N. B. Peers, Peers Sons, and Privy Councillors, were likewise called over, and some attended.

At the Entrance of Westminster Abbey, within the Church, the Dean and Prebendaries, attended by the Choir, received the Body, falling into the Procession just before the Officer of Arms who conducted the Lord Chamberlain, and so proceeded into King Henry the Seventh's Chapel, where the Body was deposited on Treffels, the Head towards the Altar, the Coronet and Cushion being laid upon the Coffin, and the Canopy held over it, while the Service was read by the Dean of Westminster; the Chief Mourner and his Two Supporters sitting on Chairs at the Head of the Corpse, the Lords Assistants and Supporters of the Pall on Stools on either Side.

The Part of the Service before the Interment being read, the Corpse was deposited in the Vault; and the Dean having finished the Burial Service, Garter proclaimed his Royal Highness's Stile as follows:

Thus it hath pleased Almighty God to take out of this transitory Life unto His Divine Mercy, the late Most High, Most Mighty and Illustrious Prince HENRY FREDERICK, Duke of Cumberland and Strathern, Earl of Dublin, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, fourth Son of the late Most Illustrious Prince FREDERICK, Prince of Wales, deceased, and third Brother to His Most Excellent Majesty GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith; whom God bless and preserve with long Life, Health and Honour, and all Worldly Happiness.
