THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Role, Knt. the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly request Permission to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We cannot but feel the most lively Sentiments of Affection for a Princess blessed with every Endowment to adorn her exalted Station, and form the happiest Prefage, that the endearing Qualities of her Mind will be matured by the benign Influence of our most gracious Queen, whose eminent Example will be acknowledged and admired as long as Virtue can charm, or transcendent Worth command Imitation and Respect.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens of London confess, with the most grateful Emotions, the uniform and steady Regard which your Majesty has evinced for the future Interests of your People by this happy Alliance of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, devoted to the Protestant Cause, and anxious for the Maintenance of, those it's sacred Pillars, social Order and rational Freedom.

At the same Time that we look forward with Solicitude and Delight to the dearest Interests of our Posterity, we cannot be unmindful of our own immediate Joy upon this festive Occasion, because we have happily restored to us the fair Representative of a Princess nearly related to your Majesty, and thereby inheriting a Claim to that National Regard and Esteem which manifested itself in Regret at the Departure of her amiable Mother from these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Sire, earnestly to hope that your Majesty, under whose mild and gracious Government we have enjoyed the Privileges of our Fathers inviolate and secure, may have the Felicity to see Their Royal Highnesses experience every Blessing consequent upon this most propitious Event; and that your Majesty will believe the warm Assurances of the Citizens of London, uniformly and zealously to support your Majesty's Person, Crown and Family against all your Enemies.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for your Congratulations on this Occasion, and for those Sentiments of cordial Attachment to My Person, Family and Government, which I have uniformly experienced from My loyal City of London. Sensible as I am of the Blessings of our happy Constitution, you may rely upon My unremitting Exertions to preserve it inviolate to the latest Posterity.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, April 17.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London waited upon Her Majesty (being introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Role, Knt. the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the recent Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We felicitate ourselves sincerely on an Alliance which must form so intimate a Part of your Majesty's Happiness; more especially because your Majesty's Virtues will, we trust, be perpetuated to Ages yet unborn in the Person of an illustrious Princess, whose native Goodness cannot but admire them, and whose exalted Station can find no Model so perfect for Emulation.

The loyal Citizens of London, Madam, therefore feel it their Interest, as it is their Gratification, to indulge themselves in the sanguine Hope, that Her Royal Highness's most amiable Endowments may long contribute to your Majesty's domestic Felicity, and that the endearing Qualities of her Mind may long have the reciprocal Pleasure of contemplating your Majesty's eminent Example.

So shall this happy Nation, long accustomed to behold it's brightest Graces most conspicuous on the Throne, enjoy the Hope of this solid Advantage in Reversion for Posterity, that an equal Pattern of Royal Goodness is reserved for them to admire, and that they will regard with Gratitude this very happy Event.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this very dutiful and loyal Address of Congratulation on the Nuptials of the Prince of Wales, accompanied with such flattering Sentiments to Me personally.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

loyal Subjects; and we presume to take our Share in the general Expressions of Joy which pervade the whole Nation.

We implore God to shed his richest Blessings on this auspicious Marriage; and we offer up our most ardent Prayers to Him, that this Union may be productive of the same Happiness to future Generations, with that which we enjoy in the fullest Manner under your Majesty's gracious Protection.

This being done, the Ambassador rose up, and His Majesty was graciously pleased to congratulate him on this distinguished Mark of his Sovereign's Approbation. His Excellency then returned his Thanks, in the most respectful Manner, to His Majesty; and, withdrawing from the Royal Closet, received the Compliments of the Great Officers and other Persons of Distinction present.

Admiralty Office, April 18.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Colpoys to Mr. Nepean, dated on Board His Majesty's Ship London, at Spithead, the 16th of April, 1795.

PLEASE to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of my Arrival here with His Majesty's Ships under my Command:

That on the 29th of March Le Jean-Bart, a French Corvette, of 20 Guns and 120 Men, bound to Brest, was captured by His Majesty's Ships Cerberus and Santa Margareta; she had been charged with Dispatches from the French Minister in America:

That on the 30th of March the Robust recaptured the Caldicott Castle, of Chepstow, from Barcelona, bound to Guernsey; she was taken on the 18th of March, off Cape St. Vincent's, by Six French Ships of the Line, Two Frigates and a Corvette:

That on the 10th Instant we discovered and gave Chace to Three French Frigates, which soon shaped different Courses. I made the Signal for the Hannibal and Robust to follow the Two which pointed most to the Westward. The Astrea, Lord Henry Powlett, with his accustomed Promptitude and Attention, kept after the largest and seemingly best goer of the Three, with which he closed about Ten o'Clock at Night, and obliged her to surrender, after a well-fought Action of 58 Minutes, which does great Credit to his Lordship's good Conduct, as well as the Discipline of his Officers and Ship's Company. The Particulars I transmit in a Copy of his Lordship's Letter to me, which accompanies this.

P. S. The Robust joined me off the Isle of Wight. Captain Thornbrough reports that La Gentille, of 40 Guns, was taken on Saturday last by the Hannibal, but that La Fraternité escaped.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Henry Powlett, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Astrea, to Rear-Admiral Colpoys, dated at Sea, the 11th of April, 1795. Lat. 49 deg. 30 min. N. Long. 10 deg. 46 min. W.

S I R,

IN Obedience to your Signal from the London, Yesterday Morning, I gave Chace to the North-West, and at Ten o'Clock at Night came up with and engaged La Gloire, French National Frigate, mounting 26 Twelve-Pounders on the Main Deck, 10 Six-Pounders and 4 Thirty-six-Pounder Carronades on the Quarter-Deck, and 2 Six-Pounders on the Fore-castle; having on Board 275 Men. After a close Action of 58 Minutes the fruck.

It is very satisfactory to me to be able to say, that I had no Person killed, and only Eight Men wounded; Three of them, I am sorry to add, are in some Danger. I am also very sorry to say that the Slaughter on Board the Enemy has been very considerable; the Killed and Wounded, from the best Accounts I have been able to collect, amounting to Forty: Among the latter is her Captain, Citizen Beens, who received a Contusion on the Head.—He seems to be an able, humane, and intelligent Officer.

I have sent Mr. Talbot, my First Lieutenant, on Board La Gloire, which will I hope meet your Approbation. I must not omit to mention the just Sense I entertain of his Services and good Conduct upon this Occasion; and it gives me the greatest Pleasure to add, that the Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company in general afforded me particular Satisfaction.

The Two Frigates, after which you dispatched His Majesty's Ships Hannibal and Robust, are exactly of the same Force with La Gloire. They had been Three Weeks out from Brest, and had made but One Capture, a small Spanish Brig.

I am, &c.

H. POWLETT.
