General Meeting, April 3, 1783.

Hampstead Aqueducts Office, No. 23, Denmark-street, St. Giles's.

WHEREAS the several Parties under-written, or their legal Representatives, are at this Time intitled to the underwritten Shares in this Undertaking, the Dividends whereon have hitherto been suspended in respect of their Omission or Refusal to pay the Call of 40s. per Share made on the general Concern the 19th of December, 1733. And whereas it now appears, that by Perception of Dividends on such Shares, the whole of such Call, with Interest, has been lately discharged, and that a small Balance is now remaining due on each Share. The several Proprietors under-named, or their legal personal Representatives, are therefore hereby apprized of such State of their Property in this Undertaking, and are requested to apply to Mr. Caleb Jeacocke, the Secretary, at his Office above, to liquidate and settle such Claims, and to receive the Balance thereon, and qualify themselves for the Reception of all future Dividends to become due in respect of such several Shares, viz. Lopes Melades, of London, Merchant, Seven Shares; Richard Sterne, of York, Esq; Fifteen Shares; Aaron Pacheco, of London, Merchant, Four Shares; Caleb Hook, of London, Merchant, One Share; Elizabeth Carey, of London, One Share; Isaac Alvan, of London, Merchant, One Share; Hannah Deffa, of London, Spinster, One Share.

And whereas there are Two Maiden or Honorary Shares in this Undertaking, the said General Meeting came to a Resolution to sell and dispose of the said Two Shares to the highest Bidder: They therefore hereby give this publick Notice, that the Committee are directed to sell and dispose of the said Two Shares to the highest Bidder at their next Meeting, on Wednesday the 23d Instant, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon, at their Office above-mentioned; and the Money arising from the Sale thereof to be paid to Mr. Caleb Jeacocke, their Treasurer, for the general Benefit of the whole Society.

By Order of the General Meeting,

Caleb Jeacocke.
