

Zeal and Attachment, which will ever distinguish His Majesty's faithful People of Ireland.

W. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.
Edw. Gayer, }

His Excellency's Answer.

I Return you my sincere Thanks for this obliging Address. Your Confidence strengthens my Exertions for the Public Service; and I shall endeavour to preserve your good Opinion, by directing my Conduct to every Object which may promote the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Earl of Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our cordial Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us Copies of the Declarations exchanged between His Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, which has so happily brought to an amicable Termination the Differences which had arisen between His Majesty and the Court of Spain; and we partake sincerely of the Pleasure which your Excellency feels in communicating this satisfactory Intelligence.

We assure your Excellency, that you have not entertained an unfounded Confidence in our firm Determination to have afforded to His Majesty the most vigorous and effectual Support, if it had been necessary to resort to Arms for protecting the common Rights and Interests of the Empire, and for maintaining the Honor of His Majesty's Crown; at the same Time we acknowledge the Wisdom of those Councils, which have accomplished these important Objects without any Interruption of the Blessings of Peace.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered the National Accounts to be laid before us: We shall cheerfully provide for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of His Majesty's Government.

We are also to make our Acknowledgments to your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us the Account of the extraordinary Expences incurred during the late Negotiation with the Court of Spain; and we shall readily provide for those Expences, satisfied that the Confidence reposed in your Excellency has not been misplaced.

It is a decided Proof of your Excellency's Attention to our Interests, that you have recommended to us to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of Public Revenue: We shall engage in this Subject with Alacrity, and shall hope to accomplish your Excellency's wise Intentions, by facilitating the Dispatch of Commercial Business, and consulting the Ease and Convenience of the Merchants.

We will not fail in our usual Attention to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, and to the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes.

From a fuller Acquaintance with your Excellency's public and private Virtues, we look forward with the sincerest Pleasure to the Continuance of your Residence in this Kingdom. We are sensible of your Wishes for it's Interests, and of your Anxiety to promote them; and, grateful for the Advantages we enjoy under your Excellency's wise Administration, we shall persevere in our Exertions for His Majesty's Service, and the Ease and Honor of your Government.

Rob. Theobald, Cler. Parl. Dom Com.

His Excellency's Answer.

I Request you to accept my best Thanks for this very honorable Testimony of your good Opinion. I will strenuously endeavor to merit a Continuance of your Confidence, and to prove by my Conduct the Sincerity of my Wishes for the Prosperity of Ireland.

Dublin Castle, January 20, 1791.

His Majesty's Royal Letter is received, granting the Dignity of a Baron of this Kingdom to the Right Honourable Alleyne Fitz-Herbert, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, by the Name, Style and Title of Baron St. Helens; and Letters Patent are preparing to be passed under the Great Seal of this Kingdom accordingly.

Dublin Castle, January 21, 1791.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint the following Gentlemen to be High Sheriffs for the present Year.

County of Antrim, Richard Jervais Kerr, of Red Hall, Esq;

County of Monaghan, John James, of Brookville, Esq;

Admiralty-Office, January 27, 1791.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That the Good Intent, a Danish Galliot, whereof Jens Jengenson was Master, bound from Malaga to Ostend, laden with Wine and Fruit, was, on the 20th of this Month, driven on Shore and beaten to Pieces, at Bexhill, near Rye, in the County of Suffex.

Ph. Stephens.

Excise-Office, January 22, 1791.

BY Order of the Honourable Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue of Excise, on Thursday the 3d Day of February, 1791, will be exposed for Sale at the Excise-Office, Old Broad-street, London, several Quantities of Tobacco and Snuff, in 156 Lots, adapted to accommodate the various Descriptions of Purchasers. The Sale to commence at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely. To be viewed at the Tobacco Warehouse, Tower-hill, on Saturday the 29th of January and Tuesday the 1st Day of February, 1791, in Office Hours, and on the Morning of the Day of Sale till Twelve o'Clock, where Catalogues may be had, and of John Saunders, at the Excise-Office.

Marine Society's Office, January 23, 1791.

THE Annual General Court of the Governors of this Corporation will be held at their Office on Thursday the 3d of February, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon.

By Order of the Court,
John Newby, Sec.