St. James's, May 28.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with an amiable Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick; an House from which has sprung a Race of Kings, under whose auspicious Government our National Liberty and Prosperity have been secured and encreased.

This important Event must at any Time have been interesting to us, as it flatters us with the pleasing Hope of having your Majesty's Royal Line extended down to the latest Posterity, and as it contributes to your domestick Happiness; but especially, in the present Period, have we seen, with the most unfeigned Joy, your Majesty's paternal Wishes so happily fulfilled by this auspicious Union, which, having diffused such universal Satisfaction through the whole Empire, gives your Majesty at once the amplest Proof that you possess, unimpaired, the warmest Affection of your Subjects, and the strongest Security that your Royal Family shall ever retain it.

But while we contemplate with Pleasure the encreased Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and the internal Happiness of your People, we cannot turn our Eyes on the present distracted State of Europe without the most anxious Solicitude, nor behold the vigorous Exertions of this Nation under your Majesty's Direction, without praying fervently, as the Servants of the God of Peace, that he may be pleased to bless with full and speedy Success the Energy of your Majesty's Counsels and Arms, for the Restoration of Publick Tranquillity; entertaining full Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom that no favourable Opportunity shall be lost in procuring the Blessings of a safe, honourable and lasting Peace.

That Almighty God may ever have your Majesty under his peculiar Care; that you may reign long and happily over a free and loyal People; that he may bless our gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family; that he may bless their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales with all domestick Felicity, and preserve them in the Paths of Religion and Virtue; and that a Race of Kings descended from them may sway the Sceptre of these Lands to the latest Ages, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

James Meek, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1795.

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour this Meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland was received with profound Respect and Gratitude.

It yields us the highest Satisfaction that our Conduct in discharging the important Trusts which have been reposed in us has received your Majesty's Approbation, and we rely with entire Confidence on your unalterable Resolution to maintain our National Church in the full and free Enjoyment of all her Rights and Privileges.

The hereditary and warm Attachment of the Earl of Leven to the Interests of Religion and good Government, his affectionate Regard to the Church of Scotland,

Scotland, his amiable Character, and exemplary Conduct in private Life, together with his approved Experience and Knowledge in the Duties of the high Office with which he is entrusted, render the Re-Appointment of him to represent your Majesty's Royal Person a most acceptable Mark of Favour to this Assembly.

Your Majesty's Royal Donation for the Propagation of Religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland we receive as a repeated Proof of your paternal Attention to the spiritual as well as to the temporal Interests of your Subjects; and it shall be our Endeavour, by a wise and faithful Application of it, to promote the pious and benevolent Purpose for which it was bestowed.

Firmly convinced as we are of the indissoluble Connection which must ever subsist between the temporal Prosperity of a People and their Adherence to the Practice of Religion and Virtue, we shall exert our most strenuous Endeavours to maintain and improve that happy Union, by impressing a just Sense of the blessed Effects of it upon the Minds of all those who are committed to our Care: And we trust that the great Objects of our Deliberations will upon all Occasions animate us to persevere with increasing Zeal and Diligence in the Discharge of our Duty, upon which they reflect so much Dignity. While we rejoice in the Persuasion that nothing is ever dearer to your Majesty, or nearer to your Heart, than the Happiness of your People, we have at the same Time the Satisfaction of knowing that no Services can ever be more acceptable to you, or can more effectually secure to us the Continuance of your Royal Approbation.

Your Majesty's Reliance on the Wisdom and Discretion of this Church is a powerful Incitement to us to keep constantly before us the important Ends of our Meeting, and an Encouragement to carry on all our Deliberations with that Spirit of Moderation and Unanimity, which is so becoming the Character we bear, and so well calculated to bring this present Meeting of the General Assembly to a happy and satisfactory Conclusion.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, direct your Councils, and prosper your Administration; that he may bless our gracious Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that, after reigning long with Wisdom and Felicity over a free, happy and grateful People, you may receive that Crown of Righteousness which fadeth not away, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

James Meek, Moderator.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal and prosperous People is our most ardent Prayer; a People not insensible to their own Happiness, and ever disposed to regard, with a partial Attachment, those of their Princes who are studious of the true Interests, and who respect the Constitution of their Country.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Royal Highness on an Alliance with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick, and to express our Joy on an Event in the highest Degree interesting to the whole British Dominions; earnestly wishing that uninterrupted Happiness may attend yourself and your Royal Consort, and that, equally with our most gracious King and Queen, both may possess the Hearts of a grateful and loyal People.

