order, require and command, that the said Quarantine be enforced; and that all the Officers, appointed for the Service of Quarantine, do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually and strictly observed and carried into Execution: And His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, require and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from Minorca or Gibraltar, and all Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, [that are already arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days; and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

EXTRACTS of Dispatches from Vice-Admiral Montagu, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Newfoundland, to Mr. Stephens, received by the Hawke Sloop, lately arrived from that Island at Spithead.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Montagu to Mr. Stephens, dated at St. John's, Newfoundland, October 5, 1778.

FOR the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, I beg to acquaint you, that as soon as I received certain Intelligence that Hostilities were commenced by Count D'Estaing in North America, I dispatched Commodore Evans in the Romney, with the Pallas, Surprise, Martin, and Bonavitta Armed Sloop, under his Command, with 2 Field-Pieces, a Party of Artillery, and 200 Marines under the Command of Major Wemys, to put in Execution His Majesty's Commands to me (under His Sign Manual) to attack, reduce, and take Possession of the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon; which Service, I have the Honour to acquaint their Lordships, he has performed; and enclosed I transmit you a Copy of the Commodore's Letter to me of the 17th ult. since which I have not heard from him, owing to the very thick Fogs and Easterly Winds, which have prevailed these Three Weeks past. As soon as I can get a particular Account from the Commodore I will dispatch the Hawke with it.

Captain Linzee, of the Surprise, returned from the Coast of Labrador on the 9th ult. He was too late on the Coast for the Privateer he went after, but on his Way back took a Schooner Privateer of 10 Three-pounders, 8 Swivels, and 40 Men, in Trinity Bay, called the Harlequin, belonging to Salem, which I have bought into the Service.

Extract of a Letter from Commodore Evans to Vice-Admiral Montagu, dated St. Peter's Roar, September 17, 1778.

I ARRIVED here the 14th Instant, with His Majesty's Ships under my Command, and immediately sent Captain Montagu to the Governor, to acquaint him, that as the French had committed Hostilities in America, I came here to demand a Surrender of the Island of St. Peter's, Miquelon, and its Dependencies, to His Britannic Majesty, and demanded an Answer in Half an Hour.

The Governor sent the inclosed Proposals, to which I returned the Answer also inclosed, and sent Captain King of the Pallas, and Major Wemys, with 117 Marines and a Party of Artillery, to take Possession of the Place, which was immediately delivered up to them.

I have not yet been able to get an exact Return of the Arms and Ammunition in the Islands; but the Number of Inhabitants is said to be about 3000, the greater Part of them capable of bearing Arms.

I have dispatched the Bonavitta Sloop to Halifax, agreeable to your Order, to desire a Number of Transports may be sent here to carry the Inhabitants to France, there being here only two Brigs; one Snow, and a few small Schooners; and the Scarcity of Provisions in the Islands will not admit of victualling properly even the few Inhabitants they can contain, neither are there any Water Casks here fit to hold Water in: However, I propose to send away the Governor, his Council, Troops, and principal Inhabitants, in the Vessels that are here, as soon as possible; but to accomplish that will require more Time than was expected.

I shall destroy all the Fishing-Stages, Store-Houses and Shallops, and the Houses in the Town, as the Inhabitants embark from them.

I shall send Captain Chamberlayne, of His Majesty's Sloop Martin, to Miquelon To-night,

If the Wind will permit, to send round the Civil and Military Officers to be embarked with the Governor for France, when a Vessel can be got ready.

Copy of a Letter from the Baron de L'Esperance to Commodore Evans, dated at St. Peter's, Sept. 14, 1778.

IT is with the greatest Surprize I have received from you a Summons to deliver up this Government into the Possession of His Britannick Majesty, not having received Advice of a Declaration of War between the two Nations, from my Court. The formidable Force you have brought with you, knowing I had it not in my Power to oppose it, obliges me to condescend to your Summons, on Condition, that myself and the small Garrison shall quit with all the Honours of War, as the Officer who brought your Orders has promised.

I flatter myself I may expect from your Generosity every Thing that is in your Power to grant to the unfortunate Inhabitants under my Care.

In Consequence of which, Sir, I demand, First, That all the Attention in your Power may be paid to the Officers in the Civil and Military Departments in my Government: Secondly, That the Inhabitants shall take away their Effects from their Houses, and also their Fish; and that they shall be sent to France in a sufficient Number of Transports, that there may be no Risk of their perishing before their Arrival. Thirdly, That we shall enjoy the Exercise of our Religion during our Stay in the Colony. Fourthly, That the small Number of Vessels in these Islands shall remain the Property of their respective Proprietors. Lastly, Sir, I expect you will take Care to place proper Guards to prevent any Insults to my People. In Proof of my Condescension to your Demand, I send you Three Hostages, viz. Monf. D'Angeac de la Loge, Second Captain of the Troops, Bertin, Officer of the Government, and Des Roches, a principal Inhabitant.

Nothing but the Appearance of such a Squadron could have obliged me to consent to your Summons, which I do in order to spare the Blood of my Colonists, not fearing for myself, had I only the Feelings as an Officer to consult.

P. S. I dare hope that you will grant every Thing I ask, and send an Answer.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Evans, to the Baron de L'Esperance, dated St. John's Road the 15th Sept. 1778.

