Whitehall, January 29.

THE King has been pleased to grant to John Cockburn, of Rowchester in the County of Berwick, Esq; and to such of his Issue as may come into Possession of certain Estates in the County of Ros, devised by the last Will of his Wife's Uncle, William Ros, late of Shandwick in the County of Ros, Esq; deceased, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and assume the Surname and bear the Arms of the Family of Ros of Shandwick, in Addition to his own Surname and Arms, in pursuance of the said last Will; such Arms being first exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Dublin Castle, January 22, 1791.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincere Expression of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family and Government.

Feeling the strongest Interest in every Event which affects our Gracious Sovereign, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we sincerely participate with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects in the Regret occasioned by the Loss of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; a Prince whose Virtues had justly endeared Him to all your Majesty's Subjects.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majesty for the Communication made to us from the Throne, that the Differences which had arisen between your Majesty and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination; and we beg Leave to make our grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for having been pleased to order Copies of the Declarations exchanged between your Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before us.

We rejoice that the Honor of your Crown, and the Protection of the Rights and Interests of the Empire, have been secured by the Wisdom of your Councils, without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace. Had the Pursuit of those Objects involved your Majesty's Kingdoms in the Calamities of War, we are persuaded your Majesty would have received the most active and zealous Support from your loyal and faithful Kingdom of Ireland.

We will immediately consider, and will endeavour to form, during this present Session, such Regulations as may tend to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue; a Measure which will facilitate the Business of Commerce, and in which the Ease of the Merchants is consulted.

We shall not fail to observe your Majesty's gracious Intimation of the Care due to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures of the Kingdom, and particularly the Linen Manufacture; and your Majesty may be assured that the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes, shall receive our accustomed Attention.

We sincerely thank your Majesty for continuing the Earl of Westmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, and have the fullest Reliance that the Peace, Happiness and Prosperity of this Country will continue to be firmly maintained under his Excellency's

Excellency's Administration: We gladly embrace this Opportunity of expressing our full Sense of those signal Blessings which this Kingdom has derived from your Majesty's auspicious Reign; and shall ever trust in your Majesty's Protection as a sure Foundation of the Happiness of your People.

W. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.
Edw. Gayer,

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty, and the warmest Expressions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

We avail ourselves of the first Opportunity to convey to your Majesty our Condolence at the great Loss your Majesty has sustained in the lamented Death of your Royal Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

We are grateful to your Majesty for the Communication which has been made to us, by your Royal Command, that the Differences between your Majesty and the Court of Spain have been terminated without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace; and for having been graciously pleased to order Copies of the Declarations exchanged between your Majesty's Ambassador, and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before us.

With peculiar Satisfaction we reflect on the Termination of those Differences, so happily accomplished by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that if the Honor of your Crown and the Rights of the Empire had involved your Kingdoms in the Calamities of War, your faithful People of Ireland would have stood forward, with their accustomed Loyalty and Zeal, to support your Majesty in the Maintenance and Protection of those important Objects.

We will cheerfully provide such Supplies as shall be found adequate for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of your Majesty's Government.

We are not insensible to that Regard for our Interests, which has induced your Majesty to direct our Attention to Regulations for simplifying the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue; and we shall endeavour to frame such Provisions as may be found most advantageous for the Ease of the Merchants, and the Facility of Commercial Business.

The Increase of our Agriculture, our Trade and Manufactures, and particularly our Linen Manufacture, must encourage our Exertions for their further Extension and Improvement; and we shall not remit our usual Attention to the Protestant Charter Schools, and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes.

We cannot but return our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for the Continuance of the Earl of Westmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, under whose judicious Administration the Nation is preserved in Tranquillity, and advancing in Wealth and Credit. We are confident he will at all Times make a just and favorable Representation of our Exertions in the National Service; and we are satisfied of his Excellency's unremitting Endeavors to fulfil your Majesty's most Gracious Commands, by contributing to the Happiness and Prosperity of Ireland.

