Extract of a Letter from Captain Sir Richard Sutherland, of His Majesty's Ship Melampus, dated Grosvenor Bay, Jersey, May 11, 1795, to Evan Nepean, Esq; Secretary of the Admiralty.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for their Lordship's Information, that Sir Sydney Smith, with the Ships under his Command, joined me on the 5th Instant at Noon. About Three o'Clock in the Morning of the 9th we discovered Thirteen Sail coming from the Northward along Shore. I made the Signal to weigh; the Squadron weighed and gave Chase, the Wind being off the Land, and the Enemy's Vessels running along Shore to the Southward. About Six o'Clock the Melampus got near enough to fire upon the headmost Vessels, but they all, except a Cutter, which escaped round Cape Carteret, (our Gun-Boats not being arrived at the Rendezvous) got close in Shore, under a small Battery, protected by their Armed Vessels, a Brig and Lagger. I made the Signal for the Boats to assemble on Board this Ship for the Purpose of boarding them, and worked the Melampus in to cover the Attack, soon followed by the other Ships as they came up, firing upon the Enemy's Battery and Gun-Vessels in Succession. The Enemy soon abandoned their Vessels, and the Boats of the Squadron boarded and got them all off, except One small Sloop, which was burnt, the Tide having left her. About this Time the Battery ceased to fire. I beg to take this Opportunity to acknowledge the Assistance I have received from the Zeal and Activity of the Captains under my Direction upon all Occasions, and particularly upon the present; and also to observe, that the Manner in which the Lieutenants of the different Ships boarded and brought off the Vessels of the Enemy does them infinite Honour as Officers, the First Lieutenant of the Melampus bearing a conspicuous Part; and the Boats Crews and different Ships Companies acted with their usual Courage.

The Accompanying is a List of the Killed and Wounded on Board the different Ships, and also a List of the Vessels of War and Convoy taken.

I have the Honor to be,

S I R,

Your most humble and obedient Servant,
R. J. STRACHAN.

THE following Address having been transmitted by His Excellency Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave to offer our humble and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

As Members of a Society placed more immediately under your Majesty's Patronage and Protection, and honoured with repeated Marks of your Royal Favour and Regard, particularly in the Instance of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Wishes of the University, on the late Vacancy of the Provostship, we embrace, with peculiar Pleasure, the Opportunity of expressing our Satisfaction at an Event which must contribute to encrease the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and furnishes additional Security for a Continuance of the Blessings which these Kingdoms have enjoyed under the auspicious Government of the House of Brunswick.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the Value of these Blessings and of that happy Constitution, which, in the present distracted State of Europe, continues to be the Boast and Security of these Nations. It is our ardent Prayer, that your Majesty's august Family may long be it's just and successful Guardians; a Prayer of which we rejoice to anticipate the Completion in the gracious Compliance of your Majesty and the Prince of Wales with the Wishes of all your Subjects, by the Alliance of His Royal Highness with an amiable Princess of the same illustrious House. Under a deep Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, we shall not cease, in Conjunction with a zealous Attachment to the Principles of our free and well-ordered Constitution, to cultivate the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

St. James's, May 16.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, ever desirous of manifesting our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the House of Brunswick.

It is with great Satisfaction we anticipate the Happiness of seeing the Succession to the Crown of these Realms secured in that illustrious Line.

May the Blessings this Country has enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign be delivered down to the latest Posterity.

The Royal Union, which has diffused so much Joy through every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, cannot fail to add to the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

May their Royal Highnesses long enjoy an uninterrupted Scene of Felicity, while their noble and amiable Qualities ensure the Affection of your Majesty's faithful People, and the universal Respect and Veneration due to their high Birth, Station and Dignity.

By Order of the Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, held the 9th of May, 1795.

Warmly interested from every Motive of Gratitude, as well as of Duty, in whatever can affect your Majesty's Happiness, we rejoice at an Event so congenial to your Majesty's Wishes; an Event which promises not only an Increase to your Majesty's and the Queen's domestic Felicity, but Stability to your Throne and Government, and a strong Security also to the Liberties, both Civil and Religious, of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects.

It is our most earnest Prayer and Wish, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort the Queen, the brightest and most illustrious Example for Imitation, may be long preserved a Blessing and a Glory to these Kingdoms; and that your Virtues may be transmitted to your Royal Descendants through all future Generations.

No single Letter sent by the Post from any Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private employed in His Majesty's Navy, Army, Militia, Fencible Regiments, Artillery or Marines, shall, whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than the Sum of One Penny for the Conveyance of each such Letter, such Postage to be paid at the Time of putting the same into the Post-Office of the Town or Place from whence such Letter is intended to be sent by the Post.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from Postage unless there shall be written thereon in the Hand-Writing of and signed by the Commanding Officer for the Time being of the Ship or Vessel, or of the Corps, Regiment, or Detachment to which such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private shall belong, the Name of such Commanding Officer, and of the Ship, Vessel, Corps, Regiment or Detachment commanded by him.

No single Letter, directed to any such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, upon his own private Concerns, only whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, shall be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than One Penny for each such Letter, which Penny shall be paid at the Time of the Delivery thereof.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from the Rates of Postage chargeable upon Letters, unless every such Letter shall be directed to such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, specifying the Ship, Vessel, Regiment, Troop, Corps, Company, or Detachment to which he may belong: And provided also that it shall not be lawful for the Deputy Postmaster of the Town or Place to which such Letter shall be sent to be delivered, to deliver such Letter to any Person, except to the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed, or to any Person appointed to receive the same by the Commanding Officer of the Ship, &c. to which the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed shall belong.

Every Packet or Cover containing therein, or having affixed thereto, one or more Paper or Papers, with Patterns, or one or more Pattern or Patterns of Cloth, Silk, Stuff, or other Goods, or one or more Sample or Samples of any other Sort of Thing, not exceeding together one Ounce in Weight, shall be charged with no higher Rate of Postage than as a single Letter, so as every such Packet or Cover shall be sent open at the Sides, and without any Letter or Writing in, upon, or with such Packet or Cover, other than the Name or Names of the Person or Persons sending the same, and the Place or Places of his or their Abode, and the Prices of the Articles contained therein, or affixed thereto.
