JOHN Coryton, of the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, Esquire, Thomas Graham, of the same Place, Esquire, Henry Hawkins Tremayne, of Helligan in the same County, Clerk, and John Rashleigh, of Penquite in the same County, Esquire, Persons who have a Right to choose, nominate and appoint the Returning Officer of the said Borough, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That it appears to the Petitioners, by the Votes of the House of the Seventh Day of March last, that the Select Committee of this House who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of the Honourable Richard Edgcumbe, commonly called Lord Valletort, and Philip Rashleigh, Esquire, then before the House; and also another Petition of the Right Honourable Molyneux Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, Knight of the Bath; and also another Petition of John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevil Norway and Benjamin Bloomfield, of Fowey in the County of Cornwall aforesaid, being Persons who had a Right to vote at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, on Behalf of themselves and others who were at the said Election lawfully Electors for the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Double Return for the said Borough, did report to the House, That the Merits of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of choosing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer who was to make Return of such Election; and that thereupon the said Select Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of choosing; nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough, for which they respectively contended: That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Petitioners, Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Portreeve is the Returning Officer at Elections to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Fowey; the Portreeve for the said Borough is chosen or presented by the Homage at a Court holden for the said Manor of Fowey; usually soon after Michaelmas, by the Steward or the Deputy Steward of the Prince of Wales, Lord of the said Borough and Manor, in Right of his Duchy of Cornwall." That the Counsel for the said Petitioners, Lord Valletort and Philip Rashleigh, and also for the said Petitioners John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevil Norway and Benjamin Bloomfield, on Behalf of themselves and others, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Persons entitled to elect a Portreeve of the Borough of Fowey are those who are capable of holding that Office, that is, such Prince's Tenants only as have been duly admitted on the Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough, and have done their Fealty; and such Persons only are duly admitted whose Lands were anciently, and continue to be, held immediately of the Duke of Cornwall, as Parcel of his said Manor of the said Borough, and whose Titles to those Lands have been presented at a Court Baron by a sworn Homage, or a Jury of the said Freeholders of the said Borough." That the said Select Committee had duly considered of the said Statements; and the Evidence adduced before them, touching the Right of choosing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough of Fowey, and had determined, "That the Portreeve of the Borough of Fowey is the Returning Officer for the said Borough; and that it is necessary that such Returning Officer should be chosen or presented by a Homage or Jury of Prince's Tenants duly admitted on the Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough; and that Prince's Tenants, admitted by the Steward or Deputy Steward, at a Court holden in the said Manor, are duly admitted; and that the Presentment of the Homage is not necessary to such Admission." That the Petitioners conceive themselves to be greatly aggrieved by such Determination of the said Select Committee, and therefore pray, that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose that Right of choosing, nominating and appointing the Returning Officer of the said Borough, who is to make Return of Members elected for the said Borough, which has been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, and so reported by them as aforesaid to the House. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Wednesday the Fourteenth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

JAMES Martin Lloyd, Esquire, William Cooper, John Butcher, Thomas Sone, Siderick Elgar, Richard Jenner, Charles Groome, Thomas Newman, Richard Kemp, Edmund Streeter, William Sharp, Thomas Young, and John Batchelor the Younger, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That, by a late Resolution of a Select Committee of this House, appointed to try the Merits of the Petition of Sir John Honeywood, Baronet, and John Curtis, Esquire, complaining of an undue Election for the Borough of Steyning in the County of Suffex, and which, on the 7th Day of March last, was by them reported to the House, the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough is declared to be in the "Inhabitants of ancient Houses and Houses built on the Scites of ancient Houses, within the Borough of Steyning, being Householders, paying Scot and Lot, and not receiving Alms." That the Petitioners are not satisfied with the said Resolution, and are desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided; and therefore pray the House to take the Premises into Consideration, and grant the Petitioners such Relief therein as the House shall think fit. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Monday the Twelfth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

JOHN Walfh, Esquire, who claims to be an Elector of Representatives to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York, having this Day presented his Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That upon the Ninth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, the Select Committee, who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of Charles Mellish and John Anstruther, Esquires, and also the Petition of several other Persons, Freeholders of Burgage Tenure within the said Borough of Pontefract, and as such Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, reported to the House, that it appeared to the said Select Committee that the Merits of the said Petitions did wholly depend upon the Right of Election, and that therefore the said Committee had required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the said Charles Mellish and John Anstruther, and the said other Persons, delivered in a Statement respecting the Right of Election for the said Borough as follows: "That the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York is in Persons having within the said Borough a Freehold of Burgage Tenure, paying a Burgage Rent." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, John Smyth and William Sotheron, Esquires, also delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state the Right of Election for the Borough of Pontefract to be in the Inhabitants Householders Residents." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee reported, that they had determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the said Select Committee reported, that they had determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough of Pontefract." That the Petitioner is advised, and trusts he can maintain, that the judgment of the said Select Committee reported to the House, touching the different Rights of Election contained in the said Statements, is erroneous, and that the Right of Election, which hath been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough; and, to prevent the said Judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, the Petitioner prays that he may be admitted as a Party, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided, to oppose that Right of Election, in Favour of which the said Select Committee hath reported, as above set forth, and that he may have such further and other Relief in the Premises as to the House shall seem meet, and the Nature of his Case may require. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Monday the Nineteenth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

FURTHER AND INCONTESTIBLE PROOF OF THE EFFICACY OF THE

ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL.

Extract of a Letter from Cheshire, to Dr. B. Cornwell, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, London.

"SIR,

"I HAVE the fullest Satisfaction to inform you, that by the Blessing of God, and the Use of your excellent Oriental Cordial, my Son, who was afflicted with excruciating Pains in the Stomach and Bowels, Spring and Autumn, for Four Years, is most happily recovered; it is Ten Weeks since his Cure was effected, and no Relapse has taken Place. His torturing Pains were always attended with a violent Perspiration Day and Night. The Prescriptions of many learned Physicians were administered, which afforded only a temporary Relief, but by the Use of Six small Bottles of your Cordial (which caused him to void from his Stomach a large Quantity of thick Bile of a black Colour): This young Man, whose Age is only Twenty-one Years, was liberated from Pain and Torture, and restored to his Friend and the Community."

(Signed)

"Joshua Renshaw, "Ashton, Supermersey, Cheshire."

Dated Nov. 27, 1791.

The Cordial is a safe, pleasant and effectual Remedy in Bilious Complaints, violent Pain or Spasm of the Stomach or Bowels, Sicknefs, Vomiting, Flatulence and Acidities; as also in Lowness and Oppression of the Spirits. It braces the Nerves, recruits the Tone of the Stomach, and gives Vigour to the whole Animal Oeconomy: And from its salutary Effects has many Years been sanctioned by being admitted into general Practice.

Sold by Dr. Cornwell, at his House, No. 13, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, London, in Bottles of 5s. and 10s. 6d. each, including the Stamp, or the Quantity of Six Five Shilling Bottles in one for 1l. 3s. 6d. It is also sold by one respectable Person in most of the Cities and Towns in Great Britain, &c.

* * The Doctor may be consulted in all Cafes at his House in Conduit-street as heretofore.