[Presented by Samuel Edwards, Esq; Sheriff.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of the Land-Tax of the County of Dumfries, met here this Day, beg Leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere Congratulations upon your late Nuptials with her Royal Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick, and to assure your Royal Highness, that your Alliance with a Princess illustrious by her Birth, and possessing every other Quality that can adorn the high Station to which which she is called, affords us, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the highest Gratification, as it holds out to us the Hope of seeing the Virtues of your Royal House handed down to Posterity.

May this auspicious Union produce to your Royal Highness and your amiable Consort every Degree of Happiness; and may you long live, following the great Pattern of your Royal Father, our beloved Sovereign, to be a Blessing to the People, and an Example of every Virtue to all those whom Providence may call upon you to govern.

Signed, in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Ro. Dalzell, Præses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

S I R,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness with those Sentiments of Attachment and Respect which we are persuaded you will ever obtain and deserve from the free Suffrage of the People.

On the late auspicious Event of your Nuptials, permit us to offer our unfeigned Congratulations. While we cannot but feel a sensible Interest in an Occurrence which regards the Increase of your domestic Enjoyments, we most sincerely rejoice that it also enlarges the Prospect and promises the Happiness to these Kingdoms of an ample Line of Princes of the House of Brunswick.

In a juncture like the present, so big with Events involving the Stability of the Constitution of every Nation of Europe, and in addressing a Prince so warmly attached as your Royal Highness to that of his own Country, we cannot help expressing our deep Sense of the numerous and unequalled Blessings we enjoy under it's mild Influence. Of other Nations, while some groan under Feudal Tyranny, and some are desolated by Republican Oppression, may we, from their Example, derive to ourselves solid Grounds for Contentment as well as Lessons of Wisdom. Anxious to protect the glorious Fabric of the British Constitution from the rash Hand of Innovation, no less than the silent Inroads of Corruption and Decay, may we happily maintain it in it's genuine Spirit, and transmit it, as their most valuable Inheritance, to a late Posterity.

HYNDFORD, Præses.

WE, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Council-Men of the Town and Port of Dovor, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your Marriage with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick, whose Virtues we ardently hope will secure to your Royal Highness every domestic Felicity.

Sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed under the auspicious Reign of your Royal Father, and having the most perfect Reliance that your Royal Highness inherits the same mild and constitutional Principles, which, under Providence, have, during His Majesty's Reign, advanced this Nation to it's present State of Prosperity, we cannot contemplate an Union, which promises to extend those Blessings to Posterity, without feeling the most lively Emotions of Joy.

That your Royal Highness may continue to possess the Affections of a free, brave and loyal People, and long enjoy an equal Portion of domestic Happiness which the Nation has, with Admiration, witnessed in our most gracious Sovereign and his beloved Queen, is our ardent Wish.

*W*HEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Eight o'Clock on the Morning of the 15th Instant, a most daring Mob, armed with Clubs and Axes, assembled at Bellemarsh, near Chudleigh, in the County of Devon, an Estate of James Templer, Esq; and forcibly entered a Mill thereon, and pulled down and destroyed a great Part of the Machinery of the said Mill, and at the same Time most inhumanly beat and wounded James Ball, the Tenant of the said Premises; and that upon the 15th Ultimo, another Mob assembled at Ilfrington, near the said Place, armed with various Weapons, and compelled the Peace Officers, who were furnished with a proper Warrant for the Apprehension of John Mortimer, who, together with Three other Persons already apprehended, appeared to be the principal Leaders of the said Insurgents, to retire.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Promoters and Instigators of the said Riots, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Persons now actually in Custody) who shall discover where the abovementioned John Mortimer is now concealed, or be otherwise instrumental in apprehending and bringing him to Justice.