Rob. Thoroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will immediately transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Excellency John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We receive with cordial Satisfaction the important Information which your Excellency has been pleased to communicate to us, by the King's Command, that the Differences which had arisen between His Majesty and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination; and we thank your Excellency for having directed Copies of the Declarations exchanged between His Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before us. We rejoice in the happy Effect of His Majesty's Exertions to maintain the Honor of His Crown, and to protect the Rights and Interests of the Empire; and we congratulate your Excellency on those Objects being accomplished without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace. Had His Majesty's Kingdoms been involved in the Calamities of War, we beg your Excellency to be assured that His Majesty would have received from His loyal People of Ireland the most zealous and decided Support.

Your Excellency's Desire to facilitate the Business of Commerce, and to consult the Ease of the Merchants, demands our warmest Thanks. We will not fail to consider, and endeavour to accomplish during this Session, such Regulations as may tend to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue.

We will not remit our Care of the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and particularly of the Linen Manufacture; and we will direct our Attention to the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes.

We acknowledge our high Obligations to your Excellency for the Interest you take in the Welfare of this Kingdom; and we are peculiarly sensible of His Majesty's Goodness in the Continuance of your Excellency in the Government of this Country, under whose Administration our Agriculture, Trade, and Manufactures have increased; and, fully persuaded of the Honor and Integrity of your Excellency's Character, we can safely rely on your faithful Representation of those Sentiments of Loyalty,
Zeal

Zeal and Attachment, which will ever distinguish His Majesty's faithful People of Ireland.

W. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.
Edw. Gayer, }

His Excellency's Answer.

I Return you my sincere Thanks for this obliging Address. Your Confidence strengthens my Exertions for the Public Service; and I shall endeavour to preserve your good Opinion, by directing my Conduct to every Object which may promote the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our cordial Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us Copies of the Declarations exchanged between His Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, which has so happily brought to an amicable Termination the Differences which had arisen between His Majesty and the Court of Spain; and we partake sincerely of the Pleasure which your Excellency feels in communicating this satisfactory Intelligence.

We assure your Excellency, that you have not entertained an unfounded Confidence in our firm Determination to have afforded to His Majesty the most vigorous and effectual Support, if it had been necessary to resort to Arms for protecting the common Rights and Interests of the Empire, and for maintaining the Honor of His Majesty's Crown; at the same Time we acknowledge the Wisdom of those Councils, which have accomplished these important Objects without any Interruption of the Blessings of Peace.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered the National Accounts to be laid before us: We shall cheerfully provide for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of His Majesty's Government.

We are also to make our Acknowledgments to your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us the Account of the extraordinary Expences incurred during the late Negotiation with the Court of Spain; and we shall readily provide for those Expences, satisfied that the Confidence reposed in your Excellency has not been misplaced.

It is a decided Proof of your Excellency's Attention to our Interests, that you have recommended to us to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of Public Revenue: We shall engage in this Subject with Alacrity, and shall hope to accomplish your Excellency's wise Intentions, by facilitating the Dispatch of Commercial Business, and consulting the Ease and Convenience of the Merchants.

We will not fail in our usual Attention to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, and to the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes.

From a fuller Acquaintance with your Excellency's public and private Virtues, we look forward with the sincerest Pleasure to the Continuance of your Residence in this Kingdom. We are sensible of your Wishes for it's Interests, and of your Anxiety to promote them; and, grateful for the Advantages we enjoy under your Excellency's wise Administration, we shall persevere in our Exertions for His Majesty's Service, and the Ease and Honor of your Government.

Rob. Theobald, Cler. Parl. Dom Com.

His Excellency's Answer.

I Request you to accept my best Thanks for this very honorable Testimony of your good Opinion. I will strenuously endeavor to merit a Continuance of your Confidence, and to prove by my Conduct the Sincerity of my Wishes for the Prosperity of Ireland.