IN answer to your Letter of Yesterday, by the Officer whom I sent to you, to summon you to surrender the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, to His Britannic Majesty, which you have thought proper to do, under particular Articles; agreeable to your Request, the Troops shall be permitted to march out of the Town with all the Honours of War; the Officers, Civil and Military, and the other Inhabitants of the Town, may remain in their respective Houses, till an Opportunity offers of sending them to France.

There will be no Interruption in the Exercise of their Religion, and Care shall be taken that no Insults be given them.

In Consideration of my granting you these Terms, you shall upon your Honor give a true and faithful Account of the Number of Inhabitants, distinguishing their Sexes, with an Account of all Ordnance, Arms, Ammunition, and all other Warlike Stores; together with the Number of Vessels, Fishing-Boats, Fish, Oil, and other Merchandize, that are in the said Islands; all which shall be delivered up to such Officers as I may think proper to appoint to receive them, and to be disposed of in such Manner as I shall think proper. And the Inhabitants may be assured of all the Indulgence it may be in my Power to grant them, during their Stay on these Islands. I shall send a Detachment of Troops on the Island, when the Officer returns, who is charged with this Letter, and the Hostages will be delivered up as soon as English Colours will be hoisted at St. Peter's.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Montagu, to Mr. Stephens, dated St. John's, Oct. 16, 1778.

BY his Majesty's Ship Guadaloupe, that sailed from hence the 7th Instant, I did myself the honour to write you by Way of Lisbon, and enclosed you a Copy of Commodore Evans's Letter to me from St. Pierre's, of the 17th of September, with Copies of what had passed between him and the Governor of that Island, to that Time. Duplicates of which I transmitted the 8th Instant, by a Merchant Vessel bound to Ireland.

On the 11th Instant, the Commodore arrived here in His Majesty's Ship Romney, (not thinking it prudent to remain any longer with so large a Ship, in that Road, so late in the Season) and brought with him His Majesty's Ship, Pallas, a French Letter of Marque of 400 Tons, and a Snow, both from Bourdeaux, loaded with Provisions for St. Pierre and Miquelon. They both went into St. Pierre's Road, after the Place had surrendered.

I am now to inform you, that the Commodore has (in the Vessels he found at St. Pierre's) embarked the Governor and his Suite, with the Troops and all the principal Inhabitants, Women and Children, amounting in the Whole to 932, and sent them to France, before he left the Place; and as Transports were daily expected from Halifax, to take the Remainder of the Inhabitants (whom he supposes to be about 1000) he has left the Surprize and Martin to see them embarked, with Orders to destroy the Houses, Stores, &c. that were remaining.

Inclosed I transmit you an Account of the Fish and Oil found at St. Pierre's and Miquelon, together with the Number of Boats, and Small Arms, agreeable to the Return made to me by Commodore Evans.

No. I.

An Account of the Small Arms and Accoutrements found at St. Pierre's and Miquelon, belonging to the French King, viz.

John Barnes.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the following Houses and other Buildings in the Parish of West Lulworth in the County of Dorset have been several Times wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown; that is to say, on the 11th Day of September last the House and Shop belonging to Elizabeth Randall, and all the Stock in Trade consumed; on the 11th of October last the House of Mary Gregory, and Barn filled with Corn consumed; on the 12th of the same Month the House of Ann Rumsey, Barn filled with Corn, two Hay Ricks, and Smith's Shop, consumed; on the 5th of November last the Mail

House and Kiln of William Randall; on the 8th of November another House belonging to Ann Rumsey, and two Houses belonging to Samuel Bagwell: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offences, or any of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Houses and other Buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a farther Encouragement, Thomas Weld, Esq. doth hereby promise a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS, and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish of West Lulworth aforesaid do promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) the said Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, That, on the 5th and 9th of October last, a Number of Persons, with their Faces blacked, or Crapes over them, or otherwise disguised, to the Number of 80 or 100, with Fire Arms, Swords, and other offensive Weapons, did riotously and tumultuously assemble themselves on the High Road, and upon the uninclosed Part of the Link, in the Parish of Great Malvern in the County of Worcester, to the great Terror of the Passengers on that Road, and Persons in that Neighbourhood; and did then and there by Force and Violence cut down, burn and maliciously destroy all the Posts, Gates, and Rails, set up for the Purpose of inclosing that Part of the said Link which lies in the Parish of Leigh in the said County of Worcester, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament obtained for that Purpose; menacing Destruction to all that opposed them; and did also burn down a Barn; and one of them did wilfully and maliciously fire at a Person on the Road:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of these Offenders, (excepting the principal Proposer and Adviser of this mischievous Plan) who will surrender himself, within Three Months from the Date hereof, before any Magistrate in the County of Worcester, or in any neighbouring County, or before any Magistrate in the County of Middlesex, or City and Liberty of Westminster, and give such Information of this outrageous Offence, so that Two or more of his Accomplices may be convicted of the same,

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a farther Encouragement to such Person to surrender himself an Evidence as aforesaid, the Proprietors of those Lands will give to the Person so surrendering the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, on Conviction of Two or more of his Accomplices; and to any other Person not concerned in the said Offences making such Discovery, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, on such Conviction, to be paid by Mr. Lyttleton, Attorney, in Worcester.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Tuesday Morning the 20th Day of October last, an anonymous Threatening Letter was found in the Window of the Servants Hall in the Dwelling-house of Mrs. Watson, Widow of the late Samuel Watson, Esq; at Cottingham near Hull in Yorkshire, of which Letter the following is a Copy, viz.
