And to Three Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Cannot close the present Session of Parliament without returning you My particular Thanks for the Attention and Diligence with which you have applied yourselves to the Dispatch of Public Business, and especially to the important Objects which I recommended to your Consideration.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Readiness with which you have granted the necessary Supplies, and the fresh Proof which you have given of your constant Affection for My Person and Family in enabling Me to provide for the Establishment of My Son, the Duke of York, call for My warmest Acknowledgements: I have also observed, with the utmost Satisfaction, the Measures which you have adopted for the Diminution of the Public Burthens, while you have, at the same Time, made additional Provision for the Reduction of the present National Debt, and established a permanent System for preventing the dangerous Accumulation of Debt in future.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have seen with great Concern the Commencement of Hostilities in different Parts of Europe. In the present Situation of Affairs, it will be My principal Care to maintain that Harmony and good Understanding which subsists between Me and the several Belligerent Powers, and to preserve to My People the uninterrupted Blessings of Peace. And the Assurances which I receive from all Quarters of a friendly Disposition towards this Country, afford Me the pleasing Hope of succeeding in these Endeavours.

The recent Expressions of your uniform and zealous Attachment to the established Government and Constitution, leave Me no Room to doubt that you will, in your several Counties, be active and vigilant to maintain those Sentiments in the Minds of My faithful People; and I have the Happiness of receiving continued and additional Proofs of their just Sense of the numerous and increasing Advantages which they now enjoy under the Protection and distinguished Favour of Providence.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the Thirtieth Day of August next; to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Thirtieth Day of August next.