An Abstract of the Act, and Forms of the Oaths required to be taken, may be had at this Office.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, May 6, 1795.

By an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for further regulating the sending and receiving Letters free from the Duty of Postage; for allowing Non-commissioned Officers, Seamen, and Private Men, in the Navy and Army, whilst on-Service, to send and receive Letters at a low Rate of Postage; and for permitting Patterns and Samples of Goods to be transmitted by the Post at an easier Rate than is now allowed by Law,"

No Letter or Packet whatsoever, sent by the Post within Great Britain, directed by or to any Member of either House of Parliament of Great-Britain, shall, from and after the 5th Instant, be exempted from the Duty of Postage, if such Letter or Package shall exceed One Ounce in Weight.

No Letter or Packet directed by any such Member, shall be exempted from the Postage, unless the Member whose Name shall be indorsed thereon, shall actually be in the Post-Town into the Post-Office of which every such Letter or Packet shall be put, or within the Limits of the Delivery of Letters for such Post-Town, or within Twenty Miles of such Post-Town, on the Day, or on the Day before the Day on which such Letter or Packet shall be put into the Post-Office.

No such Member shall be entitled or allowed to send by the Post, free from Postage, superscribed or directed by him, more than Ten Letters in any One Day, nor to receive by the Post, free from Postage, more than Fifteen Letters directed to him in any One Day.

Provided, that whenever the Number of Letters, or Packets, not weighing more than One Ounce each, sent or received by any such Member in any One Day, shall exceed the Number exempted by the said Act from Postage, and the Rate of Postage upon any of them shall differ, then such of the said Letters or Packets as would be chargeable with a higher Rate of Postage than the Remainder, shall be included in the Number so exempted, in Preference to any which would be chargeable with a lower Rate of Postage, and the Remainder shall be chargeable with the several Rates of Postage respectively to which such Letters would now by Law be chargeable, if sent or received by any Persons not entitled to send or receive Letters or Packets free from Postage.

The several Persons who by Law are authorised in Right of their Offices and Employments to send and receive Letters free from Postage, and their Successors in such Offices and Employments, may, during their Continuance in such Offices and Employments, send and receive Letters and Packets, free from Postage, as they now send and receive the same.

No printed Votes or Proceedings in Parliament, or printed Newspapers sent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides, which shall be signed on the Outside thereof by the Hand of any Member of Parliament as heretofore practised, or which shall be directed to any such Member at any Place whereof he shall have given Notice in Writing to the Postmaster-General, or his Deputy, shall be charged with Postage.

No single Letter sent by the Post from any Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private employed in His Majesty's Navy, Army, Militia, Fencible Regiments, Artillery or Marines, shall, whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than the Sum of One Penny for the Conveyance of each such Letter, such Postage to be paid at the Time of putting the same into the Post-Office of the Town or Place from whence such Letter is intended to be sent by the Post.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from Postage unless there shall be written thereon in the Hand-Writing of and signed by the Commanding Officer for the Time being of the Ship or Vessel, or of the Corps, Regiment, or Detachment to which such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private shall belong, the Name of such Commanding Officer, and of the Ship, Vessel, Corps, Regiment or Detachment commanded by him.

No single Letter, directed to any such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, upon his own private Concerns, only whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, shall be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than One Penny for each such Letter, which Penny shall be paid at the Time of the Delivery thereof,

N. B. On some visible Part of the Front of those Offices, the Words OFFICE APPOINTED TO GRANT HAIR POWDER CERTIFICATES will be painted for general Information.

At all which Offices or Places the Persons applying for the said Certificates will be furnished, gratis, with the proper printed Form of the Entry, required by the Act, to be filled up in Writing, and delivered in, previously to the issuing of any Certificates.

