P R E S E N T.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision for a limited Time without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, That from and after the passing of the said Act, and until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, whatever may be the general Average Price of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats or Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, from Time to Time, when and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time; the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively of any British or Foreign Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, and to permit generally the Importation into England or Scotland respectively of any Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also the taking out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, of any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and in like Manner to recal such Prohibition or Permission, either in Part or in the Whole, if Circumstances shall appear so to require, any Thing in an Act, passed in the 31st Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and another Act passed in the 33d Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the aforesaid Act, or in any other Act, or Part of any Act, to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions therein mentioned, and herein after contained.

His Majesty thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, has thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, until the 30th Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on Board any Ship or other Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof.

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from this Kingdom of any Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour that shall have been imported and warehoused in the

[Price Nine-pence.]

Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in the before mentioned Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and shall not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, nor to prevent the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, from this Kingdom, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Two Acts, passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places, as is allowed by the said Two Acts passed in the 31st and 33d Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at such Times as any of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, are prohibited to be exported, in consequence of the Provisions contained in the said Two Acts, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations and Restrictions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as are by the said Two Acts, or by either of them, in any such Case, required or imposed.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Date of this present Order, until the 30th Day of September next, it shall be lawful to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel, belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkenor.