And the Commissioners do hereby give further Notice, that they have duly authorized the Head Distributors of Stamps in the different Counties of the Kingdom to execute this Business by themselves and their Deputies: The former of whom the Commissioners have directed to publicly advertise, as early as possible, an Account of the Offices and Places in their respective Districts, for the said Purpose, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Neighbourhood thereof, with the Names of the Deputies the said Head Distributors have appointed: to superintend the same.

And, to prevent Mistakes, the Commissioners think it right to apprise the Publick, that a Duty of ONE POUND AND ONE SHILLING ONLY is to be paid for each Certificate; which Sum will be expressed by a Stamp on each Certificate; and that NO MORE IS TO BE DEMANDED OF ANY PERSON upon taking out a Certificate for using or wearing of Hair Powder, upon any Pretence whatever, except where there are more than Two unmarried Daughters in a Family; in which Case a double Certificate, stamped with Two Stamps of One Pound One Shilling each, is required to be taken out.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Sec.

N. B. IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE Notices, the Commissioners think it expedient to caution the Public, that every Person who, since the 5th Day of May instant, has worn Hair Powder, IS LIABLE TO THE DUTY OF ONE GUINEA, and required to take out a stamped Certificate of that Value; at the Expiration of one Month from that Day, a PENALTY of Twenty Pounds will attach upon every Person who shall use and wear Hair Powder, without taking out a Certificate for the same; and that if Informations are then tendered against Offenders, the Commissioners cannot, consistently with their Duty, refuse to receive them, and to direct Prosecutions accordingly.

To prevent which, and that Persons may be accommodated with the least Inconvenience and Delay, it is earnestly recommended to such as require Certificates, to provide themselves therewith immediately, by applying at such of the Offices above mentioned as are respectively appointed for Persons residing within those different Districts; and if the Parties applying could make it convenient, previously to furnish themselves with the Forms of Entry, which are issued, gratis, at the said Offices, and deliver them in properly filled up, it is presumed that it would greatly facilitate the Business of taking out Certificates, by shortening the Time of Waiting, and preventing that Embarrassment, which, from the numerous Applications that may be expected to be made for them towards the Close of the Month, will otherwise unavoidably occur.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

To the Proprietors of the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL.

Gentlemen,
YOU may depend upon the Authenticity of the under-Letter from a Gentleman in this Neighbourhood, who wishes not to have his Name appear.

Barnley Post-Office, I am, your humble Servant,
Feb. 21, 1795. JANE BENT.

Miss Bent, (Copy.)

I have great Reason to say the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL is a most valuable Medicine. I had the Misfortune to be put into a very damp Bed, which brought on a most violent Fever. The Doctor said it was impossible I should get better, as I had more Fever than any Person he ever had under his Care; he gave me Medicines which brought it to intermit: I had this Fever intermitting for Five Months, which reduced me to a very weak State; my Stomach was so relaxed and weak that my Victuals would not digest, and it was swelled as big as my Body and Stomach would contain, and my Passages quite locked up. I was obliged to have my Stomach fomented with a Bottle of Red Wine, Cloves, Cinnamon, Mace and Nutmegs boiling hot, and as one Flannel cooled I had another ready to put on; this was repeated so often that I was at the Point of Death. Upon seeing the Cordial in the Newspaper, I sent to you for a Bottle, and when my Complaint came on I took a Dose of it, which took away the Pain and Swelling, opened my Passages, and gave me much Relief, so that I had no Occasion to be fomented afterwards. Have kept a Bottle by me ever since to apply to in case of Need.

The Oriental Vegetable Cordial, so eminently distinguished for curing Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, Bilious Fevers, Gout, &c. is sold, Wholesale and Retail, by Marshall and Cornwell, the only Proprietors, No. 5, Bloomsbury-Square, London, in Bottles of 5s. and 10s. 6d. each, or the Quantity of Six Bottles in One for 1l. 3s. 6d. and retail by the general Venders of Medicine in England, Ireland, &c.
